HISTORICAL STATEMENT

I. COMPOSITION:

The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is composed of:

- (1) The eastern portion of the former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church.
- (2) The former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South.
- (3) The coastal region of the former Blue-Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church.
- (4) The Eastern District, North Carolina-Virginia Conference, Central Jurisdiction.

II. ORGANIZATION:

The organizing dates of the four former Conferences were as follows:

- (1) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church 1828, at Whitaker's Chapel in Halifax County, North Carolina.
- (2) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1837, at Petersburg, Virginia.

- (3) The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1879, at Greensboro, North Carolina, first named Southern Central Conference; two years later, 1881, renamed Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference.
- (4) The Eastern District North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference was organized at a special session on August 11, 1964, at Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina.

III. SESSIONS OF THE CONSTITUENT CONFERENCES BEFORE UNION IN 1939: (See 1980 Journal)

Rules of Order and Procedure

Section 1: Rules of Order

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these rules.
2. A member may speak out only once on any one motion until all who desire to speak have done so; and then he may speak only one additional time.
3. The chairperson of an agency (or someone designated by him) shall be allowed to speak last on his report even though the previous questions have been ordered.
4. Speeches shall be limited to ten (10) minutes except by consent of the conference.
5. If any part of these rules conflict with the The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, the Discipline shall prevail.
6. The Rules of Order and Procedure for the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church shall apply to the Annual Conference as regularly scheduled and to all called sessions of the conference.

Section II: Voting

1. Voting shall be by "yes or no" or by a "show of hands" or by "standing" at the discretion of the chair.
2. A count vote may be ordered or called by any member of the conference supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present and voting. The results of a count vote shall be printed in the Journal. The chair may call for a count vote if he is in doubt as to the outcome of the vote.
3. All votes shall be cast in the bar of the conference. The bar of the conference shall be determined by the conference at the beginning of the first session.

Section III: Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences

1. The election of clerical delegates shall be by the "Roman Ballot." (Each person eligible to vote shall write his selection of names to the number of names ordered by the chair on a secret ballot, without prior nomination, with balloting to continue until a majority is received by sufficient persons to fulfill the needed number of delegates.)
 - a. Any lay person who is a member of United Methodist Church of the North Carolina Annual Conference who wishes to be a nominee may submit a resume, not to exceed 200 words. Resumes may also be submitted on behalf of a prospective nominee.
 - b. Consent of the nominee should be obtained after the nominee has been informed of the duties of a delegate.
 - c. Any lay member of the Church may be voted for whether a resume is submitted or not.
 - d. Resumes should be mailed to the Conference Lay Leader by April 1, 1983.
 - e. The list of nominees and their resumes will be prepared and distributed by the Conference Board of Lay Life and Work at the District Briefings or be mailed with the Book of Reports.
3. The election of lay delegates shall be by the "Roman Ballot," as above. Electors may vote for any eligible person, whether nominated as above or not.
4. All votes shall be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the conference.
5. Ballots shall be numbered consecutively and only ballots with the number announced by the chair shall be valid. Defaced ballots will not be valid. (If a member defaces a ballot, he may exchange it for a new one at the secretary's desk.)
6. Each member will place his own ballot in the ballot box held by a teller.
7. Different colored ballots will be provided for lay and clerical members.

Section IV: Conference Structure

1. The Bishop and Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees authorized by the General Conference, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Annual Conference, except in those cases where the Discipline or the Annual Conference directs otherwise.
2. Near the end of each quadrennium, the heads of all Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees shall submit a list of qualified, suggested nominees to the Bishop and Cabinet for their consideration in the formation of new Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees.
3. Recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.
4. At the beginning of each quadrennium all Boards, Divisions, Commissions, and Committees shall elect their officers only after all their members have been notified of the organizational meeting. A member of the Cabinet or the Conference Staff (designated by the Cabinet) shall serve as the convening officer for the organizational meeting.
All elections in the Boards and Agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be by Roman Ballot, that is, without nomination and by ballot of those present and eligible to vote.
The presiding Bishop be requested to announce the Cabinet assignments to the various Boards and Agencies at some point during the Annual Conference.
Tenure for membership for all persons on boards, agencies, divisions, commissions, and committees shall be 8 years, with exception of the Board of Laity where tenure shall be six years for members and four years for The Conference Lay Leader. (The Conference Lay Leader may serve also the unexpired term of his predecessor.)

5. The Conference structure is that which was determined by the 1969 Annual Conference (Pages 212-217) and as amended by the Special Session of February 21, 1970 (Pages 110-117), the 1972 Annual Conference (Pages 308-311), and the 1976 Annual Conference.
6. The offices of Conference Secretary and Statistician shall be as determined by the 1973 Annual Conference (Pages 289-290).

The Secretary: The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Conference after the meeting of the General Conference; and on nominations arising from the floor.

Assistant Secretaries: The secretary shall nominate his assistants and the Conference shall elect.

Statisticians: There shall be a conference statistician and an assistant statistician. The statistician shall be elected quadrennially at the first session after the meeting of the General Conference. The assistant statistician shall be elected annually upon nomination by the statistician.

Conference Stenographers: The conference secretary shall employ the conference stenographers.

Compensation: The Council on Finance and Administration shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also, the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The Conference Treasurer shall pay these amounts.
7. Committees and Boards:
 - a. The Conference Board of Trustees shall be required to meet at least once a year other than the regular meeting at the session of the Annual Conference.
 - b. There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the Resident Bishop, the Conference Secretary, the host District Superintendent, and the pastor of the host church, and the Conference Lay Leader, the Conference President of the U.M.W., the U.M.Y.F., and the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries. They shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the conference expense fund.
 - c. There shall be an Entertainment Committee composed of three ministers and three laypersons. The Committee shall be elected at the first session of the Annual Conference in the quadrennium. The Committee shall receive invitations and recommend to the Annual Conference the place and the method of entertaining the Annual Conference.
 - (1) The Annual Conference will be held at Methodist College and N.C. Wesleyan College on alternating years (held at Methodist College until Wesleyan has an auditorium) except as such times that a local church or other institution wishes to host Annual Conference as a part of a special celebration in the life of the Church.
 - (2) The cabinet will designate a district each year on a rotating basis as the host district which will be responsible for ushers, flowers, and other related items of hospitality.
 - d. There shall be a Committee on Memoirs composed of the Conference Secretary, and the District Superintendents. They are charged with the responsibility of providing for all details of the memorial service. The Conference Secretary shall serve as its Chairperson.
 - e. There shall be a Committee on Daily Minutes elected each year to examine the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference and report daily to the Conference.
 - f. There shall be a Committee on Appeals appointed quadrennially, composed of five members whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Buildings, or any other questions that may properly come before it.

- g. There shall be a Committee on Rules which shall provide to the Conference a document of Rules of Order and Procedure and the policies and standing rules and structure that the Conference from time to time shall adopt for its functioning. This document shall be presented to each Annual Conference.
- h. There shall be constituted a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions annually, at the first session of the Conference.

Section V: Financial Administration

1. The Conference Treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.
2. The Council on Finance and Administration shall present their report to the Annual Conference only after all other committees, commissions, divisions, boards, and agencies having claims on the budget have presented their report.
3. Each District Superintendent shall furnish the Conference Treasurer as early as possible following the completion of the Charge Conferences an official copy of the acceptances of the Single Figure Askings and a schedule of the salaries of pastors as set by the Charge Conferences. The Conference Treasurer shall furnish this information to other agencies who have need of it. The Statistician shall use this report in compiling his report to the Annual Conference. (See also Section VII, Paragraph 2).

Section VI: Reports, Resolutions, Motions, and Amendments to Report

1. All reports, recommendations, and resolutions to be included in the Book of Recommendations shall be sent to the Conference Secretary, typewritten and in triplicate, on or before the date approved for such by the Council on Ministries and published in the conference calendar.
2. Resolutions presented to the Annual Conference affecting the structure, policy, and function of any board or agency of the Annual Conference shall be submitted in writing to the Conference Secretary with copies for all the lay and clerical members of the Conference. The resolution shall be presented to the Annual Conference on one day and considered the next day. No resolutions shall be distributed later than the second night of the Annual Conference. None can be considered later than the third night of the Conference.
3. Motions presented to the Annual Conference and amendments to motions shall be in writing (in triplicate) and placed in the hands of the Conference Secretary prior to or when presented or immediately following.

Section VII: Pastor's Report to The Annual Conference: Statistics

1. Table I and Table II shall be submitted to the Conference Statistician one week following the close of the financial books of the Annual Conference.
2. Final remittances for the current calendar year shall be made to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.
3. Each table of the report shall be filled out by individual churches.
4. Table II shall be made out in even dollars only.
5. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the Conference Statistician from the pastor's reports.

Section VIII: The Conference Journal

1. The Conference Secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.

2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent to each of the following: the conference claimants, Lay members of the Conference Boards, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference, and Lay Delegates to Annual Conference. The Conference Secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he may deem advisable. Three copies shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $5.00 each. Monies accruing from the sale of the Journal shall be deposited with the Conference Treasurer and credited to the Journal Account.
3. That the Conference return to the policy of publishing a one volume Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference each year.

Section IX: Districts

1. The numbers of districts shall be twelve.
2. Any change in the number of Districts shall be approved at one Annual Conference to take effect at the next Annual Conference. A majority may change the number of Districts.
3. A district conference may be held annually in each district when authorized by the Annual Conference.
4. The District President, Sub-district presidents, and the local church presidents of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship shall be delegates to the District Conference, in addition to those named by the 1972 Discipline.
5. The district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual Conference on nomination of the District Superintendent and the Conference Lay Leader.

Section X: Amendments

These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing, provided that the rule governing the manner in which the number of districts may be changed cannot be amended until the next Annual Conference.

Section XI: When the Rules Become Effective

These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the Conference.

Roll and Pastoral Records of Conference Members in Full Connection: 663, 1982

Note: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. Since the information came from records supplied by each man and includes only service in the North Carolina Conference, the Conference Secretary should be notified of any discrepancies or charges that the members wish to have made. Note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right-hand column only indicate the number of years served under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the North Carolina Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

Alphabetical Roll Conference Directory - 1981-1982

NOTE: Information for the Conference Directory is derived from information on file with the Conference Secretary and the "INFORMATION FOR THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL DIRECTORY" letters which were mailed prior to the Annual Conference. The minister's greeting name is included in brackets and the spouse's name in parentheses when available. These are home addresses, not always their church mailing address. If there is an error in the information shown below, please notify the Conference Secretary immediately so the correction may be made for the Conference Journal.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS (Daily Minutes)

EXECUTIVE SESSION

Tuesday, June 1, 1982

Bishop William R. Cannon, Resident Bishop of the Raleigh Area, called to order the Executive Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church at 1:00 p.m.

Bishop Cannon called for the singing of Hymn No. 124, "Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know." The ministers assembled sang the familiar hymn a capella.

Bishop Cannon called upon S.J. Starnes to open the session with prayer. He prayed with eloquence and grace.

The Bishop thanked Brother Starnes for his prayer and expressed affection for him. He then read from the New Testament, the Gospel according to St. Luke, the fourteenth chapter, selected verses. He proceeded to give admonition regarding the loyalty and effectiveness of the ministry vis-a-vis one's own personal commitment and discipline. Within the scope of his homily he covered the nature of divine service to the Lord within the appointive system of the United Methodist Church and also expounded upon his concerns regarding the various meanings of ministry. Bishop Cannon elucidated upon his text by referring to four ministers asked to move from appointments to serve another calling within the Cabinet and their all agreeing in principle, but stating in fact that they had rather not move at this time. He drew numerous reactions from the Conference assembled in regard to his extended remarks which were very close to the Scriptures. The Bishop then explained the appointive process within the Cabinet in detail and with great seriousness described the participation of the Cabinet and the agony by which appointments were made. He spoke forthrightly and earnestly as to the nature of appointment making, particularly the 164 plus changes occurring this year, the many interviews, and the concerns of matching the gifts of a minister with the needs of an appointment. The Bishop also agonized over the fairness doctrine in regard to salary.

Bishop Cannon offered prayer, praying both for forgiveness for himself and for the Cabinet during the appointment-making process and asking that the Grace of God be bestowed upon them.

Bishop Cannon recognized G. Robert McKenzie to present the Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: McKenzie asked the ushers to be sure that everyone had a copy of the green-covered Annual Report and gave praise regarding the diligent and hard work of the board over a period of many months. McKenzie expressed appreciation and paid tribute to members of the board in particular and introduced them to the Conference assembled. He paid special tribute to William W. Sherman, Jr., the Staff Coordinator for the board.

McKenzie called Question 20, "Who have received the certificate of candidacy for ordained ministry?" The names and necessary changes were read. These were approved by the Conference. (See Condensed Minutes.)

He called Question 21, "Who have completed the studies for the license as a local pastor, but are not now appointed?" Corrections were made. These were accepted as read. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 22a, "Who are approved and appointed as Full Time Local Pastors?" was called and approved by the conference. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 22b, "Who are approved and appointed as Part Time Local Pastors?" was called. The names were approved. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 22c, "Who are approved and appointed as Student Local Pastors?" was called. Corrections were made and the names were approved. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Questions 23a, "Who have been discontinued as Full Time Local Pastors;" b, "Part Time Local Pastors?," and c, "Student Local Pastors?" was called. These were accepted by the Conference. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 24 was called. The answer was "None."

Question 25 was called. The answer was "None."

Question 26, "Who are elected Associate Members?" was called. The sole candidate was presented to the Conference and he was accepted. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 27 was called, "Who are elected Probationary Members?" (a) under the provisions of paragraph 415. Each was recognized and presented and all were accepted. (See Condensed Minutes.) Question 27b was called. The answer was "None."

Question 28 was called, "Who are continued as Probationary Members?" (a) as students in approved schools of theology. The list was called. It was moved and seconded that they be continued. The motion passed and the report was adopted. The answer to Question 28b was "None." Question 28c was called and approved. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 29, "Who have been admitted from other Christian denomination?" was called. The answer was, "None."

Question 30 was called, "Who are elected as Ministerial Members in Full Connection?" Each name was called and the ministers were invited to come to the stage so that the entire Conference could see them and question them, if they wished. They were then presented to the Conference as a group, having been examined individually. Bishop Cannon greeted each candidate personally, spoke to all the candidates and asked if they were ready to become Members in Full Connection. They chatted informally with the Bishop and the Bishop made comments to the Conference concerning some of the various candidates. Each one answered that he or she was indeed ready to accept the mantle of Full Connection. McKenzie moved their election and they were elected by the Executive Session. They were accorded a rising round of applause in honor of their newly bestowed status. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 31 was called. The answer was "None."

Question 32 was called, "Who are readmitted (a) as Associate members? and (b) as Members in Full Connection?" The questions were moved, seconded and adopted. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 33 was called. The answer was "None."

Question 34, "Who have been received by transfer?" was called. The names were read and the men were introduced to the Conference.

Question 35 was called. The answer was "None."

Question 36 was called, "Who have been elected and ordained deacons?" Under (a), "No one." Under (b), "as Probationary Members?" The list was called and the report was accepted as information, having already been before the body. The matter of ordination was put before the session. The candidates were directed to be ordained.

Question 37, "Who have been elected and ordained elders as theological graduates?" was called. The names were called. The report was adopted. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 38 was called. The answer was "No one."

Question 39 was called. The answer was "No one."

Question 40, "Who have been transferred out?" was called. The names were read as a matter of information. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 41 was called. The answer was "No one."

Question 42 was called, "Who have been granted honorable location?" The names were called and the session adopted the recommendation of the Board of Ordained Ministry and granted honorable location. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 43 was called. The answer was "None."

Question 44, "Who have had their Conference membership terminated (a) by withdrawal to unite with another denomination?" The name was read. "(b) by surrender of the ministerial office?" The name was read. "(c) by withdrawal under complaints or charges?" The name was read. "(d) by trial?" No one. "(e) by involuntary termination?" No one. The report was moved, seconded and adopted. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 45 concerning deceased members was called. "What Associate Members have died during the year?" Names were read. "What Probationary Members have died during the year?" None. "What Members in Full Connection have died during the year, both effective and retired?" The names were read. "What Local Pastors have died during the year?" None. Bishop Cannon noted that all of these would be memorialized at Annual Conference but asked that we now, here in the session, remember them and asked the Conference Secretary, Ted Wilson, to offer prayer on behalf of those who have served so well.

Question 46 was called, "Who are the ministers on Leave of Absence and for what number of years consecutively has each held this relation?" The names were read. McKenzie moved that they be granted leave of absence. The Bishop asked if there were any questions and then asked for a show of hands. They were granted the leave of absence. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 47 was called, "Who are granted Sabbatical Leave?" The name was called. It was granted. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 48 was called, "What actions have been taken concerning disabled Ordained Ministers and Local Pastors?" Under a and b there were no responses. Under c, the list of those to be granted Disability Leave was read. Under d, Local Pastors being recommended by the Joint Committee on Disability for benefits during the ensuing year was called. The session ordered that these be granted Disability Leave. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 49 was called, "What Members in Full Connection have been retired?" (a)

Mandatory Retirement at age 70. None. (b) Retirement with Actuarially Reduced Benefits. Those names were read. (c) Early Retirement. Those names were read. (d) Regular Retirement. Those names were read. All these were granted retirement. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 50 was called, "What Associate Members have been retired?" The individual was granted retirement. (See Condensed Minutes.)

Question 51 was called, "What Local Pastors have been retired?" The names were read and retirement was granted. (See Condensed Minutes.)

This concluded the calling of the Questions applicable to the Board of Ordained Ministry. McKenzie moved the adoption of the report in its entirety. It was done by the Conference assembled by unanimous voice vote and applause. The reports as amended and passed and the Questions as called will all appear in the Condensed minutes, Section II, and in the Report of the Board of Ministry, Section V, of the 1982 Journal. See these reports for the lists of names and other specific information, e.g., Disciplinary Paragraphs, etc.

McKenzie dealt with miscellaneous matters that also were under the umbrella of responsibility of the board, specifically the confirmation of certain appointments beyond the local church and those seeking less than full time appointments. The names were placed before the session. The report was adopted by the required two-thirds majority. The last statement dealt with ministers from other Annual Conferences seeking Affiliate Membership. The names were called and they were granted same by the session. McKenzie stated that this concluded the report of the board and he recognized William W. Sherman for remarks concerning the pastors who would be moving at Annual Conference.

Sherman requested that the ministers take note of the Pension Plan procedures regarding moving and encouraged ministers to wait until after moving day to make certain changes requested.

Passing of Character and Official Administration of the Ministers: Cannon called the name of each District Superintendent in turn and the character and official administration of each was passed. This District Superintendents then asked that the character and administration of the ministers within their districts be approved. This was done.

Announcements: Bishop Cannon called for a brief meeting of named individuals after the session and following that a brief Cabinet Meeting.

Bishop Cannon called upon Conference Secretary Ted Wilson to make announcements. Wilson asked each person to turn in the registration card for the Executive Session. He announced several special functions to be held during the ensuing Conference next week and called for miscellaneous meetings.

Maness Mitchell made announcements.

Bishop Cannon again spoke warm words of appreciation for Chairman McKenzie and for the report of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Benediction: Bishop Cannon called upon Joseph B. Bethea to give the benediction.

Adjournment: The Conference was adjourned sine die until the following Sunday, June 6, 1982, at 2:30 p.m.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Sunday, June 6, 1982 (Trinity Sunday)

At 4:00 p.m. a service for admission of Ministerial Candidates into Probationary Conference Membership and Associate Conference Membership and for the Ordination of Deacons was held in Reeves Auditorium at Methodist College, Fayetteville, NC. (See North Carolina Annual Conference and Worship Bulletin, 1982.)

FIRST DAY, EVENING SESSION

Sunday, June 6, 1982

At 8:00 p.m. a service for admission of Ministerial Candidates into full Conference Membership and for the Ordination of Elders was held in Reeves Auditorium at Methodist College. (See North Carolina Annual Conference Ordination and Worship Bulletin, 1982.)

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION

Monday, June 7, 1982

Sacrament of Holy Communion: The Sacrament of Holy Community was celebrated in Hensdale Chapel at 7:30 a.m. under the direction of the Division of Worship.

Prelude: Organist for the morning session was Mrs. Laura Davenport, Director of Music/Organist of First United Methodist Church, Wilson, who played the prelude arranged by Manz, "God of Grace."

Conference Convened: Bishop William R. Cannon, Resident Bishop of the Raleigh Area, called to order the North Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church at Methodist College in Fayetteville, North Carolina, at 9:00 a.m. Following the singing of the traditional Conference Hymn, No. 336, "And Are We Yet Alive?" Bishop Cannon called upon Cameron West to read the Scripture for the morning. He called upon George Blount to give the prayer of invocation and dedication for the morning session.

Introduction of Conference Preacher: Bishop Cannon introduced Dr. Fred B. Craddock, Professor of Preaching and New Testament in the Chandler School of Theology. The Bishop referred to him as one of the most significant voices in Christianity today. He presented him to the Conference for the first in a series of sermons.

The Sermon: Dr. Craddock thanked Bishop Cannon for his expressions of greeting and introduction. Craddock spoke of the fact that his three messages would be taken from the Gospel of John dealing with the various kinds of Biblical materials contained within the Gospel which reveal God and the power of the Holy Spirit. His first message dealt with the beginnings and how we come to know God.

Call for Hymn: Bishop Cannon thanked Dr. Craddock and called for the singing of Hymn No. 124, "Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know." Having already responded to Dr. Craddock's moving sermon with obvious emotion and applause, the Conference assembled sang the great hymn of faith with fervor and passion.

Introduction: Bishop Cannon expressed appreciation to Dr. Richard Pearce and Bill Lowdermilk, officials of Methodist College, for being hosts for a tenth consecutive year. He also noted the presence of the Honorable J. William Hurley, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, who was present to bring greetings; and also Joseph B. Bethea, Superintendent of the Rockingham District, which was the host district for this session. He then called for Dr. Pearce to speak.

Welcome: Dr. Pearce brought greetings on behalf of the trustees and staff of the college and gave thanks for having the opportunity to bring these words of welcome once again. (See Section V for text of Welcome) He described in detail some of the preparations that had been made for the Conference and as has been his custom, brought special words of thanks to "Mr. Methodist College," Bill Lowdermilk. The Conference applauded. Pearce made a request that the staff be forgiven for some of the oversights that might have been made and then listed the various announcements that would make for a more pleasant stay. Pearce again explained the need to keep the peak usage of electricity down in order to conserve on electric bills for the college for the entire year. With the new computerized energy saving system, Pearce announced that there may be some occasional discomfort from heat, but generally speaking we would be able to beat the peak and thus save on energy throughout the Conference. He also announced that there would be two cafeteria lines and urged people to space their time for going to meals.

Introduction: Dr. Pearce presented the Honorable J. William Hurley, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, who brought greetings from the city. The Conference applauded and stood in acknowledgement of the presence of the mayor.

Greetings: Mayor Hurley, a United Methodist himself, expressed appreciation for having the opportunity of welcoming the entire Conference to the city once again. He asked for a show of hands for those who were here for the first time and particularly welcomed those who had not been to Fayetteville before. After inviting the people to partake of the delights of the city and everything that it offered, he asked for the privilege of recognizing his father, the Reverend J. Bascom Hurley, who was present, recognized, and noted that he was now 90 years of age. Bishop Cannon shook Brother Hurley's hand in acknowledgement. Mayor Hurley gave credit to his family for the Christian environment and home that had such an influence on his life.

Introduction: Mayor Hurley presented Miss Dotsy Reynolds, Lay Leader of the Rockingham District, who brought greetings from the District. She expressed appreciation for the devotion and commitment of members of the District serving under the leadership of Superintendent Joseph B. Bethea. Miss Reynolds gave a summary of the work done by the laity during the preceding year. She expressed the hope that this would be a spiritually enriching and certainly one of the best Annual Conferences ever. She then presented Dr. Bethea to bring remarks for the District.

Host District: Joseph B. Bethea brought further greetings from the Rockingham District, reaffirming everything that Dotsy Reynolds had said. Bethea expressed appreciation for all those who had spoken before him and thanked them for the work they had done in preparing for Annual Conference. He then expressed appreciation for the loyal lay persons and clergy of the Rockingham District that had worked so hard to assist in serving as hosts for the 1982 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Bethea recognized the pastors of his District who stood and were accorded a round of applause. He then asked that they be joined by the lay persons of the District, who were also to be considered hosts during the week. They were accorded a round of applause. Bethea emphasized that all those standing were here to serve the needs of the Conference and asked the rest of the Conference to call upon them if they could be of any service. Finally, Bethea asked the entire Conference to stand and greet "our beloved Bishop Cannon" as he comes to bring the State of the Church address.

The State of the Church: Following the applause of the Conference after the introduction by Joseph B. Bethea, Bishop Cannon brought the annual State of the Church address. (For text see Section V of the Journal.) Bishop Cannon called attention to the fact that Conference actually began yesterday with the most important Ordination Services. He called attention to the number of ministers ordained and received into the various levels of membership. He affirmed that ordination effected a change in the soul and forever set a person apart because of the nature of his call and the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit. The Bishop spoke eloquently regarding the problems of the new clergy evaluation system and urged the laity to observe carefully the uniqueness in the differences of each pastor. The stereotyping of the nature of the ministry by the laity could be a discouraging problem. He urged both clergy and laity to love one another and perform their respective duties. He urged the evaluation system to be used cautiously and conscientiously and in the fear of God. The Bishop congratulated the Conference members for their acceptance of the new Pension Program for the church and for the monies raised in the campaign for the old program. The Bishop praised the Conference for its record in evangelism and for the fact that it is fiscally sound and evangelically inspired. Bishop Cannon concluded his address with a call for personal piety and renewal of the deepening of the Christian life and spirit. The Conference applauded.

Organization of the Conference: Bishop Cannon called for the Conference Secretary Ted Wilson to present certain motions. Wilson requested that they be read as a body and then voted upon. The following motions were read.

"I move that the Rules of the Conference be those rules printed on pages 6-10 of the 1981 Journal.

"I move that the registration cards signed at the registration tables by the lay and clerical members of the Conference be designated and declared the official role of the Conference.

"I move that the main floor and the stage of Reeves Auditorium be the Bar of the Conference.

"I move that the program contained in the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982 (as amended by the presiding bishop) be designated and declared the Official Program of the Conference.

"I move that all those persons appearing on the program of the Conference be granted the privilege of the floor. Some of those on the program are not members of the Conference and this motion will enable them to speak without a specific motion for each individual."

Report on Conference Minutes: Robert L. Bame stated that the Committee on Conference Minutes had read the Minutes for the Executive Session and for the afternoon and evening sessions on Sunday, June 6, and found them to be correct. He moved their adoption. The Conference complied.

Nominations for Annual Conference Committees: Bishop Cannon recognized Richard W. Pearce, chairman of the Committee on Nominations to present certain nominations for boards and agencies to be voted on at this one hundred fifty-seventh session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Copies of the changes in nominations were distributed and, before further motion, Pearce took an opportunity to present Dr. Stacy Weaver to the Conference. Bishop Cannon received him warmly, the Conference applauded and Dr. Weaver, the first president of Methodist College and a long time leader in Methodism, addressed the Conference briefly. His remarks were received with appreciation.

The nominations were adopted unanimously. Following is a list of the nominations.

Point of Personal Privilege: Ernest Porter noted the fact that W. Carleton Wilson had been Secretary of the Conference for 17 years and because of a stroke was now in the Joseph F. Coble Health Care Center of the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. He moved that Brother Wilson be elected and recognized as Secretary Emeritus of the North Carolina Annual Conference. It was adopted by the Conference. Genuine appreciation was expressed by a round of applause. The Bishop instructed that the word of this action and greetings be sent to Carleton Wilson and that words of greetings also be sent to Allen Brantley who was missing Conference for the first time in many years because of illness.

The Composite Report of the District Superintendents: Bishop Cannon presented Joseph B. Bethea, President of the Cabinet, who presented the report on behalf of all of the District Superintendents. (The text of the entire report will be found in Section V of the Journal.) The Bishop expressed appreciation for Bethea's presentation of the Cabinet report and for its inclusiveness.

Report of the Conference Lay Leader: Bishop Cannon called upon Richard Pearce for the report. He gave a challenge and summary of the work of the laity during the past year emphasizing the support from United Methodist Men and most of all expressing praise for the active District Lay Leaders and the marvelous Lay Rallies held during the past year. (The text of the entire report will be found in Section V of the Journal.)

Pearce spoke words of appreciation for the staff support given by Willie Teague during the past year. Pearce gave further gratitude for the Bishop and the ministers serving under his leadership for their marvelous work in the Conference and its many churches during the past year. The report was accepted with applause.

Report of United Methodist Women: Bishop Cannon presented Mrs. T. Marvin Vick, Jr., president of the United Methodist Women, to make the report. She emphasized the theme for the year: "Love is Caring." Mrs. Vick described the Annual Conference Meeting of United Methodist Women. Many other impressive aspects of the work of women in mission were described (The full text of the report appears in Section V of the Journal.) Mrs. Vick concluded her report by calling for the members of United Methodist Women present to stand.

Report of United Methodist Men: Bishop Cannon presented J. Allen Norris, Jr., Conference President of the United Methodist Men, who reported a strengthening and continuing numerical and spiritual growth of United Methodist Men of the Conference. (Full text of the report appears in Section V of the Journal.)

Report of United Methodist Youth: Bishop Cannon presented Bert Armstrong to present the report. He spoke of the work of the program within the Conference, of the Annual Conference Session of United Methodist Youth and of the National Convocation. (The complete text will be found in Section V of the Journal.) The Bishop expressed appreciation to Bert for his fine report and for the work of the youth.

Call for the Order of the Day: Bishop Cannon called for the Order of the Day and the report of the Board of Pensions and the recognition of ministers who are retiring.

Report of the Board of Pensions: Bishop Cannon presented Norwood Jones to bring the report for the board. Copies of the Board of Pensions Annual Report and the report to the 1982 Annual Conference concerning the Pension Funding Crusade were distributed. Jones stated that he was regretful that the full report could not have been incorporated in the Conference Program and Recommendation 1982. He then presented the staff person representing the board, W.W. Sherman, who made certain motions including the inclusion of D.D. Holt for four years of pension credit. Other changes were noted and made in the report which would be included in Section V of the Journal. These were adopted by the Conference.

Names of ministers retiring this year were called. Sherman then called the names of those appointed to the retired relation and they were called to the stage and greeted by Bishop Cannon. Whenever possible, spouses were asked to come with them. Orchid corsages were pinned on each of the spouses. Bishop Cannon invited the retiring ministers to say a word to the Annual Conference. Many spoke marvelous words of edification and encouragement as well as memory and appreciation. Certificates of service were presented to each of the retiring ministers. Having spoken, all ministers retiring received a round of applause and the service was concluded by words of appreciation from the Bishop and the prayer of consecration.

Recess: Bishop Cannon called for recess until after the luncheon hour.

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Monday, June 7, 1982

Following the playing of the prelude, "Three Meditative Moments on Moravian Hymns," by Elmore, by the organist of the afternoon, William J. Weisser, Minister of Music of Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, Bishop Cannon called the afternoon session of the Annual Conference to order with the singing of Hymn No. 217, "He Leadeth Me, O Blessed Thought." The Bishop called upon James Auman to give the prayer of invocation.

Announcements: Secretary Ted Wilson made announcements concerning the Order of the Day and Bishop Cannon changed the worship program from the Wesley Covenant Service for tonight to a different service because of the presence of Bishop Smith to speak this evening.

Introduction: Bishop Cannon introduced D.D. Traynham to give the report of the Conference Statistician.

Report of the Conference Statistician: Traynham assumed the rostrum and called attention to page 53 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982. He indicated that 1980 and 1981 statistics were compared on the charts on pages 53, 54 and 55, with the percentage of change. Traynham pointed to the subtotals concerning money raised and indicated it would help in answering the question of where our money went and how it was spent. He spoke to all of the statistics in general and indicated that these, with necessary revisions, would be printed in Section V of the Journal. (See Section V for Statistician's Report.) Traynham asked the Bishop's indulgence as he gave a decade by decade general summary since he first joined the Methodist Episcopal Church South in 1930 until this date. The changes were startling and dramatic. Following is the summary as presented by Traynham.

Supplement to Report of Statistician
Year	Church Membership	S.S. Membership	Budget
1930	117,171	93,293	$ 1,380,625
1940	143,432	96,710	1,567,039
1950	168,629	113,983	4,390,701
1960	192,562	148,122	9,254,175
1970	211,120	129,779	13,192,540
1980	212,328	104,433	29,872,756
1981	212,799	102,005	32,038,162

Report of the Council on Finance on Finance and Administration: Bishop Cannon recognized Randolph R. Few, who presented the report as found in the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982 on pages 41-44. Few spoke to Section II regarding a change in Item 9.

Question: James Coile asked Few what the basis for the formula for the derivation of the salary of district superintendents was. Few answered that it was based on the highest salary in each district averaged together.

Question: Wallace Kirby felt that the Women's giving should be excluded from the Fair Share Apportionment under Item 1 and then made the following motion.

Motion: Wallace Kirby moved that "under Section II there be an additional item for the Council on Finance and Administration, out of its Contingency and Reserve Fund, consider an annual appropriation to meet human need, similar to the appropriation made in 1982, and administered by the Conference Council on Ministries." It was seconded. Few accepted the Kirby proposal to be included as Item 11.

Question: James R. Crosseth of Epworth United Methodist Church, Durham, asked a question concerning the formula for Fair Share apportionments. Charles K. McAdams answered the question, stating that in the case of Epworth Church they carry the Pre-School as a budget item instead of as a separate item and it is not excludable unless it is carried outside the church budget. Crosseth stated that there should be a written proposal concerning pre-schools or supplementary schools. Kermit Braswell questioned the entire matter, stating that any funds taken from the church budget to help fund the pre-school could be subtracted as local benevolences. McAdams answered that this would be correct provided it was a benevolence. It is when the pre-school provides an income for the church that it ceases to be a benevolence and becomes a means of ministry that derives a profit that is used for an expense of the church. Braswell felt that it would be simply "other assets," but McAdams responded that it would be other operational expenses and would show up there.

Point of Information: It was requested that the Conference Secretary read the change in Item 9, Section II, on page 43. Item 9 reads:

9. An appropriation of $50,000, from the contingency reserve funds, shall be granted to the Methodist Foundation for the purpose of establishing the Office of Planned Giving. Annual support as needed will also be provided from the contingency reserve funds up to the time this office becomes self-sustaining. Annual evaluation and reports of progress shall be provided each year to the Annual Conference through the report of the Methodist Foundation, under whose direction the office will function.

Question: Kirby wanted to know about the expenditure of $50,000 for an Office of Planned Giving. Few answered Kirby stating that this would be an attempt to raise gifts for the Conference at Large with no particular strings attached. It is anticipated that the office would become self-sustaining.

Motion: Kirby rejoined that each agency of the Church now had a person in this office and queried the wisdom of employing yet another person. He felt this was unwise and moved the deletion of Item 9, Section II. Kirby's motion was seconded.

Point of Order: James Coile raised a Point of Order as to who was paying the person. Was it the Foundation or was it the Conference? Few answered stating that it would be the Conference because there were no funds within the Foundation to pay such a person. Bishop Cannon responded that the money actually came from Contingency Funds but was still a part of the Conference budget.

James Auman was recognized for a speech against deletion of Item 9 concerning the employment of a professional in the office of Planned Giving. He spoke for keeping that item in and for the need of such a person's being employed for the good offices of raising special gifts within the church.

Question: The Question was called. There was a call for a standing vote. This was not effective and a count vote was called for. The motion to delete Item 9 was defeated.

Items 1 - 11 under Section II were amended. The report was adopted.

Section III was adopted. Section IV was adopted. The report as a whole, except Section I, was adopted. Section I, which is the actual budget, will be acted upon on the final day of Annual Conference. (See Amended CFA Report in Section V.) Bishop Cannon expressed appreciation for the action of the Conference. He then introduced Sid Gullede for a special report.

Report of the Methodist Foundation, Inc.: Gullede gave the report for the Methodist Foundation. (For complete text of the report see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry: Richard J. Williams presented the report appearing on pages 36-39 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982. Williams made corrections and introduced two diaconal ministers to be received into candidacy to be consecrated in 1983, Anne Marie Glisson and Wayne Douglas Powers. The report was adopted by the Conference with appreciation expressed by Bishop Cannon. (For text see Section V of the Journal.)

Announcement: An emergency announcement regarding the necessary removal of certain improperly parked cars was made by Conference Secretary Wilson.

Return to the Report of the Board of Pensions: Norwood Jones yielded to W.W. Sherman to resume the report. Sherman introduced Wallace Kirby to discuss the booklet on the Pension Funding Crusade. Kirby said that four years ago we embarked upon the campaign and now the more than three million dollar goal had been achieved and exceeded. After payment of all expenses 3.2 million dollars have gone into the Pension Funding Crusade. Thus we have gone into above the original goal. Certificates were made available for 100% charges and pastors of those charges were invited to take them at the close of the session.

Sherman took the podium and returned to page 4 of the Board of Pensions Annual Report. He moved Groups 1-9 of the report. They were adopted. He presented Group 10 for information.

He moved the adoption of Group 11 and it was done. Item 12 was adopted. Item 13 was adopted as amended.

Report B, Section I, was presented and adopted. Section II was moved and adopted. Section III was moved and adopted. Section VI was presented for information.

Report C, Ministers Retirement Fund Constitution was restated with a few editorial changes and it was adopted.

Report D, the Housing Exclusion Allowance, was adopted. This concluded the report. The report was moved for adoption as a whole and it was adopted.

Question: Wade Goldston asked about Item 13 on page A-6 of the Board of Pensions Annual Report. Because of the action of the Board of Ordained Ministry it was the feeling of the Board of Pensions that because of the matters involved that Item 13 be dropped.

Motion: Wade Goldston made a motion for reconsideration and it was adopted. Goldston expressed concern for Charles Irvin Umstead, Jr. he made a plea on behalf of Umstead stating that charity was needed here and requested humane relief for Umstead be seriously reconsidered on the grounds that this family needed the support that the disability relation would offer. He felt this was an appropriate use of the Emergency Relief Fund.

Goldston moved "that Paragraph 13 under Group III of the Board of Pensions Report be reinstated." Sherman stated that the Board of Pensions would accept the recommendation.

Motion: Vernon Tyson made the following motion: "I move that Bob Randalls be granted a gift from the Emergency Fund of $500.00 per month until he finds employment or until one year has passed." Norwood Jones replied to Tyson that there were no funds available for severance pay. George Smith spoke in favor of the Tyson motion and against the position of the Board of Pensions. James H. Miller, Jr., explained that the $50,000 voted for funds for human need were for program funds through the Council on Ministries for local churches or districts and not for individuals. Brian Gentle asked a question as to whether the Conference had a policy regarding severance pay. The answer was "No." Maness Mitchell asked how much money was available in the Contingency Fund. Few responded on behalf of CF and A that there was enough money to handle the problem. Coile called the Previous Question. The Previous Question was voted and the motion for the support of Randalls was adopted. The report as a whole was adopted. (See Complete Amended Pension Report in Section V.) Brian Gentle was again recognized for a motion.

Motion: Brian Gentle moved "that the Board of Pensions develop a severance pay policy to be presented to the 1983 session of Annual Conference." The study resolution by Gentle was accepted by the Conference.

Report of the General Council on Ministries: J. Allen Norris, Jr., member of the General Council, brought the report. (For complete text see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Council on Ministries: Brooks Little brought the report for the Jurisdictional Council. (For complete text see Section V of the Journal.) He spoke on behalf of Dr. G. Ross Freeman and brought greetings from him.

Report of the Conference Council on Ministries: Bishop Cannon recognized James H. Miller, Jr., to present the report. He in turn called upon each member of the Council on Ministries staff, called their names and had them stand. Miller acknowledged that Morrison and Teague as well as himself would be leaving the group. There was applause in expression of appreciation of these who have served so well. Miller also asked the support staff and secretaries to the Council on Ministries staff to stand, since a number of them were present. They stood and were accorded a round of applause by the Conference assembled. Bishop Cannon took a moment of privilege to laud Jimmy Miller for his four years as Chairman of the Conference Council on Ministries and for his ministry in general. He also announced his new appointment as pastor of First Church, Cary, and the wonderful role he will play there as their pastor. The Conference responded to Bishop Cannon's remarks by giving Miller a lengthy standing round of applause. Miller responded with appropriate thanks. Miller moved the approval of the Supplemental 1982 Recommendations on page 14 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982. They were approved by the Conference.

Under 1983 Program Recommendations Item I.C. was offered and it was approved. On page 15, under D, Items 1-17 were moved and they were approved. On page 17, under Section II.A., Items 1-9 were moved and they were approved. Under Section II.B., Items 1-14, "Continuing Programs to be Considered for Implementation," were moved. Jimmy Ray Tatum asked a question concerning Item 8. He felt that the certificate of appreciation to churches that have paid 100 percent of their Fair Share Outreach Ministries appropriation and accomplished certain other items be presented at the local church rather than at the District Conference. It was accepted. The remainder of the items were adopted along with the amended eight. Under Section III, "Recommendations Directed to the Conference," A, Items 1-7 were moved. Rachel Guthrie moved that the word "billboards" be deleted from III.,A.,1. It was seconded. Douglas Fox opposed it. The Guthrie motion was defeated. Item III., A., 1-7 was passed unchanged. Item III., B., 1-13, "New Programs Which Shall Be Considered," was moved. These items were approved.

On page 20, C, "Continuing Programs Which Shall Be Authorized," Items 1-10 were moved. They were approved. D, "Continuing Programs Which Shall Be Considered," Items 1-3 were moved for approval. They were approved. Section E was presented for information since these were Continuing Program Calendar items.

Section IV, "Policy," on page 21 was presented. The two items under A regarding Canteens were adopted. Under B, regarding the Board of Education, five items were approved. Three items under C, "Board of Health and Welfare Ministries," were moved and approved. Under Board of Missions, with the listing of Advance Specials to be approved by the North Carolina Conference, Items a through h were approved.

Under E on page 25, Committee on Pastoral Care, there were no changes from last year. Approval was requested for this section and it was approved.

The six items under F, Commission on the Status and Role of Women, were approved.

The two recommendations under G, Higher Education and Campus Ministry, were moved. Bill Cottingham asked that a third item be added: "that the Conference Journal list the name, address and phone numbers of the campus ministers in North Carolina." It was determined that this is already being done. Items 1 and 2 under G were accepted.

Under H, Commission on Archives and History, a correction was made under 3: "the name William S. Price, Jr." With that correction it was moved that Items 1-3 be approved. They were approved.

The entire report of the Council on Ministries, pages 14-28, of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982 was adopted as a whole. (See complete amended COM Report, Section V.)

Miller called attention to the 1982 Agency Reports to Annual Conference and requested that this be placed before the Conference for serious information and reading and that it be adopted for information. It was so done. (These various reports are found in Section V.)

Ralph Fleming presented the following resolution: "Be it resolved that the North Carolina Conference Delegates to the House of Delegates of the North Carolina Council of Churches shall also serve as ex-officio members of the North Carolina Conference Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns." It was accepted.

Frank Grill presented a copy of a book of stewardship resources for children and called attention to this as a valuable tool for evangelism and stewardship.

Lay Person of the Year Award: Catharine Vick called upon the 1981 recipient to present the award to the 1982 recipient. Dotsy Reynolds was most gracious in her presentation stating that it was as great an honor to present it as it was to receive it. Samuel T. Brooks of Mount Olive United Methodist Church, Lumberton, was the selected recipient of the award and was escorted to the podium by his district superintendent, Joseph B. Bethea and his pastor, Jim F. Cummings. Brooks has served the church all of his life and is now 94 years of age and is teaching Sunday School. Bishop Cannon presented the plaque and the acceptance speech. Brooks was most moving as was the obviously warm round of applause and standing ovation accorded him by the conference.

Report on the Study of Proposed Staff Structure for the North Carolina Conference Council on Ministries: Richard Pearce, Conference Lay Leader, presided at the presentation of the Rationale for Proposed Staff Structure which had been distributed to the Conference. Pearce discussed the history of the proposal and the essence of it which would leave the staff as it is now but in 1983 add an assistant to the bishop. At the present time he is not recommending change in the size of the staff, but in one year a person would be removed from the Conference Council on Ministries staff and would become an Administrative Assistant to the Bishop. This was placed before the Conference. Bishop Cannon recognized James Coile for a motion. Coile presented a substitute for the entire staff structure proposal. It was seconded.

Point of Order: Albert F. Fisher called for a Point of Order. Bishop Cannon ruled Fisher out of order.

Point of Order: David Bradley maintained that an entire motion could not be substituted. Bradley's Point of Order was moved without merit.

Coile then spoke to his substitute. He spoke with reluctance, but with concern, that the committee had not dealt adequately with the job before it in that the issue was to reduce staff personnel. He questioned whether the Council on Ministries staff was accountable to the Conference as a whole and he felt that it was important that the boards and agencies do more of their own work and depend less on paid staff. Coile expressed concern about the growing amount of excess baggage in employment in agencies of the Conference and in the Conference Council on Ministries and felt that it was time that we trimmed some of the "fat" from the staff.

Pearce responded to Coile and stated that the committee came to the conclusion that they could not do as much or more with less. They came to the inexecutable conclusion that to reduce staff would be to reduce program. Wade Goldston posed a question as to whether the vote on this could be taken by written ballot. Goldston made a motion for a written ballot. It was seconded. The motion lost.

Neal Salter spoke for the Coile amendment. David Brownlee spoke against it. Brian Gentle spoke for the amendment. Pearce was asked to elaborate as to what other conferences were doing. He said that there were many different plans and it depended upon the nature of the conference. Many had more staff. Some had less staff. But in the final analysis it was difficult to make an accurate comparison because of the differences between conferences and their programs. Charles Michael Smith spoke against the Coile substitute. Wade Goldston asked for point of clarification regarding the setting of Associate Directors' salaries. This was clarified by Pearce to Goldston's satisfaction. A member of the Bahama Church spoke against the Coile motion. The Coile amendment was defeated.

The Question was called on the report. John Meares moved the previous question on all that was before us. It was supported. The report as presented by Pearce was adopted. (See rationale for Proposed Staff Structure in Section V.)

Items of organizations to be deleted from the Conference Council on Ministries were discussed and are now being presented to lay on the table for 24 hours. The first was to delete the Board of Pensions and the Methodist Foundation, Inc., from the Conference Council on Ministries.

Pearce then presented citations and plaques of appreciation to the retiring members of the Council on Ministries, including its Executive Director, James Miller, Jr., Ed Morrison and Willie Teague were similarly honored.

Pearce corrected his former statement regarding agencies to be removed from the Conference Council on Ministries to read "The Methodist Foundation, Inc., and the Conference Board of Trustees." The study document is to be laid on the table for 24 hours.

Report of the Committee to Study parsonage Furnishing: The report was presented by Harold Leatherman. Leatherman's motion was to be carried over until the following day.

A Lay Member noted that things should not be put off simply because people did not recognize their responsibilities. It was her feeling that all delegates should be expected to be in the Conference as long as it was in session and not leave ahead of time.

Miscellaneous Business: Tommy Tyson, John Hobbs and John D. Williams were recommended as approved Conference evangelists and it was passed.

Proposed Structure Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries: The proposal was presented by Belton Joyner. He described this as a neater way of doing something we were already doing well. It involved no new staff and no new funding. The question was called and it was adopted. Miller stated that this would require an amendment to the Charter of the Conference Council on Ministries to add Outdoor and Camping Ministries to COM membership and he wished to place that change along with the other two recommendations that were already before us to be taken up at the following day's session. (See Proposed Structure in Section V.)

Announcements: Secretary Ted Wilson made announcements.

Benediction: The Benediction was given by Ted Wilson and the Conference adjourned with the organist of the afternoon playing the postlude.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION

Monday, June 7, 1982

Following the organ prelude by Brenda Strickland, James Lee presented the Church of the Year Award. The recipient was Camp United Methodist Church, Shallotte, in the Wilmington District. Woodrow E. Wells is pastor and Vernon Tyson is District Superintendent. There was a rousing ovation for the church and for the 20 members present. Comments were made by Bishop Cannon and Wells.

Jack Hunter, Superintendent of the Rocky Mount District, presided. The congregation sang, "God of All Power and Truth and Grace." Hunter gave the invocation. The anthem, "He that Believeth in Me Hath Eternal Life," was sung by the choir of Prospect United Methodist Church, Maxton, with Harold Jacobs directing. T.J. Carter, pastor of Wilson Temple, Raleigh, read the Scripture, John 17:1-10. The evening prayer was led by Bishop James W. Wacton of the AME Zion Church, residing in Fayetteville. The offering was taken. The organist played,

"Crown Him With Many Crowns." The offertory response was "To God the Father." The offertory prayer was given by Ralph Fleming, Chairperson of the Division of Christian Unit and Interreligious Concerns. The congregation then sang, "Amazing Grace! How Sweet the Sound."

Bishop Cannon introduced the Preacher, Bishop William M. Smith, Senior Bishop of the First Episcopal District, AME Zion Church, Mobile, Alabama. Bishop Smith spoke eloquently on the topic, "Are You Dead or Alive?" touching on six areas of life: intellectually, emotionally, aesthetically, enthusiastically, realistically and spiritually.

"He Leadeth Me. O Blessed Thought," was sung as the closing hymn. The benediction was pronounced by Jack Hunter. Mrs. Strickland played the postlude.

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION

Tuesday, June 8, 1982

The Sacrament of Holy Communion: The Sacrament of Holy Communion was celebrated in Hensdale Chapel at 7:30 a.m. under the direction of the Conference Division on Worship.

Prelude: The morning session opened at 8:55 a.m. with the prelude, "God of Grace," arranged by Manz, played by William J. Weisser, Minister of Music of Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh.

Calling the Conference to Order: Bishop Cannon called the Conference to order and requested the singing of Hymn No. 228, "On a Hill Far Away." The Scripture for the morning, John 5, was read by Cameron West and the prayer of invocation for the morning was given by Dean Jameson Jones of the Divinity School at Duke University.

Sermon: Dr. Fred B. Craddock brought the second of three Conference sermons. Craddock continued preaching from the Gospel according to Saint John on the ways by which persons come to know God through a revelation of God. Today he spoke on the theme of witnessing for Christ, drawing from the text concerning one of Christ's miracles. Craddock's message was received with great appreciation and a standing round of applause. Bishop Cannon expressed warm words of appreciation for his message.

The Bishop introduced Joseph B. Bethea to bring greetings from the Western North Carolina Conference, the Rocky Mountain Conference, the Mississippi Conference and the Florida Conference. He moved that the Conference Secretary respond to these conferences and to other conferences that are meeting at this time. Conference Secretary Ted Wilson made further announcements.

Report of the Committee on Conference Minutes: Robert L. Bame gave the report announcing that the committee had read the Minutes for the entire second day's session of the Annual Conference and found them to be correct. They were moved to be accepted and the Conference voted their acceptance and approval.

Cokesbury Bookstore and Abingdon Press: Sue Henry brought the report and announced the total sales for the operation. She gave extended remarks on the Board of Publications including the presentation of the check which would be distributed to the various Pension Funds. The General Board of Pensions of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Bishop Cannon received the check and expressed much appreciation.

Council on Ministries Motion: The motion brought by Richard Pearce to delete the Methodist Foundation, Inc., and Conference Board of Trustees was brought before the Conference. There being no further debate, the Conference voted to delete and the motion was taken care of.

Report of the Committee to Study Cabinet Representation on Boards and Agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference: This report was accepted with its recommendations. Both items brought by Al Fisher were passed without further debate. The report as a whole was also passed (See complete text of report in Section V.)

Parsonage Study Committee: The paper was removed from the table. Bishop Cannon asked for further discussion. Russell Stott, Amity Church, Chapel Hill, made a substitute motion: "In view of the fact that the majority of respondents, 56 percent, have expressed a preference for the present policy on parsonage furnishing, I move that the majority report, that is the result of the Parsonage Furnishing Committee Study Committee Questionnaire, be made the official report to the Conference." It was seconded. Cameron West spoke in favor of the report and against the substitute motion. Paul Edwards spoke in favor of the Stott substitute. Cliff Shoaf spoke for the report and against the substitute. Bishop Cannon ruled Shoaf out of order. Jimmy Tatum spoke for the substitute. Owen Fitzgerald spoke for the continuation of the study as suggested by the main report. Marvin Eugene Tyson spoke for the substitute motion.

ngill Watson called the previous question. The previous question was supported. A vote was taken.

Harold Leatherman yielded his time to give a summation to Mrs. Owen Fitzgerald. Mrs. Fitzgerald spoke.

Bishop Cannon announced that the substitute motion failed by a vote of 329 to 316. Jean Beck of Apex challenged the count. James Coile spoke to the issue.

Motion: Barney Davidson requested a recount, stating he felt that it should be counted section by section by Tellers on the floor. The Bishop ruled that the Davidson suggestion would have to be a motion. It was so moved. It was seconded and passed. Bishop Cannon ordered a recount. The result of the recount was 544 supporting the substitute and 384 against the substitute and supporting report. Bill Cottingham moved that the church be responsible for restoring the pastor's furnishings in case he had his own and the church had its own. It was seconded and it lost. The rest of the original report was before the Conference. It was moved, seconded and adopted. (See complete text of this report in Section V.)

Motion: Cameron West started a motion to the effect of what was already defeated and the shop ruled West out of order.

Point of Personal Privilege: Owen Fitzgerald rose to ask that the Conference express appreciation to the committee chaired by Leatherman and the various clergy spouses for the work they had done and the appreciation was granted. The Bishop expressed it for the entire conference.

Our Silver Anniversary in Higher Education: Bishop Cannon called on Sam McMillan to lead the presentation of the reports and expression of gratitude for the colleges of the conference. McMillan directed the attention of the Conference to page 46 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982. Section I, Distribution of College Sustaining Funds for 1982, was presented for information. On page 47, the Nominations of College Trustees was presented. The Trustees listed on pages 47 and 48 were moved for election or reelection. McMillan discussed the progress of the colleges over the last 25 years and a visual presentation was given. The visual presentation was a fitting celebration of this Silver Jubilee year of our colleges.

Bishop Cannon remarked on the excellence of the slide presentation and its beautiful narration as well as the significant year in the life of the Conference through the founding of both Methodist and Wesleyan Colleges.

Report of the President of Louisburg College: Dr. Allen J. Norris, Jr., brought the report and congratulated both Methodist and Wesleyan Colleges for the completion of their 25th year. Norris discussed the expansion and good health of Louisburg College and its place within the Conference and the state in terms of service. He pointed out that for two consecutive years more than one million dollars had been raised for Louisburg College. He noted that 3.6 million of the 4.2 million dollar goal in capital funds had been raised for Louisburg College. (For an extension of the Norris remarks see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the President of Methodist College: Richard Pearce gave the report. He cited a growth of continuation of operation with a positive cash flow and an increase in endowment. Pearce expressed the idea that while there may be some dark hours ahead for the colleges that there was money available for private education and that it would continue to be available and that the colleges would prevail. (For extension of remarks see Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the President of North Carolina Wesleyan College: S. Bruce Petteway presented the report. He asked for a show of hands of those who had never been on the campus of Wesleyan. An interestingly high number of delegates present had not. He invited all of them to come and see Wesleyan College. Petteway reported dramatic gains in enrollment of students including anticipated gains for the coming year. He indicated a continuation of gifts at a satisfactory and increasing level. He reported the initiation of extension programs as well as the evening college. He reported that the Leon Russell Memorial Chapel plans were nearing completion and that construction was due to begin later this summer. He expressed the energy and increasing momentum of North Carolina Wesleyan College in this 25th year and in the foreseeable years ahead. He expressed appreciation to the Conference (For extension of remarks see Section V of the Journal.)

Bishop Cannon expressed thanksgiving and personal appreciation for each of our college presidents and for the jobs they had done. Cannon expressed hopes for their continuing success and greeted each one warmly. The Conference responded with a rousing round of applause while standing.

The Black College Fund: Dr. Isaac H. Miller, Jr., was recognized as a visitor to this Conference who would speak on this cause. Bishop Cannon presented him to the Conference. Miller emphasized the needs of the 12 traditionally Black colleges and encouraged the Conference to be responsive to their needs in spite of the fact that there were many priorities that were important. In response to the question, "Why are there Black colleges today?" He remarked that he would like to answer that in regard to Bennett College which is within our own state. He stated that education and Black education and Christian education could not be separated as they were for us of paramount importance. He referred to the historical affirmation of the initial Board of Education within historic Methodism as providing for the education of freed slaves. Now we have come a long way from that but we still maintain schools for racial pride and integrity and expect Christian support for these as is shared by all Methodists with all of its colleges. Still, he emphasized that Black colleges do not represent separation but represent an inclusive church that provides choice.

Representative of the Candler School of Theology: Dr. Rodney Hunter came to bring greetings to the Conference from the Candler School of Theology in Atlanta, Georgia. He spoke of the ecumenical nature of the institution and the appreciation that Candler received from this Conference as well as from other conferences. He gave personal expressions of support for the Ministerial Education Fund and his appreciation for what this Conference has done and continues to do. Hunter lauded the establishment of the William R. Cannon Chapel and expressed appreciation for how that was developing and changing the community life of the Candler School of Theology. He also expressed appreciation for Bishop Cannon and his leadership which continued to be reflected in the leadership of Candler School of Theology.

The Duke Endowment Report: Albert F. Fisher gave the report for the Duke Endowment. (See Section V for text of this report.) He reported on 72 building projects supported by the Duke Endowment in the last year, an appropriation of almost a million dollars, and the various programs that make up the operation and maintenance of the rural churches. Two hundred and eleven students worked at a cost to the Duke Endowment of $286,000. More than 25 parish programs expending more than $60,000 were started in the two conferences. Nearly $2,000,000 has been spent in the last year for the rural church, and the internal projects of the Duke Endowment within the United Methodist Conference in North Carolina. The two conferences have been abundantly endowed through the fortuitous services of the Duke Endowment. As an example, Fisher introduced the nature of the ministry of the Hinton Rural Life Center. Fisher asked his associate, Jack Williams, to introduce the new director of the Hinton Rural Life Center. Williams presented Alan Woods, the new director. Williams gave his credentials which demonstrate him to be a highly qualified person to serve in this office. The Conference applauded the appointment of Woods to this important task. Woods addressed the Conference and expressed his appreciation for the work of the Hinton Rural Life Center and for his opportunity to be of service therein.

Blackburn Scholarship Fund: Sam Brown presented the scholarships: 1. The Merit Scholarship Award which has been presented to Reginald Ponder, Jr., of Raleigh; and 2. The Blackburn Scholarship which was presented to James Bryan Cash of Louisburg. This year the scholarship is valued at $5,000 over a four year period. Cash was given a chance to express personal appreciation for the scholarship and gave thanks for the scholarship and pledged himself to be worthy of it.

Lake Junaluska Associates Program: Reginald Ponder presented the report and introduced the new Director of Development for Lake Junaluska Assembly, Bob Kellog, who brought greetings from Mel Harbin and also spoke to the general program of Lake Junaluska. He mentioned that the 69th season had just opened. He was greeted warmly by the Conference and welcomed by those present with a round of applause.

The Duke Divinity School: Dean Jameson Jones brought the report of the Divinity School and greetings from the seminary. Jones spoke of a large and diverse enrollment. He spoke of the high academic quality of the students and their commitment to the ordained ministry. Jones spoke of the enormous cost of a theological education today. Jones gave expressions of appreciation for the support, prayers and partnership of the Conference and its students.

Recognition of Chaplains: Bishop Cannon called upon the chaplains serving within the bounds of the Conference and members of this Conference to come forward and be recognized. N.P. Edens recognized the service of the chaplains and asked them to introduce themselves and state where they are working and how they are serving. More than 20 chaplains introduced themselves and were greeted warmly by the Conference. Bishop Cannon recognized with warmth the work of the chaplains.

Announcements: Ted Wilson, Conference Secretary, made announcements. Malloy Owen made an announcement and request for prayer on behalf of a remark made by one of the chaplains in regard to General Cooper and his fight against pronography at Camp Lejeune.

Benediction: Bishop Cannon presented Rene Bideaux who had been elected Associate General Secretary, National Division, Board of Global Ministries. He addressed the Conference briefly and then offered prayer and benediction.

THIRD DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Tuesday, June 8, 1982

Report of the Conference Brotherhood: James C.P. Brown presided over the Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood. A report was given by J.K. Bostick, secretary-treasurer, and it was moved that the benefits be increased from $3,000 to $3,200 at the end of this Annual Conference session. The motion passed. Other statistics were given and after appropriate expressions of fellowship and brotherhood and love and affection the Conference Society elected officers for the coming year, 1982-82. The Nominating Committee was composed of John Blue, Al Morris and Bill Crowder. They presented for nomination James C.P. Brown, president; J. Donald Phillips, vice-president; and J.K. Bostick, secretary-treasurer. The officers were duly elected by the Conference and particularly the members of the Brotherhood.

During the year, beginning January 1, 1982, two calls have been paid: No. 298, Orville Watson; and No. 299, Paul Carruth. After payment of calls and all expenses the Brotherhood has invested a total of $44,537.97. The books were shown to be in good order and disbursements of $6,386.85 were ordered to be paid for the year to date. There being no further business the Brotherhood Meeting was adjourned for the continuation of afternoon business. (For a complete report of the Conference Brotherhood see Section V of the Journal.)

Prelude: Organist for the afternoon was Marilyn Johnson, Director of Music at Garber United Methodist Church, New Bern. For the prelude she played "Suite for Organ," by Albinoni.

Conference Convened: Bishop Cannon reconvened the Conference for the afternoon session and called for the singing of Hymn No. 97, "Jesus is All the World to Me." The Conference stood and sang the hymn. The Bishop asked Mary VonCanon to lead in prayer and she did. Bishop Cannon explained the order of the day and returned to the papers that needed to be discussed. Secretary Wilson asked the clerical tellers to meet in the tellers' room immediately. Bishop Cannon asked James H. Miller, Jr., to return to the Position Papers of the Board of Church and Society. Miller acceded but called to the Bishop's attention the need to take care of structural matter regarding the Camping Committee and the need to change the charter of the Council on Ministries to coincide. It was moved, seconded and passed.

Point of Personal Privilege: Vernon Tyson asked for a point of personal privilege. Tyson spoke on the concern over the count that was taken on an issue during the morning session. Tyson felt that the count was a mistake and suggested that the Bishop have a special ballot taken after the Love Feast the following morning. The Conference assembled did not seem appreciative of the suggestion. Bishop Cannon asked for a motion so that a decision could be made in love and harmony.

Motion: The motion was made by Tyson that a special ballot be taken after the Love Feast on Wednesday morning. It was seconded and it lost.

Continuation of the Report of the Council on Ministries: James H. Miller, Jr., introduced Bruce Pate to present the report of the Board of Church and Society and asked members of the Board to join him on the platform as the papers were presented. It was directed that the Conference Secretary send appropriate greetings and wishes for a speedy recovery to Frank Lloyd, former chairman of the Board of Church and Society.

The Position Paper on Environmental Protection and Energy was presented first and Pate requested that Mrs. Kay Cameron, not a member of the Conference, be allowed to present an amendment which had been handed out this morning. The Conference gave her permission to speak and she asked that this paper, which had been passed out early this morning, be added to the end of the first section of "Environmental Protection Endangered." The amendment was accepted as an addition to the report by the Board of Church and Society. The Conference voted on adding the proposal to the report and accepted it.

Larry Jones rose to propose an amendment. He requested deletion of a portion of the 14th paragraph, last sentence, which reads: "But questions about nuclear safety have not been adequately resolved, as demonstrated by the design defects . . . etc." The second part of the Jones motion was to delete the last sentence of the 15th paragraph: "But, concerned about the hazards of nuclear power, we also support increased monitoring of nuclear plant design, construction and operation . . . etc." It was seconded. Jones said he felt the specific references were inflammatory and should be removed. The Board of Church and Society accepted his motion.

Joe Goehring, Layperson from Glendale Heights Church, Durham, moved that all personal references be taken from the Position Paper on Environmental Protection and Energy. All personal references were ordered to be brought back tomorrow. The position paper was adopted in substance with those provisos.

The next paper was on The Church's Ministry to Persons with Handicapping Conditions. The paper was adopted without opposition. (Report in Section V.)

The next paper was a Resolution on Christian Justice for the Health and Safety of Migrant and Seasonal Farm Workers. Pate made an editorial change on page 22. The last "Whereas" should be "therefore." It was adopted as amended. (Report in Section V.)

The Resolution on Non-intervention and Arms Sales was moved.

Motion: Gary Chatham of the Andrews-Soapstone Charge made the following motion: "I move that the 3rd and 4th paragraphs be changed to read, 'To this end, we condemn any intervention by any external groups, organizations, governments, etc.' 'We, as United Methodists, call upon all external groups, organizations, governments, etc.'"

The Board of Church and Society accepted that.

Lamont Norwood from Mount Pleasant Church spoke against the entire paper. The report was adopted. (See report in Section V.)

The paper on Resolution on Medicaid Drug Limitation was presented. It was moved and adopted (See report in Section V.)

The next paper was Resolution Opposing Legislation Regarding Prayer and Abortion on pages 33 and 34 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982. James Coile rose to a technical point and Pate accepted necessary modification. Eldridge Fergus from Wilmington rose to speak against the entire paper.

Alan Swartz from the Salemburg Charge moved an amendment to make the matter two separate papers: One on prayer and one on abortion.

Bill Cottingham spoke for the two separate papers. Gene Tyson of Riverside Church, New Bern, spoke against the resolution. Dr. Dennis Campbell spoke in favor of the resolution and tried to point out that the nature of the resolution was not as controversial as the title would seem to imply. He elucidated on this matter. A delegate from Jacksonville spoke against the paper. The previous question was called on the paper on abortion and it was supported. John Cline raised a point of order. The Bishop ruled it out of order. The question was called and the vote was taken. The paper carried. There was a request for a count vote. It was granted. Those for the motion 454; those opposed 261. The paper on abortion carried. (See text in Section V.)

Debate was called, too, on the paper on Public School Prayer. Charles McAdams asked a question for clarification. McAdams wanted the text of the Constitutional amendment. The text was given.

Motion: George C. Smith spoke against the resolution on Public School Prayer. Smith presented the following substitute motion: "I move to amend the Prayer Position Paper to be a simple statement of this Conference to be in favor of prayer; that it be stated prayer is a means of communication between God and man; therefore we endorse prayer." Sam McMillan proposed that we table the paper on school prayer. The vote was taken and the paper was tabled. (See paper in Section V.)

The next paper was a resolution concerning the needs of poor persons. Charles Mercer asked a question about voting procedures. It was answered and made clear that student pastors could not vote. Eldridge Fergus rose to speak against the resolution. Ray Wittman spoke for the resolution. The previous question was called and seconded. The previous question was called. The resolution carried.

Question: J.B. Helms of Pinebluff asked to reconsider the vote on school prayer. Since Helms did not vote for the tabling, he was ruled out of order.

Question: The Board of Church and Society was asked again to send these papers earlier in the year so that they might be thoroughly discussed. Pate answered that this was indeed the desire of the board, but funding was not available to do it, even though it had been ordered by the Conference. The suggestion was made that they could be mailed in the Coordinated Mailing. This would mean that the Board of Church and Society would have to develop their papers prior to the April mailing.

Resolution: David Brownlee of Raleigh presented the resolution which was distributed this morning: "Resolution on Nuclear Arms Freeze." Rufus Stark expressed appreciation for the resolution and gave particular thanks to the Council of Bishops in the dissemination of their pastoral letter. He supported the paper. Malloy Owen spoke against the resolution, disagreeing with the word "freeze." He questioned the author of the resolution as to the nature of the meaning of the word "freeze." Brownlee answered Owen's question. Owen persisted in feeling that this placed us in a position of nuclear inferiority and would place the United States of America in a position of inferiority. Bishop Cannon suggested an amendment.

Motion: Malloy Owen made a motion to "remove 'freeze' and put in its place 'reduction in deployed.'" It was seconded. There was one speech against the motion to amend. The previous question on the amendment was moved. It was called and the amendment was lost. The resolution as a whole was before us. The resolution was adopted. (See text in Section V.)

Resolution: The Resolution on El Salvadore which was distributed this morning was dealt with. Myron Banks spoke against the El Salvadore resolution. A delegate from First Church, barner, spoke in favor of the document. Paul Stark spoke in favor of the document. The previous question was called, seconded and approved. The Jeffries resolution was defeated.

Motion: Jimmy Creech made the following motion: "I move the School Prayer Amendment be taken off the table for action by the Conference." The call to remove from the table failed, falling far short of the required two-thirds vote.

Consideration of Notice of Appeal: Bishop Cannon requested that the matter appearing on page 56-58 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982 be considered. This matter regarded an appeal to the Judicial Council from a ruling of the New Bern District Superintendent. This regarded a matter concerning an exception by S.A. Chalk, Jr. The Bishop gave historical matter concerning this. He then stated that he was required to give a ruling on this matter. Bishop Cannon gave a long discourse as to the nature of the appeal and gave a lengthy analysis of the facts in the case. He stated his reluctance to have to make decisions in appeals of this matter. Bishop Cannon ruled the original complaint invalid. He did this by virtue of Disciplinary provision. Rufus Stark asked if there would be an automatic appeal to the Judicial Council. It was ruled that it would require that one-fifth of the body must vote for that. The Conference did not sustain sending this to the Judicial Council. Stark thanked the Bishop or his ruling and stated that he would attempt to live by it. He called attention to the record of the church in question and stated that it was a leading church that supported the Church. Bibbie Roberts of First Church, Morehead City, rose to make a statement of appreciation for what Bishop Cannon had done to attempt to avoid a "takeover of the Church's boards, commissions and agencies by reactionary elements." She expressed regret that this action would not uphold what had been done. The Bishop stated that he was sorry that he could not accommodate what the law of the Church did not allow. He asked that this end the matter.

Conference Recessed: The Conference was called to recess to prepare for the Memorial Service to take place as quickly as possible.

Conference Reconvened: Bishop Cannon called the Conference to order as the Secretary, Ted Wilson, presided over the Memorial Service.

Memorial Service: The prelude, "Promised Land," by Lani Smith was played by Marilyn Johnson, organist. Hymn No. 48, "How Firm a Foundation," was sung. Conference Secretary Ted Wilson read the Roll Call of Our Honored Dead, Ministers and Minister's Wives. (For names see Condensed Minutes.) Dr. Joseph B. Bethea read from the Scriptures, Hebrews 11:1-13. Ernest R. Porter led in prayer after which Charles Michael Smith sang a solo, "O, Rest in the Lord" by Mendelssohn.

The Memorial Address, "Why We Remember Them," was given by J. Earl Richardson. After the singing of Hymn No. 151, "Faith of Our Fathers," Ted Wilson pronounced the benediction. Mrs. Johnson played as a postlude, "To Thee, Jehovah, Will I Sing," by Karg-Elert.

FOURTH DAY, MORNING SESSION

Wednesday, June 9, 1982

Prelude: The prelude, "Partita on St. Anne," by Manz, was played by the organist of the morning, Steve Vaughn, Minister of Music, St. James United Methodist Church, Greenville.

Annual Conference Love Feast: The Annual Conference Love Feast was called to order and the invocation given by J.C.P. Brown who then led in the singing of Hymn No. 283, "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling." Leadership for the Love Feast was then assumed by T.B. Hough who read from the Scriptures. This traditional service is explained in detail on pages 23-24 of the North Carolina Annual Conference Worship Bulletin, 1982.

Hough continued to expound on the Gospels, on the nature of the church, the traditional being together at Annual Conference, and the deep sense of memory and significance and emotion this brought forth in all of us. He encouraged those present to reflect upon what the Lord had done for them and for what these conferences over the years had meant.

Conference Called to Order: Bishop William R. Cannon called the Conference to Order and asked that Conference assembled sing Hymn No. 291, "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand." With the moving power of the Love Feast so recently upon them the Conference sang with great enthusiasm and with the joy of the Lord Jesus Christ in their hearts. The pervasive spirit of Christian love and enthusiasm was evident. Bishop Cannon asked Clyde McCarver to bring the invocation for the morning as the Conference bowed in prayer.

Report of the Committee on Conference Minutes: Robert L. Bame brought the report for the Minutes for the third day's sessions of the Annual Conference. They were scrutinized and moved. They were approved by the Conference. Bame further asked that the Minutes for the fourth day be approved in advance — after scrutiny by the committee. The Conference granted that approval.

Announcements: Secretary Ted Wilson requested that the Committee on District Conference Records meet and examine the records and bring their report. He made several other announcements.

Motions: Wilson made two motions:

1. "I move that a Journal Committee be appointed, composed of the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, one member from CF and A, and one member of the Cabinet to assist the Conference Secretary in exploring new possibilities in the printing and production of the Conference Journal." It was seconded and adopted.
2. "I move that the Conference request the Rules Committee of the Conference to go back and research the Minutes over the past years to determine the rules under which the Conference operates and to print this information in a special rules booklet." This was seconded and adopted.

The Commission on Equitable Salaries: Grier Garrick presented the report indicating the editorial changes and the salary schedules for the coming year. He moved the adoption of the report. It was seconded. Kermit Braswell spoke to amend the report regarding raising the salaries of student pastors from $9,300 to $9,600 per year. Garrick responded to Braswell. Braswell clarified his comments. Neal Salter asked for a point of clarification. It was granted and satisfied. Albert F. Fisher asked for a point of clarification regarding the use of Duke Endowment funds. It was granted and satisfied. Roger Thatcher spoke regarding the small amount of just over $300 that was received from any supplemental funds for ministers attending Southeastern Seminary. Willie Teague spoke in favor of the Braswell amendment. The previous question was called. Grier Garrick made his summation. Gayla Estes spoke against the amendment. Charles Mercer moved the previous question and it was voted. The Braswell amendment carried.

Point of Order: James Coile in his role as Chairman of the Committee on Conference Rules urged that the Conference cooperate with the Chair in seeking recognition for remarks. Coile also reminded everyone that the Conference Rules called for the adoption of the budget to be the final item in the action of the Conference and therefore changes could be made until that time.

Question: Langill Watson asked a question regarding the pink sheet handed out in the packet of materials when people registered and questioned some of the remarks concerning the utilization of student pastors. Watson called attention to the provision that they should not take more than 75 percent of the hours allowed in seminary. Watson asked the Superintendents why they were allowing students to take full loads in seminary while serving student appointments. Bishop Cannon responded by stating that Watson's question was a correct exhortation and he took note of it and requested the Superintendents to take heed. Reginald Ponder spoke for the Cabinet stating that they were not aware that the students were taking more hours than permitted and that, if this were the case, then the students were not informing them and the schools were not informing them.

Question: Wilbur Jackson asked a question concerning Watson's remarks. Jackson said that it was his understanding that the student was paid based on the number of hours. Dean Jameson Jones responded saying that was correct but that Duke was enforcing the three course per semester rule for students and he would like to be informed of the students who were student pastors and were not following the provisions of the Conference rules. Paul Burdette stated that Duke was not the offender in any of these situations but that it was other seminaries.

The Report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries on pages 40-41 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982 was adopted as amended. (For full text see Section V.)

Motion: Christian L. Kraatz made the following motion: "I move that, beginning with the Annual Conference Session of 1983, the Commission on Equitable Salaries be required to present a schedule of minimum salaries which (1) removes utilities from the salary schedule and (2) requires the charge to pay the pastor's utilities, except for personal long distance telephone calls." Kraatz spoke to his motion. Garrick spoke against the motion. Charles Pollock spoke in favor of the motion.

Motion: Jack Hunter moved "to refer the motion back to the Equitable Salaries Commission for study to be brought back to the 1983 Conference." It was seconded. The proposal to study was approved.

Bishop Cannon made extended remarks regarding the disparity between the number of hours spent on a charge by a student pastor and those spent by a full time minister. The Bishop was concerned about the continuing increase in minimum salaries when we were attempting to provide experience for students, but the problem concerns paying a full time salary to a part time pastor. How, he questioned, could we continue to raise funds for student scholarships, if we continue to hear emotional pleas from the floor to make salaries equitable for those who are not serving full time? Margaret Harris of Haymount Church spoke concerning the inability of hearing the reports given from the podium microphone. The Bishop asked that this be investigated.

Report of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries: Bishop Cannon recognized Edward C. Elliott for the report of the Methodist Home for Children.

Report of the Methodist Home for Children: Elliott spoke to the needs of the Home for Children in a transitional year. (For full text of his statement see Section V of the Journal.) Bishop Cannon expressed appreciation for the report of the Home for Children and asked for questions. Malloy Owen asked Elliott to give the number of children presently involved in the program. He stated that 89 children were served last year. At the present time there are 30 children being served in youth homes on the campus. The number of youth on campus has been reduced for cost effectiveness in time of transition. The report was adopted by the Conference.

Report of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.: W. Donald Penley, Executive Director, brought the report for the Retirement Homes of the Conference. (For full text see Section V.) Penley recognized Kimsey King of the Durham Home, Frank Bullock, of the Joseph F. Coble Health Care Center, and LaFon C. Vereen of the Wesley Pines Home, all administrators serving. Penley noted the appointment of Nathan Byrd as Director of Development and Planned Giving for the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. It was noted that Nathan Byrd would be assuming a similar position with the Retirement Homes as his brother, Douglas Byrd, had assumed with the Home for Children. Penley thanked the Bishop for making the appointment possible. He then made further remarks concerning the operation of the homes and introduced Louise Peterson to make the remainder of the report.

Louise Peterson spoke of a series of projected meetings in each district to answer questions and promote the Retirement Home concept. She described the formation of an auxiliary to lend support and understanding to the way the Retirement Homes Serve.

Report of the Board of Publication: Reginald Ponder brought the report for AI Simonton who had to leave because of the meeting of the Western North Carolina Conference. The report was challenging and yet disturbing in that more subscriptions would have to be required in order to continue to fund the Advocate at its present level so that it could continue to serve the two conferences as the paper seeks to fulfill a real need. Ponder brought further information that a substantial number of members of the Board of Publications are talking about returning to a once-every-two-weeks paper. Bishop Cannon offered support. (For the complete text of the Report of the Board of Publications see Section V of the Journal.) The report was adopted.

The Division of Health and Welfare Ministries: Bob Wallace brought a continuation of the report with the other necessary matters. Nominees for Trustees of the Home for Children are on page 45 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982 and those for the Retirement Home are on page 46. In the class of 1984 for the Retirement Home Trustees H. Langill Watson and Frank Brooks should be included. Thomas L. Amick is to take the place of Nathan H. Byrd in the class of 1984 because of Byrd's appointment to the staff of the Retirement Home. Other changes were made. Wallace stated that he found the relationships of the homes appropriate to the Conference and described a review procedure that was to be started beginning with the succeeding year. The report as a whole was adopted. (This report in full found in Section V.)

Report on the United Methodist Television Presence and Ministry: This report was cancelled.

Point of Order: There was a discussion concerning the review of the matter of removing the issue on School Prayer from the table for reconsideration.

Motion: James E. Creech made the following motion: "Because I believe the Conference needs to take action on a significant matter, I move that the resolution regarding prayer in public school be taken from the table yesterday and was defeated. Bishop Cannon discussed the parliamentary problem involved. James Coile discussed the Conference Rules. The Creech motion was seconded by Cameron West. The motion was again lost.

The Report of the Conference Board of Trustees: The chairman Clifton Everett had a legal matter that kept him from attending the Conference today. The report was brought by the Vice Chairman, Margaret Minor. (The text of the report will be found in Section V of the Journal.) The report was adopted for information by the Conference.

Point of Personal Privilege: Maness Mitchell rose to a point of personal privilege stating that the Credit Union had not been included in the agenda and he gave an informal report and requested that his formal report be included in the Conference Journal as it had been in the past. (This report can be found in full in Section V.) He spoke on behalf of the Credit Union and its services. Mitchell discussed the fact the Credit Union was not an agency of the Conference and explained that he felt it ought to be so recognized. Bishop Cannon responded that others were not included and for inclusion there would have to be careful study by the Conference attorney.

Motion: C. Franklin Grill made the following motion: "I move that the matter of the report of the Methodist Credit Union being in the Conference Journal be referred to the Conference trustees." The motion was seconded and passed.

Grill made a second motion: "I move that the Conference trustees engage in a project to research what properties they own and prepare an inventory of their property." The motion was seconded. Grill stated that the trustees had told him there was no inventory and that he felt this would be properly the matter of the Conference trustees and it should be done. Grill discussed the motion. Charles McAdams said he found it to be an excellent motion. It was adopted and referred to the Conference Board of Trustees.

Point of Order: The matter of inclusion of the Credit Union report in the Journal came up again. Maness Mitchell defended it. There was some discussion as to whether the fact that the Credit Union was not an agency of the conference entitled it to a place in the Journal. It was pointed out that it had been in the Journal for 35 years. The Conference Secretary said he assumed it would appear in the Journal.

Commission on Religion and Race: Charles D. Myers brought the report of the Commission. (For complete text see Section V of the Journal.) Myers referred to the report printed on pages 51-52 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982, with a change in Item 3 reading "that every chairperson of Conference boards and agencies be empowered and requested to appoint from the membership of his or her committee a coordinator of Religion and Race before the end of the year 1982 and that the names of these appointees be submitted to the Conference Secretary by the end of June." The Bishop questioned Myers in regard to Item 6. Myers stated that he did not feel that it would be accomplished this year. An amendment was offered from the floor by Albert Shuler.

Motion: Albert Shuler made a motion to amend Item 3 to read: "that every Conference board and agency and the Cabinet be required to elect, along with other quadrennial officers a coordinator for Religion and Race whose responsibility it shall be to lead the board, agency or the Cabinet in the development and implementation of an affirmative action program." It was seconded. Sam Wynn spoke against the amendment to Item 3 of the report. The amendment was presented to the Conference and it was adopted. Myers moved the adoption of the report as a whole. Sam McMillan asked that Item 3 of the report on page 5 be re-read as amended. It was done.

Point of Personal Privilege: Clark Barfield spoke to the matter of Open Itinerancy. Barfield's statement was one of personal testimony and given with great passion and effectiveness and appreciated by the Conference. The report of the Commission was then adopted by the Conference.

Commission on the Status and Role of Women: The report was brought by Helen Crotwell and received by the Conference assembled. (For complete text see Section V of the Journal.) Crotwell presented Jean Jerome and Ruth Cade to present additional materials concerning the commission. (See their texts in Section V.) The Conference adopted the report with appreciation.

The Ethnic Minority Local Church: Jimmy F. Cummings brought the report. (For complete remarks see Section V of the Journal.) The report was adopted. Bishop Cannon said that on Saturday, September 11, 1982, from 11:00 until 12:00 o'clock, there would be a Convocation on the Ethnic Minority Local Church at Methodist College. He said there would be outside speakers and resource persons and arrangements would be made for meals.

Board of Ordained Ministry Matters: Robert McKenzie brought additional matters of correction to be added to the Executive Session Report and certain matters that would complete the report. These corrections were made and accepted by the Conference with appropriate vote and were made a part of the total report which appears in Sections II and V of the Journal. McKenzie moved the adoption of the nominations to the Class of 1986 to the North Carolina Pastors School: F. Owen Fitzgerald and Judi Smith. They were adopted. Bishop Cannon expressed appreciation by the entire Conference assembled for the work of McKenzie and the Board of Ordained Ministry, calling attention to the fact that much of their work had been shared with the Executive Session the preceding week. Cannon also emphasized the need for continuing support of the Ministerial Education Fund and the need to underwrite 100 percent of our askings, if for no other reasons than that Duke Divinity School was within the bounds of our Conference. He exhorted the Conference to this mission.

Motion: Wilber Jackson made the following motion: "I move that the Bishop, the Cabinet and Program Committee in planning the 1983 session of the Annual Conference carefully consider alternatives to the Executive Session that has been held the last two years for the purpose of considering ministerial matters leading to the ordination of deacons and elders." It was seconded. Jackson spoke to his motion. The Bishop ruled that the motion was out of order because it was a matter for the Episcopal jurisdiction. The Bishop stated that he would rule on this matter.

The Joint Committee on Disability: F. Owen Fitzgerald presented the report for the committee. He reported that his report had been distributed and moved its adoption. It was adopted. (For full report see Section V.)

Resolution: Ben Gravely of North Raleigh United Methodist Church presented the following: "I move that all non-written counting of votes be done by counting hands holding valid delegate badges. Delegates shall be informed as to which types of badges represent qualified delegates. This procedure shall be listed in the Conference Program with the Rules of Order." The motion was seconded. James Coile moved reference to the Rules Committee. The resolution was referred.

The Insurance Committee: Norwood Jones brought the report of the Insurance Committee. Jones called attention to the report as printed on pages 48-49 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982. He moved the adoption of report #1 concerning the Blue Cross/Blue Shield Medical Insurance. The report was adopted. Jones was lauded by the Bishop for his excellent work in the area of stewardship and finance as well as pensions. (For full text of Insurance Report see Section V.)

The Bishop adjourned the Conference until 1:30 p.m.

FOURTH DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Wednesday, June 9, 1982

Conference Convened: Following the playing of the prelude, "Pastorale," by Manz, by the organist of the afternoon, Stephen W. Vaughn, Bishop Cannon called the Conference back into session for the concluding of all 1982 Annual Conference business. The Bishop called for the singing of Hymn No. 211, "Standing on the Promises." The Bishop called on Worth Lineberger to lead in prayer for the afternoon session.

Recognition for Amendment to Conference Rules: Bishop Cannon recognized Ruth Cade for an amendment to Conference Rules on behalf of the Board of Lay Life and Work. The modifications have been distributed and they are slight and Mrs. Cade requested a suspension of the Rules so that this might be enacted. The Rules were suspended by the Conference and Mrs. Cade presented the following amendment:

Amendment to Conference Rules:

"Rules of Order and Procedure" Section III: Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences, Page 6, 1981 Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference.
Section 2:

- a. Any lay person who is a member of a United Methodist Church of the North Carolina Annual Conference who wishes to be a nominee may submit a resume, not to exceed 200 words. Resumes may also be submitted on behalf of a prospective nominee.
- b. Consent of the nominee should be obtained after the nominee has been informed of the duties of a delegate.
- c. Any lay member of the Church may be voted for whether a resume is submitted or not.
- d. Resumes should be mailed to the Conference Lay Leader by April 1, 1983.
- e. The list of nominees and their resumes will be prepared and distributed by the Conference Board of Lay Life and Work at the District Briefings or be mailed with the Book of Reports. The amendment was unanimously adopted.

Committee on District Conference Records: Secretary Ted Wilson said that the records had been examined and the report had been turned in to the Conference Secretary for information. This satisfies the Disciplinary requirement. (For this report see Section V.)

Committee on Conference Entertainment: J. Allen Norris, Jr., brought the report and recommended that we once again next year meet at Methodist College for the eleventh consecutive year. Richard Pearce said that Methodist College would be delighted to host and the location was adopted by a standing vote of appreciation and applause.

Board of Managers, North Carolina Pastors School: Charles Michael Smith brought the report of the Pastors School of 1981.

Continuation of Report of Council on Finance and Administration: Charles McAdams and Randolph R. Few presented the final Section I, the Budget for the Year 1983, contained on pages 41-42 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982. Few indicated that Conference changes voted during the session have added approximately $15,000 which is being added to the budget. The budget, with this addition, was presented and it was moved, seconded and adopted by the Conference without further question. Bishop Cannon expressed appreciation to them for their leadership and hard work. The Conference accorded them a round of applause.

Report of the Committee on Episcopacy: H. Langill Watson brought the report for the Committee. Watson spoke on the spiritual qualities of the episcopacy and specifically Dr. Albert Outler's writings on the order of the episcopacy and how that is defined. He described the episcopal leader as a competent teacher, a defender of the faith, a compassionate pastor and an evangelical leader. He suggested that we are fortunate to have such qualities in our episcopal leadership in the Raleigh Area. In the second year of the quadrennium Watson stated that he had the privilege of reporting that the episcopal leadership has been found blameless and excellent and worthy of praise and asked the Conference to respond. The Conference gave a rising accolade and loud applause. This was acceptance of the report. The Bishop responded with thanks and expressions of love and said that even if he barked at times, he was quite sure there was no bite in it! He gave the credit for the record of the Conference to all the ministers and lay people and none to himself.

Return to the Revision of the Report of a Position Paper: Bruce Pate in accord with a motion the preceding day had revised the paper on pages 27-29 of the Conference Program and Recommendations 1982 and made the changes that had been requested. Pate read the paper and gave copies to the Conference Secretary. These changes will be incorporated in the Journal, Section V. The revised paper was adopted by the Conference in session. That concluded all of the matters regarding the Board of Church and Society and the Conference Council on Ministries. (See amended Environmental Protection & Energy Resolution in Section V.)

Board of Higher Education: The Board of Higher Education moved that James H. Miller replace the late Paul Carruth on the Board. It was approved by the Conference.

Point of Order: Reginald Ponder rose to correct an incorrect election made on the second day of the Conference. The motion was as follows: "I move that the action taken on Monday to elect Mrs. Doris Litchfield to replace Benton Hamm as a member of the Board of Education be rescinded." This was accepted by the Conference.

Point of Order: Bishop Cannon observed that there needed to be a modification between ex-officio membership on the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Board of Pensions. The Bishop appointed James Coile to work out the problems of the matter.

Point of Personal Privilege: Rufus Stark recognized Mary Sue Noe, member of the Board of County Commissioners of Carteret County, who was giving her time and leadership to this Conference and was here today, even into the afternoon, even though it was her 30th wedding anniversary. The Conference applauded. The Bishop assured her that he would get her back in time to have dinner with her husband.

Moving Day: Joseph B. Bethea presented the motion that Thursday, June 19, 1982, be the official moving day. Pastors should be out of the parsonage by 12:00 noon and arriving pastors should not move in until 1:00 p.m. on moving day. Responsibilities for the new charge begin on moving day. This was adopted by the Conference.

Point of High Personal Privilege: Messages of condolence were requested sent to Lionel Swink, Frank Ward, Lionel Hampton, D.A. Clark, Wallace Lewis and C.P. Morris, all of whom are sick and unable to be present. This was so ordered by the Conference and by the Chair.

Miscellaneous Business: Conference Secretary Ted Wilson stated that the materials distributed after lunch which answered Questions 16, 17 and 66 would be considered as answers to those Disciplinary questions and he now declared that all Disciplinary questions are answered by the 1982 Annual Conference of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. This was so adopted by the Conference and resolved.

Point of Personal Privilege: Arthur Phillips asked that the name W.D. Wise be added to the list of names of those to whom condolences should be sent.

Miscellaneous Business: Cabinet Representatives on Boards will include Jack L. Hunter and Joseph B. Bethea, Board of Ordained Ministry; Malloy Owen, Board of Diaconal Ministry; J.B. Parvin, Board of Missions and Commission on Equitable Salaries; Tommy Smith, Board of Evangelism; Charles Michael Smith, Division on Worship and Committee on Disability; Herman Winberry, Laity and Health and Welfare. The Conference approved the Cabinet assignments.

Committee on Resolutions and References: Thomas A. Collins gave the report. He read the report regarding the outpouring of love and courtesies at this 1982 session of the Conference. (The text of his report and his full remarks will be found in Section V of the Journal.) The report was adopted with thanks.

Call for the Order of the Day: Bishop Cannon called for the final act of worship of the Conference, the Covenant Service which had been postponed from the preceding evening. He asked the Cabinet to come to the stage.

John Wesley's Covenant Service: Dr. Joseph B. Bethea was the liturgist and was assisted by all the district superintendents. Bishop William R. Cannon was the preacher for the service. The John Wesley Covenant Service may be found on page 15 of the North Carolina Annual Conference Ordination and Worship Bulletin, 1982.

Reading of the Appointments: Bishop Cannon, as part of the closing of the Covenant Service, concluded the work of the Conference by calling Questions 67 and 68, "Where are the preachers stationed for the ensuing year?" Bishop Cannon read the names of the District Superintendents and changes in appointments beyond the local church. Each District Superintendent read the changes in appointments within his district. Printed copies of the Appointment List were distributed to the delegates. It was a worshipful and most meaningful moment. Bishop Cannon made concluding comments.

Announcements: Ted Wilson, Conference Secretary, made announcements.

Closing Hymn: The closing Hymn No. 539, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," was sung following long custom.

Benediction: The Benediction was given by Bishop William R. Cannon, bringing to a close the 1982 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. This was the one-hundred fifty-seventh session and the second year of the second episcopate of Bishop William R. Cannon as Bishop of the Raleigh Areas, Southeastern Jurisdiction.

JOHN OGLESBY LONG

The Reverend John Oglesby Long was born April 11, 1892 and died on April 17, 1981. He was the son of John H. Long and Nettie Robson of Columbus County, N.C. He was awarded the A.B. Degree from Trinity College, now Duke University, in June, 1921 and a B.D. Degree from Yale University in June, 1927. He joined the North Carolina Conference in June of 1920.

He was married to Hortense Marjorie Duncan of Pelham, N.C. on June 21, 1921. His wife died on July 6, 1972, thus ending 51 years of marriage. Their children were John O. Long, Jr. — born June 18, 1922 (died August 13, 1956), Duncan T. Long — born in 1924 (died in 1942), and Jeanette Long Davenport — born May 1, 1940. Their grandchildren are Sandra Long Duke, John O. Long, III, Suzanne Davenport, and Paul I. Davenport, III.

Mr. Long faithfully served the following churches: Carrboro, Bethel, Warrenton, Davis Street in Burlington, Aberdeen, Plymouth, City Road in Elizabeth City, and Yanceyville in Prospect Hill. A total of almost 34 years was spent in the North Carolina Conference helping with our Lord's work with enthusiasm and dedication.

John was retired from the active ministry in June of 1954. "J.O." as he was so called by many who knew him best, has meant much to me as a fellow minister. He suffered much by sickness and death in his family. He lost one son from an illness and the other in a plane accident. A few years later, during his retirement, the hand of death struck down his lovely wife. But my friend never lost heart, because he knew the Lord — that all works for good to all who love Him. One more in the family survived, his dear daughter, who, with her family, brought joy to their hearts. Also a much loved granddaughter, Sandra Duke, who lives in Raleigh. His daughter Jeanette and her family live in Winston-Salem, N.C.

When John had to retire he moved with his family to Apex, N.C. but he remained as active as possible. He had previously purchased a house with several acres of land for he loved the great out-of-doors, especially for hunting and dog training of which he was very successful.

Heaven only knows how hard the suffering was which the Long family endured over the years but I know because of their faith in God their burdens were greatly lightened. My friend, J.O. Long was a man of patience and thoughtfulness in all that he did. Kindness was a great virtue in dealings with others. He always greeted his friends with a happy smile, so contagious. I know what I am talking about, for I have lived in Apex near him for many years.

"Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal . . ." The funeral service was held on Easter Sunday, April 19, 1981 in the Apex United Methodist Church by the pastor, the Reverend Ed Privett, and the Reverend Reginald Ponder, District Superintendent. Mrs. Robert Schuld beautifully sang the 23rd Psalm.

His body was placed beside that of his dear wife in Apex Cemetery to remain to that day when Christ shall come again to give bodies for eternity.

JESSE HERBERT LANNING
1894-1981

The circuitrider for Christ named Jesse Herbert Lanning, was born on December 27, 1894 to Carrie Althea and Baxter Franklin Lanning near Tyro, North Carolina.

He sensed that the Holy Spirit wanted him to be a proclaimer and doer of that "Love Divine, all loves excelling Joy of Heaven to earth come down . . ." as a Methodist minister.

His training was at Weaver, Rutherford and Trinity (Duke) Colleges plus Yale Divinity School. When he was at Trinity he won the Wiley Gray Medal in 1919. When he completed his work at Yale the California bishop called him to serve in that state at Ukiah and Berkeley. It was while in that state he met and married Ernestine Cushman on October 12, 1924. He brought her back to North Carolina with their consecrated love and they started serving in the Eastern North Carolina Conference. The joyous proclamations of Love Divine were the central core of existence for them both. Their North Carolina charges were in New Bern, Oxford Circuit, Rowland, Elizabeth City, Smithfield, Roxboro, Hamlet, Durham (Calvary Methodist), Clinton, Rockingham, (First) Graham, Plymouth and Christ Methodist in Fayetteville.

During two of these pastorates there were children born to this union — Jeremy Cushman Lanning and Lucinda Lanning McDill. Later after a number of years were added a son-in-law Edwin Brandao McDill and a granddaughter Amy McDill.

Knowing and acknowledging the Living God was of greatest importance to Jesse Lanning. This was reflected in the sermons which he shared with his congregations. Notable topics were often "Living Today", "Walking With God", and "The Beautiful Gate."

When serving the eastern part of the North Carolina Methodist Conference with great dedication, he showed lively interests. He participated in conference affairs by working on the Board of Education, Commission of Higher Education, Commission on World Service and Finance and Chairman of Family Life Committee.

He together with Dr. Irvin V. Sperry and Rev. Marvin Vick plus other statewide leaders in varied disciplines — education, religion, mental health — saw the need for forming and coordinating efforts in relation to family life. They formed the North Carolina Family Life Council Incorporated. He was treasurer for a period of time and the fifth president of this council.

These interests in family life continued during all of his pastorates and extended into his retirement. After retiring he cooperated with and assisted the pastors at First Methodist, Lexington, N.C. by serving Communion and teaching the Spruill Co-Ed Church School Class occasionally and having Family Life workshops with Davidson County Home Demonstration Club Leaders.

Jesse and Ernestine served in the N.C. conference and retired in 1960 near Lexington, N.C. to the homeplace. Ernestine went to the Heavenly Kingdom on February 26, 1961. Jesse was then called out of retirement to work with the National Missions of the Methodist Church.

It was during this time he met and married another beautiful and dedicated Christian woman Mary Hartline McCubbins from Salisbury, North Carolina, on April 3, 1962. Together they also served the Living God. Some of their crusade assignments took them to Ohio, Washington, Oklahoma, Massachusetts and Connecticut.

He truly knew God's love and that "This is his Father's World" before serving so far and wide. In mid-springtime, May 14, 1981, he went home to Heaven. Rev. Earl Haire (First Lexington) and The Rev. Herman Nicholson (First Methodist, Salisbury) offered up a joyfilling service to proclaim Jesse Lanning's witnessing while he was here on earth.

Shortly after Ernestine's passing he registered in a permanent way his Christ-like centered beliefs on the Bethel Cemetery family marker. He had on the marker two scriptural citations engraved — John 3:16 and John 15:12. He did indeed give witness to these with a living, loving, smiling, glowing outer and inner countenance to and for God and to others. He lived well in his beliefs and shared them with joy as a son, brother, father, minister, friend and child of God.

LEON MCGOWAN HALL

A welcome task is mine to write a memoir for one of the most devoted friends I ever had and one whose praise is acclaimed by all who knew him.

Leon McGowan Hall was born in Onslow County, North Carolina, October 18, 1889 and died at the Methodist Retirement Home May 24, 1981. Upon the early death of his parents, young Hall went to Wallace to the home of his uncle, T.Q. Hall, who accepted him as one of his children.

In 1910 Leon entered Trinity Park School. He arrived in Durham with $12.25. Determined to receive an education, he worked for his board at Mrs. T.L. McClees' where he milked four cows, waited on tables, and did secretarial work for Headmaster, W.W. Peele, later Bishop Peele. While he was in Trinity College, he preached at Bethany in Durham and a church at the corner of Trinity and Foster Streets.

The First World War called for chaplains and Leon answered. To the end of his days he was an ardent patriot. At the second World War he again answered the call to military duty.

Believing in the necessity of adequate theological training, two years were spent at Yale and at Hartford School of Theology where he was awarded the Master's Degree. During the three years in New England he served a congregation in Connecticut.

In the North Carolina Conference Leon served these charges: Bethany and Pearl Mill, Rougemont, Kinston, Piedmont Circuit, Roanoke Rapids, Wilmington (Fifth Avenue), Aberdeen, Dunn, Calvary, and Red Springs.

Time caught up with Leon as it does with all of us. He retired at 68 after a rich ministry, but Leon Hall was the kind of person who could not retire while there was work to do. Mark Lawrence, Pastor of Trinity Church, asked him to come to Trinity as Minister of Visitation, which he did and continued for sixteen years.

Leon was married to Anna Clement, his High School sweetheart in Wallace. She died while he was at Calvary. Fourteen months later he married Rebecca Kimbrough Weathers. Her daughter by a former marriage became in truth the daughter he never had.

Leon Hall was pastor to hundreds of people. It is doubtful whether any man of his time conducted more funerals, counseled more, and participated in more acts of mercy. He was gentle and kind, always considerate of the other person and ever concerned for those in need. He was a thorough Christian gentleman.

Funeral services were held in Trinity Church by the Reverend Belton Joyner, assisted by the Reverend Bill Cottingham, fittingly on Memorial Day — May 25, 1981. The final act of worship before the large congregation left the church was the singing of his favorite hymn "How Great Thou Art". Interment was in Maplewood Cemetery in Durham.

He is survived by his daughter, (Mrs. Charles A.) Becky Weathers Dukes and three grandchildren.

He loved his country, his conference, his family, and all the churches he served.

HARRY LEE ROGERS

The Reverend Harry Lee Rogers was born in Duplin County, North Carolina, on July 2, 1912; the son of the Reverend C.T. Rogers and Calla Mann Rogers. Born to a parsonage family, his entrance into the world marked the beginning of a way of life he was to follow the remainder of his days.

Called into the Christian ministry in early manhood, he was admitted to the North Carolina Conference in Fayetteville, North Carolina, in 1939 and was subsequently ordained an elder in 1943. He received his bachelor's degree from Asbury College and his ministerial degree from Emory University. He pursued additional studies at Duke University and Harvard University. Appointments served during thirty-nine years in the pastorate include: Stem, Apex, Hallsboro, Swansboro, Aurora, Whitakers, Middleburg, Cumberland, Cordova, Biscoe, Wendell, Daniels Memorial and Haw River. Always the patriot, he answered his county's call to duty by volunteering for the United States Air Force chaplaincy during World War II.

Harry met his life's companion, the former Miss Jessie Jones, while a young minister serving his second appointment. They were married in 1943 prior to Harry's being assigned overseas. His proposal — to become one of his favorite stories — consisted in informing his bride-to-be that he had nothing to offer beyond the uncertainties of the Methodist itinerancy. "You may have to live in an old school building," he warned, "and you may have to use a box for a kitchen table." As fate would have it, one of the first parsonages occupied by the young couple was, indeed, converted from an old school house. Outward circumstance, however, was never an obstacle to the Rogers whose desire to serve overshadowed their surroundings. Their bright optimism transformed each parsonage into a happy home.

When Harry returned from the war theatre, he met his oldest son who had been born during his absence. Children born to the Rogers include: Harry T. Rogers, Mrs. Linda Durham, Mrs. Gayle Kent and James T. Rogers. Though busy with the work of a minister, brother Rogers never allowed preoccupation with his pastoral duties to result in the negligence of his family. He was a devoted and attentive husband, as well as an ideal father. He took great pride in being able to educate his children, despite the impositions upon a pastor's meagre support. He lived to see each of them prosper. The younger Harry, incidentally, followed his father's footsteps of Christian service to become a missionary to the Phillipines.

Because of declining health, he was forced to take a disability leave in 1970. He located with the Macedonia United Methodist Church in Raleigh where he continued to minister in every possible way. Until his death, he was a frequent Sunday school teacher, Chairman of Worship, and an active member of the Administrative Board. He endeared himself to every member of the congregation through his kindness and devotion. "Mr. Harry," as he was affectionately called, became a Christian patriarch whose years of experience and impeccable character commanded respect. No church ever had a more faithful and enthusiastic supporter. Though he retired in 1978, he never ceased to be a servant of the Church. He often commented that his retired role had given him a new perspective. He came to regard the church's hymnody as a tremendous source of Christian inspiration, so much so that he went out and bought copies of The Methodist Hymnal for each of his children. He reported that he had often questioned the value of paedobaptism. "If I had it to do over again," he said, "I would insist that parents dedicate their children to God as soon as possible." He never ceased learning and thinking of ways to minister more effectively.

Only months before his death, I had returned to Macedonia for World Communion Sunday after a lengthy hospitalization. Harry had injured his wrist and could not manage the communion ware. I, in turn, could not conduct the liturgy. Together, we presided at the service. After the worship hour, we jokingly commented that the two of us were equal to only one healthy minister. This simple act of helpfulness, taken so lightly at the time, was to become a hallowed memory. It was the last time Harry Rogers occupied the pulpit.

Harry Lee Rogers' greatest gift to the world was himself. He radiated an atmosphere of gentleness and warmth which conveyed its own message and left no doubt as to his fellowship with Christ. He possessed the old-fashioned Christian virtues which have become too rare in our times. The Bible was, to him, a book to be believed and heeded. He insisted, against the antinomians of the age, that God expects adherence to the very highest moral standards. To the best of his ability, these were incorporated into his life and ministry. He was never the harsh and intractable zealot: he was always a man of the highest Christian principles.

In the midwinter of 1980, a drastic deterioration in his condition left him confined to his home. Then, on July 12, after a happy Sunday afternoon with his beloved children and grandchildren, Harry Rogers slipped away to meet Him whom he had served so faithfully for so long. I conducted his funeral service at the Macedonia United Methodist Church. He was laid to rest at the Swift Creek Baptist Church cemetery, the ancestral burial place of his wife's family near the Rogers home. The interment was conducted by the pastor of the Swift Creek Church.

Harry Rogers' life and ministry are a reminder of how swiftly the days of formal education pass into the joys and responsibilities of the pastorate. The years melt away under the urgency of daily labors and renewed challenges. Then, just as one begins to believe he understands the calling, the days of the active pastorate are finished. Having given so freely to so many, the minister goes to his final resting place accompanied by his family and a few friends. The undramatic circumstances of his passing cannot reveal how many lives he touched, how much sorrow he lessened, or how many found new hope through his ministry. His demise becomes an afterthought appended to the miracle which is the Christian ministry. Harry Rogers, who served God so humbly and faithfully, typified the numberless unsung saints whose unselfish and unassuming labors have sustained the Christian Church from its inception. In his time, he obeyed God's directives to give the world his own unique gifts and graces. He left a legacy of gratitude in the hearts of all who knew him.

None are dispensable,
For, leaving this shore,
Each bequeaths a void to time
Which none shall ever fill.
Though eternity should intervene
God made one of us, and no more.

RUFUS MILES SMITHSON, JR.

Rufus Miles Smithson, Jr. was born in Tyner, North Carolina, on January 3, 1935, to Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Miles Smithson, Sr., being one of three children to bless that home.

Rufus received his education in the Chowan School System, and he was a graduate of High Point College. Rufus was married to Kay Frances Morgan of High Point, North Carolina, who was a devoted and faithful wife. To this union was born four wonderful children, Laura, Janet, Rhonda and Miles. Kay worked faithfully with her husband over the years to accomplish the work of Christ.

Rufus was licensed to preach in 1956, ordained Deacon in 1960, ordained Elder in 1962 and made an Associate Member of The North Carolina Annual Conference in 1969. Prior to his untimely death on July 15, 1981, at the age of 46, Brother Smithson had devoted twenty-four years of his life in service to Jesus Christ as a Methodist Minister. Jesus said, "He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake will find it." Rufus Smithson literally used up his life in unselfish service to His Master and Lord and his fellowman. I can hear the greeting received by Rufus, "Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Rufus served with distinction and joy the following appointments: Creswell, Elizabeth City: Brite Meadows, Stumpy Point-East Lake, Pilmoor Memorial, Fayetteville: Person Street, Rocky Mount: Clark Street, and Kinnakeet at the time of his death.

During the last hours of Rufus' life, while the family and friends kept vigil, his dear wife penned the following poem describing his life.

HIS CALLING

He went; and asked not when, Lord,
He went; and asked not where,
He went; and asked not why, Lord —
Because he knew you care.

He went and fed your sheep, Lord,
A shepherd he wanted to be.
Because he answered to your call —
"Here am I, send me."

You've led him through the valleys
And up the mountain steep.
You've guided him in each pathway
And through the waters deep.
If a little sunshine he did spread
Along the road of life,
Then all his labors were not in vain,
And it was worth his strife.

By Kay Smithson
In loving memory of her husband

Funeral services were conducted on July 17, 1981, from Twiford's Colony Chapel in Manteo, North Carolina, by Kermit Braswell, Fred Roberts and Randy Blanchard. Interment followed the next day in Floral Gardens Cemetery, High Point. Kermit Braswell and Maness Mitchell conducted the graveside rites.

Rufus is survived by his wife, Kay; three daughters, Laura, Janet and Rhonda; one son, Miles; one grandchild, Adrienne; mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus M. Smithson, Sr. and a brother and sister.

ALONZO LEE REYNOLDS

The Reverend Alonzo Lee Reynolds, a retired United Methodist Minister, of Kittrell, North Carolina died September 24, 1981. A.L. as he was known to many of his friends was born August 3, 1907 in Tyrrell County in North Carolina. After graduating from high school in Columbia, Tyrrell County, he attended Norfolk Business College and for several years was in business in and around Elizabeth City. After receiving the call to preach he entered the Ministry and attended Atlantic Christian College in Wilson and the Pastors School at Duke. His survivors are his wife, Doris Dellinger Reynolds, daughters Mrs. Sarah Oliver, Mrs. Carol Hardy of Kinston, North Carolina, Mrs. Joyce Wise of Jacksonville, a son, Dawson Reynolds of Shorter, Alabama, a step-daughter, Mrs. Elaine Miller of Hickory, North Carolina, a step-son, Frank Eugene Berry, II of Durham, North Carolina, one brother, Lory Reynolds of Virginia Beach, Virginia and five grandchildren. A.L. was married to Vadis Godwin and of this union there were two children. After her death he married Lillian Alexander and of this union there were two children. Upon her death A.L. met and married Mrs. Doris Berry. Reverend A.L. Reynolds became an Elder at the Annual Conference in 1950 held in Kinston. He served the following: Franklin Memorial — Morehead City, Bethesda — Rockingham District, Stedman — Fayetteville District, St. Paul's — Rockingham District, West End — Sanford District, Newland Grace — Elizabeth City District, Robersonville — Greenville District, Kittrell — Plank Chapel — Raleigh District from which he retired in 1973.

His funeral was conducted by his Pastor the Reverend Henry W. Lee, assisted by Doctor Reginald W. Ponder, District Superintendent, and his internment was in the Plank Chapel United Methodist Church cemetery. A.L. Reynolds was a good friend, a wise counselor, devoted husband, a wonderful father and step-father, loved by his family and a great host of friends. A.L. Reynolds was a man with polish and character. He had dignity which was left as a trademark in the churches he served. He took his call into the Ministry seriously. He loved and cared for his flock like a wise shepherd. He was an outstanding Preacher of the gospel, a talented musician who loved church music and was able to contribute much in the musical life in the churches he served. As a faithful servant we know he will hear those words from the Master, "Thou good and faithful servant, because thou has been faithful of a few things now you are master of many things, enter into the joy of the Lord." While he has gone from us he is not forgotten by us.

Death is just the gateway
Our loved ones pass through
On their way to the land
Where we're all born anew-
And while we can't see
What's on death's other side,
We know that Our Father
Will richly provide
All that He promised
To those who believe
And His kingdom is waiting
For us to receive.

FRANK DONALD SALMON
1920-1981

Frank Donald Salmon was born January 26, 1920, in Ashland, Kentucky, to Everett Boone and Alice Martin Salmon. On August 29, 1943, he married the former Audrey Hampton. In time three children were born to that union, Donna Salmon Davis, Virginia Salmon Hardwick, and William Wesley Salmon, and six grandchildren.

Frank was educated in the public schools of Ashland and at Ashland Junior College. He received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Union College, Barbourville, Kentucky. He also attended the Pastor's School at Duke University three summers.

Frank was admitted on trial into the Kentucky Conference in 1954 and accepted into full connection in 1956. He was ordained deacon in 1955 and elder in 1957. Frank transferred to the North Carolina Conference in January 1959 and since that time has served the following appointments: Carrolls Chapel, Rowland, Chadbourn, Sunset Park, and Camp United Methodist Churches. Frank found it necessary to take disability leave in 1970.

Frank died November 4, at the age of 61 after years of declining health. His funeral service was conducted by the Reverends Woodrow W. Wells, Jr. and Vernon P. Tyson at Camp United Methodist, his last appointment and church home until his death.

Frank's ministry did not end with retirement; in many ways it expanded. No longer identified with a particular pastorate, Frank administered to the larger community of Shallotte where he so endeared himself that at his death a tribute to him appeared in the local newspaper titled, "He Pastored Us All." The following sentiments lifted from that article eloquently bespeak his unique contributions: "We shall miss him, our friend, Frank Salmon. He was a simple Kentucky man who took his pleasure in the everyday aspects of life . . . This man of Christ was no distinguisher of persons. Rich or poor, Methodist or not, he loved and accepted us all for what we are — human. . . . Frank was husband, father, grandfather, minister, Mason, and friend . . . most of all, friend."

But this is not to say that Frank was any the less special to Camp Church, as indicated by these thoughts written by the Chairperson of the Administrative Board and printed in the funeral service bulletin: "We . . . the Body of Christ have lost a dear and trusted friend; however, in our bereavement let us not dwell on our great loss, but give thanks to God for the life of Frank Salmon. As a former pastor and member of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, his leadership, compassion, generosity, and understanding will continue to live in our hearts. Perhaps this too is a part of the immortality of the spirit, 'That whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.' Frank Salmon touched the lives of all who knew him, and we are a better people because he walked among us."

Frank was known many ways, but perhaps best of all as Mr. Fish, a humorous play on his last name, Salmon. The fish is one of the richest and earliest of all Christian symbols: during the persecutions it was used as a secret sign to point to places of worship; in Greek it is an acrostic for "Jesus Christ, Son of God, Savior." As it should be with us all, Mr. Fish's life was a symbol too, a symbol that pointed to a place of worship, the place where all true worship must take place, in our day-to-day living. "I appeal to you . . . brethren," writes the Apostle Paul, "to present your bodies as a living sacrifice . . . to God which is your spiritual worship." So it was Frank loved to live and lived to love. Frank was often described as "Minister-in-residence to Shallotte," and indeed his greatest joy was doing little things for others, a day hardly passing when he did not do some kindness, warm some heart, bring some smile. But again Paul tells us why: "It is not I who live but Christ who lives within me" — the Fish in Mr. Fish, if you will.

Through years of seeking and serving and suffering, Frank appropriated for himself the truth of that acrostic, that Jesus is not just the Christ but MY Christ, the Son of God who makes ME God's son, the Savior of the world who is all the world to ME. Yes, this Fish story, the greatest story ever told, was Mr. Fish's story, his own personal story of the God who died that we might live both here and hereafter. It is no "fish story," this story of the Fish that Frank preached for 21 years and practiced even longer. No, it is the truth. "What is truth?" asked Pilot. "I am the truth," said Jesus. The Scriptures promise, "You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free" — even from your fiercest and final foes, sin and death themselves. Thanks be to God who gives us — and Frank — the victory through our Lord, Jesus Christ!

ANDY BURGON ("BUD") FALLS, JR.

In days gone by, when there was a written message to be conveyed or a sentiment expressed, the writer began with the words, "I take my pen in hand." The far reaching significance of these words and the sacredness of the act have never seemed more revered to this writer than now as she takes her pen in hand to record the memoir of a former pastor, the Rev. Andy B. Falls, Jr., intimately called "Bud".

Andy B. Falls, Jr. was born Dec. 20, 1921 at Kings Mountain, N.C. At an early age, he and his home town sweetheart, Helen Falls were married. During the passage of time, they were blessed with the gift of three children; Andy B. Falls, III, of Wrightsville Beach; Kay F. Burgess and Robin F. Brooks, both of Raleigh; and two grandchildren, Scott and Graham Burgess, of Raleigh. His livelihood was that of a contractor. World War II interrupted his work. He served some time in the European Theatre of conflict. After returning home, he resumed his trade but soon surrendered his heart to Christ and entered into full time service for the Lord-teaching and preaching His Word.

In preparation for a better and fuller ministry, he entered Garner-Webb College. While shouldering the responsibility of acquiring an education and rearing a family, he found time to freely donate his labor and skills to the building of the beautiful new Macedonia Baptist Church. Further religious training was gained at Louisburg College and Duke Divinity School. He was ordained in 1955 in Kings Mountain. For 21 years he served in the N.C. Conference. His assignments were at Walstonburg, Newton Grove, Yanceyville, Swepsonville, St. Pauls and Fair Bluff — Cerro Gordo. He served on the district level of Church Building and Location and was a great advocate of the $10.00 Club.

Ill health began to claim his strength while he served at Newton Grove. In later years he gradually became more frail. In Nov. of 1980 he underwent major surgery at Lumberton and later twice at Duke Hospital. Respecting his physical weakness, his people never-the-less, clamored for the truth which he proclaimed. Just a few days before he was fatally stricken, he held a rich and rewarding revival. So intent was he to preach the Word, Helen provided a high stool behind the pulpit on which he leaned for support.

His last hours were filled with activities so lovingly extended to his mother. He and Helen had visited her, presented and received their early Christmas gifts, bid their fond goodbyes and left for home. A short distance from their departure, the end was evident. Several hours later, Nov. 18 the transition from here to heaven was completed.

A chain of events, directed by God's hand, led again to Macedonia Baptist Church. Here the funeral was conducted on Nov. 19 at 3:30 by Dr. Tom Patterson, with burial in Mountain Rest Cemetery, Kings Mountain. A memorial service was held at 2:00, Nov. 21 at Fair Bluff United Methodist Church of which he was the present pastor. Eulogies were said by the Rev. Vernon Tyson, District Supt., assisted by Dr. Joseph Bethea and the Rev. Ray Lundy of Fair Bluff.

The record would be voluminous if all of Bud's attributes were listed. His deeds could be compared to stepping stones, paving the way that leads ever upward. Those within his reach who were called upon to mourn, felt that his compassion for the disconsolate was his greatest ministry. He used God's promises as an abrasive to smooth the rough ends of the rod and staff upon which the suffering one leaned as he passed through his dark nights and deep valleys to emerge, scarred but reconciled. These are the observations of one who lives a generation before Bud. One who lives a generation after him, ten year old Stephanie Andell of Cerro

Gordo, when learning of her pastor's death, was inspired to write the following poem:

I KNEW A MAN

I knew a man who was so sweet,
The nicest man you'd want to meet
He showed happiness on his face
And also shared a lot of grace,
His smile meant so much and
He had the perfect touch.

I know when I get old and gray
That I will always remember
This man in a very special way.

An adult and a child, so agreed on their recollections of their mutual friend, conclude this memorial with a parable and a benediction:

A pebble tossed into a glittering pool creates ripples to break against a thirsty shore,
Be this thy fate, Christ-like man, till tide and time shall be no more.

ORVILLE WILLIAM WATSON

"Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

Orville William Watson, of the Gardner Community of Princeton, W. Va., died at his home on January 7, 1982, after a long illness. It is not for us to understand the Divine Plan of Almighty God, but without our belief in immortality, we rejoice in the hope that we shall meet again in that celestial home above, "That house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens".

Born in Castlewood, Va. on July 12, 1917, he was a son of the late Robert and Casady Couch Watson. He retired as a Methodist minister after 32 years of service and had served churches in Bartley, Crumpler, Chapel Hill, Roanoke Rapids, Rockingham, Robbins, and Rowland. He married Mary Elizabeth Cox on July 11, 1938 and they were blessed with two sons and a daughter.

We are grateful that we were privileged to walk beside him on the pilgrimage of life and because of his ministry and generosity in his service as a friend and a relative, we acknowledge how greatly our lives have been enriched through out association with him.

We are grateful that we were privileged to walk beside him on the pilgrimage of life and because of his ministry and generosity in his service as a friend and a relative, we acknowledge how greatly our lives have been enriched through our association with him.

His interest in the ministry, the growth and progress in the churches he has pastored in the Methodist Conference in the states of West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia, the Sunday School Programs, Bible Studies, and especially the youth programs, were ardent and intense.

Those who knew him best feel free to speak of the nobleness and purity of his life without reservation. Such a person has left us, but he had left his family and friends a legacy of unselfish service which can never be forgotten here and which will brighten all eternity.

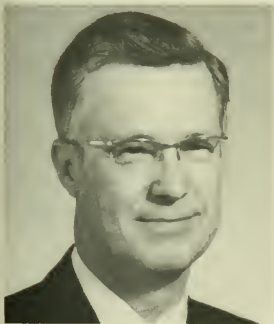

He was a friend whose heart was good,
He walked with us and understood,
His was a smile we loved to see,
His was a hand that asked no fee,
For friendliness or kindness done,
And now that he has journeyed on,
Here is a life that never ends,
He leaves behind uncounted friends.
God saw that the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed his weary eyes
And whispered, "Peace by thine".

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mary Cox Watson; two sons, Robert Watson of Tulsa, Okla., and William Watson of Anderson, S.C.; one daughter, Mrs. Robert (Anna Lee) Maxwell of Apalachin, N.Y. one sister, Mrs. Beulah Hurn of McKenzie, Tenn.; two half-sisters, Mrs. Mazelle Couch of Castlewood and Mrs. Ida Couch of Gate City, Va.; one brother, Lynn Watson of Castlewood; one half-brother, Walter Couch of California; and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted January 9, 1982, at Burns Wornal Chapel of the Memorial Funeral Directory of Princeton. Burial was in Roselawn Memorial Gardens near Princeton.

In loving memory of a dedicated minister to the word of God, a faithful friend and an unforgettable uncle, we will miss you, Reverend Orville W. Watson. . . . "Thy will, not mine, be done".

PAUL CARRUTH

Paul Carruth was born in Tylertown, Mississippi on March 25, 1918. Before he entered school, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hoover Carruth, moved to McComb, Mississippi. After graduating from the public school in McComb, he attended Millsaps College, a Methodist school in Jackson, Mississippi, and received his B.S. degree. In 1939 he entered Duke Divinity School in Durham, North Carolina, and remained in this State for the remainder of his life.

Paul joined the North Carolina Annual Conference in 1942 and served the following appointments: Caledonia, Carolina Beach: St. Paul, Granville Circuit, Zebulon-Wendell, Franklinton, Chaplain in the U.S. Air Force for 2½ years during the Korean Conflict, Moncure, Tabor City: St. Paul, Director of the Commission on Higher Education, Raleigh: Hayes-Barton, Superintendent of the Rocky Mount District, Durham: Trinity, Superintendent of the Fayetteville District, the appointment he held at the time of his death.

Paul and Roberta Fields were married on March 8, 1944 in the St. Paul Methodist Church at Carolina Beach, North Carolina. He is survived by Roberta and their four children: Ellen, Paul Jr., Robert (Robby), and Joy. All the children are now living in Raleigh where Roberta will also live. Robby is a United Methodist Minister and a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Paul died Saturday afternoon, April 10, 1982, after spending some time working in the parsonage yard, one of his more enjoyable hobbies. Roberta and their daughter Ellen were with him on the lawn and admiring with him the beauty of his labor when death came suddenly. The funeral service was held on April 14 at the Hayes-Barton United Methodist Church in Raleigh where Paul had served as Pastor for eight years and where two of his children were active members. Dr. Owen Fitzgerald, Pastor of the Church, led the service, and Bishop William R. Cannon gave the eulogy. Since Robby and his wife were in India and could not get home until after the funeral, the burial was at the Raleigh Memorial Park on the following day.

Paul was an able Preacher, an excellent administrator, and a scholar. In the eulogy, Bishop Cannon characterized him as one of the great scholars in the Conference. When Methodist College conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity, the citation included this statement: "Your love of learning remains the hallmark of your service."

Paul was genuinely interested in higher education. When the North Carolina Conference entered into a program to raise money to establish two new colleges, he was chosen to be the Executive Director for the campaign. For three years he provided with great effectiveness enthusiastic and able leadership to this effort. His interest in the Church's involvement in higher education never waned. He served as Chairman of the Conference Board of Higher Education and as Chairman of the Joint Committee on Higher Education for the two Annual Conferences in the State. He was a Trustee of Louisburg College, Methodist College, and a member of the North Carolina State Commission on Campus Ministry.

Paul was deeply interested in the quality of leadership provided by Ordained Ministers. He was a member of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and one of the aggressive spokesmen for Continuing Education for Pastors. The program of Seminary Visitation by our Conference was initiated by Paul and he guided the work until the time of his death. His efforts added greatly to a more effective ministry by the Clergy of the Conference. Paul was a delegate twice to Jurisdictional Conference and a Reserve Delegate to General Conference. He also served on several Jurisdictional Committees including the Committee on Nomination.

Paul was greatly involved in many facets of Conference life. His penetrating insights were always helpful. When there was a need for someone or a group to be called to task, Paul could do it forcefully and intelligently. He has indeed been a guiding light among us for many years. We will miss his voice, but because he has spoken we will always be richer and wiser.

EDWARD CARSON BATCHELOR

Edward Carson Batchelor was born on June 3, 1921, in Whiteville, North Carolina, one of seven children who were reared on a family farm in Columbus County. He graduated from Whiteville High School and joined the Army. Afterwards, he was employed with Chadbourn Veneer Company for several years.

Feeling the call to preach the Gospel, he was concerned about the need to further his education. He enrolled in Southeastern Community College and then completed a four year course of study with the Duke Divinity School, Duke University in Durham.

In 1941, he was married to Grace Dyson and from that marriage eight children were born: Hazel, Patricia, Frances, Linda, Edward II, James, Steven, and Rose. He had a large family and all the children were very close to their father. He was very respected and each one knew that he spoke with authority. As he continued to work and rear the children and study for his education, he worked hard in the Methodist Church where he and his family were members. He would walk to church with his family (about 3 miles) because in those early days he did not have a car. It was during those times together that the family enjoyed many hours of singing and fellowship.

On September 17, 1962, he was licensed to preach the gospel in the Methodist Church by the Reverend Clyde S. Boggs of the Wilmington District. On June 4, 1969, he was ordained a deacon in the United Methodist Church in Chapel Hill by Bishop William R. Cannon.

He received his first appointment in 1968 to preach and was assigned to the Wilmington District. He had finally reached the goal that he had worked so hard to reach, to preach the Gospel of our Lord, and to win souls to Jesus Christ. His whole heart was preaching the Gospel, winning of souls and helping promote his Methodist Church. He loved the church and believed in it's doctrine and principles. He loved all the people, and especially children.

In May of 1981 he was struck suddenly with arteriosclerosis. He had to have major surgery twice in one year. Both operations were successful, however, and he was excited about returning to the ministry. On May 29, 1982, while he was still on disability leave, he was killed in a car accident in Shallotte.

Funeral services were held at Village Point United Methodist Church with the Reverends Tracie Varnum, Everett Price, and Bob Rudd officiating. Interment was in Whiteville Memorial Park. Active casketbearers were Raleigh Philps, Wilbur Register, Justin Kinlaw, Carson Varnum, Gene Inman, and Earl Watson.

He is survived by his wife, Grace, 8 children and 15 grandchildren.

Ed Batchelor loved his own good life and wanted everyone to be happy. He loved his family and grandchildren very much. He also had a deep love and appreciation for music and played the guitar very well.

Only living a life of 60 years, I truthfully feel that my father served the Methodist Conference well, he served God to the best of his ability, and taught his family that you best serve God by serving others. He was a faithful servant to the end. I will always cherish the fond memories of his life, his love for God and others.

BERNICE BURNS LONG

Bernice Lucille Burns was born on October 24, 1901 at Ellenboro in Rutherford County, the daughter of Fannie Lou (Hamrick) and William M. Burns. She grew up to become gracious and dedicated in her Lord's work as well as her love and talent for homemaking. She finished high school at Boiling Springs and worked for some time at a "5¢ & 10¢ Store" in Forest City.

On January 2, 1930, she married a young man who shared her love for the Lord and deep desire to 'tend' His flock. He was Charles Burrington Long from Person County obtaining his B.D. degree from the Atlanta Theological Seminary in the coming June of 1930.

They began their married life on the circuit and enthusiastically served churches in eastern North Carolina for twelve years until 1942 when America joined the War. Charles answered the call and entered the armed forces as a chaplain.

Bernice remained at home to care for their two sons, Siegby C. Long (now of Kinston) and George B. Long (now of Winston-Salem) while her husband was serving on active duty. He was "over there" during the Belgium Bulge and remained with the Army of Occupation until 1947 when he was stationed at Fort Bragg for a year before his discharge.

Charles then immediately received an appointment to serve at the Stedman Charge. Rejoicing that the family was permanently together, Bernice welcomed the years they would be again doing the Lord's work together. She was very active in every church especially in the Women's Society and she spent many years working with the MYF. She always enjoyed the young people very much.

Charles also served on charges at Trenton, Fair Bluff, Garysburg and Parkton. He was a modest man with modest requirements but a talented man of intellect and depth. He worked continuously until his death in 1960.

Following his death Bernice settled in Kinston. She remained very active until about two years before her death. Her home had always been a compliment to their profession. Her table was always beautiful as was her garden. She still loved to cook and entertain guests. She enjoyed caring for her flowers too, which she generously shared with all who admired them. But her vital concern and happiness remained in the church and she was never tired when doing His work. She received a lifetime membership in the Women's Society and seemed proudest of this accomplishment. She stayed an active force in the church community until diabetes and her heart forced her to slow down.

Her heart finally failed her on March 5, 1981 and her pilgrimage here was ended. Her funeral service was conducted by the Reverend Wallace Lewis of St. Mark-Woodington in Kinston. She was buried beside her husband in Westview Cemetery of Kinston.

Her talents, wisdom, compassion, and giving spirit will be remembered by all her loved ones. It seems fitting that a poem written by her husband about two weeks before his own death would tell us the true meaning of our passing from this life.

RESURRECTION

The leaves came down, no single one was left;
An emptiness had made the world bereft.
So much philosophy could not this truth deny
The world of Beauty was so young to die;
But winter came, and with his fearful tread
I wept to see the thing he made so dead.
I heard a gentle rustle, fleetful as the fawn,
'Twas April running out to me across the dawn.

FANNIE HATCH LARKIN

In her retirement years Fannie Hatch Larkin planted her life firmly in the mountains of Western North Carolina at Lake Junaluska, but in her heart she never left her beloved Lee County where she grew up, and where later she served with her husband in a successful pastorate. And in death her body was returned to the earth of Lee County's historic Buffalo Church Cemetery at Sanford, to await the general resurrection when all God's saints will rise in glory.

Fannie Hatch Larkin was born March 8, 1896 at Pittsboro, North Carolina, to Mary Strickland and Samuel P. Hatch. She grew up and spent most of her early life in Sanford, and was a graduate of Peace College in Raleigh. On May 14, 1919 she was united in Holy Matrimony with Leon Crawford Larkin. Together they served 42 years in the ministry of Christ in the North Carolina Annual Conference at Henderson, Williamston, Tarboro, Durham, Wilmington, Sanford, New Bern, Rocky Mount District, Burlington, as Superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage in Raleigh, Roanoke Rapids, and Mt. Gilead. After retirement in 1960 they made their home at Lake Junaluska where Leon Larkin died in 1971. Fannie Larkin died in the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham on May 25, 1981. Funeral services were held in the St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Sanford on May 27, 1981 with The Rev. Nicholas Grant and The Rev. Joseph W. Lasley officiating. Surviving are her daughter Ann (Mrs. Hugh B. Stokes, Jr.) of Greensboro, two grandsons Bert and Leon Stokes, and two great-grandsons.

In every parsonage she called home, she reached out and touched the lives of those who passed by. She did not choose the ministry as her career. She did choose a minister however, and with Leon Larkin she was in ministry in whatever place they were sent. She was instrumental in organizing the Ministers' Wives Fellowship of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Her family remembers especially her great capacity to love many people, of all classes and ages.

In many ways Fannie Larkin was a demanding woman. She demanded much from others, but also from herself. She demanded the best of others and was not satisfied unless she had given her best, because that is what she believed God wanted of her.

Like Sarah in the Old Testament, who went with her husband Abraham to a new land they knew not where, so Fannie Larkin went with her husband Leon to every place where they were appointed by the Bishop. Like Naomi in a land far from home, she lived a life in each of these appointments which enabled others to see God through her, and to choose her God for their own. Like Ruth, she allowed love to bind her to others who had changed and influenced and enriched her own life. Like Martha of Bethany, she served others by doing the hum-drum but necessary things that make daily life possible. But like Mary, Martha's sister, she also sat at the feet of the Master to learn of Him. Like Priscilla, she was a leader in the Church, which many times spilled over into her home. And like Dorcas, Fannie Larkin was a woman full of good works and deeds on behalf of those who were in need. She was a dear friend to the writer and his family, a faithful wife, loving mother, and a proud grandmother and great-grandmother.

This world is a better place because Fannie Larkin passed-by this way. And because we believe in the goodness of God, we can believe that when we enter the realms of heaven, that she will be there in the heavenly equivalent of a white front-porch rocking chair, waiting to greet us and bid us welcome.

SALLYE SWINDELL FORTESCUE

Sallye Swindell Fortescue, daughter of the late Joel Swindell and Annie Crawford Swindell, was born December 5, 1907 in Hyde County near Englehard, N.C.

Mrs. Fortescue received her education in the public schools of Hyde County, and upon completion she attended summer sessions at East Carolina College in Greenville, N.C.

On December 28, 1929 she was married to Frank Wahab Fortescue of Scranton, N.C. at the Methodist Parsonage in Swan Quarter, N.C. They began their life together at the Fortescue homeplace where they tilled the soil with humility and pride. It was there they were blessed with four wonderful children: Three sons, Frank W., Jimmy M., and William. Also a daughter, Ann, completed their family. All the (connotations) one could give to "Mother" would not surpass the love, the understanding, and the Christian atmosphere with which she surrounded her family and home.

On Feb. 15, 1946 their vocation changed when Frank became postmaster at Scranton, N.C. It was while serving in this capacity that Frank and Sallye were called to become laborers for God in his ministry. On July 1, 1957 the Methodist Church appointed Frank to serve as pastor of Chowan Charge at Tyner, N.C. Other appointments were Oriental Charge, Oriental, N.C.; Currituck Charge, Grandy, N.C.; Hopewell-Mt. Moriah Charge, Route 1, Clinton, N.C.; St. Peters Charge, Morehead City, N.C.; and Pilmoore Memorial, Currituck, N.C. At the 1974 Annual Conference Frank and Sallye retired from full time ministry and moved to 310 E. 13 Street Washington, N.C.

Sallye Fortescue was a wonderful minister's help-mate and partner. The United Methodist Woman's organization of the Hopewell United Methodist Church honored her with a Life Membership for dedication and service. She shared her husband's ministry through the frequent and regular home visitation program which was a hallmark of their ministry. She merited and received the love, admiration, and esteem of countless church acquaintances. She was a lovely neighbor and friend to all. Her gracious manner, humorous wit, and unforgettable personality touched many lives. Mrs. Fortescue exemplified "Christ-like" love in unselfish and compassionate deeds of service for members of her church families. Her life reflected her love for God and all of His handiwork.

Mrs. Fortescue bravely endured heart disease for more than fifteen years. In spite of this malady her complete faith and determination always kept her at her husband's side. The battle of life came to a quiet, peaceful end on July 5, 1981 when she was called home to rest forever from the labors of this world.

A beautiful funeral service, which was held at the First United Methodist Church in Washington, N.C., was conducted by her pastor, the Rev. Ralph Epps and the Rev. J.B. Parvin, Superintendent of the Greenville District. The Rev. Nevin Snyder, pastor of Epworth United Methodist Church, assisted at the graveside service. Interment was in the Epworth United Methodist Church cemetery in Sladesville, N.C.

She is survived by her widower, the Rev. Frank W. Fortescue, a daughter, Mrs. Ann F. Davis of Raleigh; sons, Frank W. Fortescue, Jr. of Scranton, N.C., William W. Fortescue of Winston-Salem, N.C., and James M. Fortescue of Washington, N.C. Surviving sisters are Mrs. Mary E. Epting of Little Mountain, S.C. and Mrs. Lillian O'Neal of Swan Quarter, N.C. Ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive.

"Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report — think on these things" — Phillipians 4:8. Of such was the life of Mrs. Sallye S. Fortescue.

EDITH MORRISON CHESTER CASEY

Mrs. Edith Morrison Chester Casey was born April 15, 1903, in Hickory, N.C. She was one of fifteen children of William B. and Vesta Sigmon Morrison. She passed from this life into the spiritual realm July 27, 1981, while a patient in Crowell Memorial Hospital in Lincolnton, N.C.

Mrs. Casey graduated from Frye High School in Hickory. The following year she attended Rutherford College. During this year she became engaged to a student who later became the Rev. Harley A. Chester. On July 12, 1925, this writer accompanied them to the Methodist parsonage in Newton, N.C. for their marriage ceremony that was conducted by the pastor, the Rev. E.W. Fox. This fine young man, Harley Chester, must have had a wise mother as mentioned in Proverbs 31 who taught her son, King Lemuel, the qualities of a good wife, and advised him to seek and find such a wife for himself. His choice proved to be a very good one across the years.

In the Fall of 1925 Edith's husband joined the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church and became a traveling preacher. The companion he had chosen became a most helpful wife who fulfilled her very sacred mission as a minister's wife. Edith was also a good mother and a faithful and effective Christian worker in the churches they served. To them were born a daughter who is now Mrs. Rebecca Chester Childers of Henderson, N.C., and a son, Mr. Harley Archie Chester, Jr., of Denver, N.C., with whom she was living at the time of her death. Surviving are the two children, eight grandchildren, two great grandchildren, four brothers and six sisters.

Edith and her minister husband served the following charges in the North Carolina Conference: Chowan Circuit 1925-27, Roper 1927-28, Whitakers 1928-31, Mattamuskeet 1931-34, Garysburg 1934-36, Knightdale 1936-38, Benson 1938-43, Carthage 1943-45, Branson Memorial 1945-46, Mt. Olive Circuit 1946-48, Bahama 1948-50, Burlington Circuit 1950-53. It was then that this wife's career changed with the death of her husband. But she continued her faithful ministry in the churches where she lived.

In 1958 Mrs. Chester married Mr. Gordon Casey of Mt. Olive, N.C. Some time after Mr. Casey's death she moved to Denver, N.C., to live with her son and grandson Kenneth.

A beautiful and inspiring worship service was held for her in the Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church at Sherrill's Ford, N.C. The pastor, Rev. Grady R. Barringer, was in charge, assisted by a life-long friend of the family, Rev. G. Ervin White. This worship service was participated in by a large number of relatives and many friends. The place of interment was the Alamance Memorial Park in Burlington, N.C.

Mrs. Edith Chester Casey was a very sincere and dedicated Christian, a faithful minister's wife, a devoted mother and keeper of the house in which they lived as she provided for the total welfare of her family, a respected and beloved grandmother and a coveted friend of many. She will be remembered with love, admiration and respect by her loved ones and multitudes of friends. At this moment may all of these join in the chorus and say goodbye for today with the blessed assurance that we will greet her in the morning of the eternal day.

How does one measure a life? For the Christian, at least three dimensions must be considered: faith in Jesus Christ, loyalty to the Church, and a caring relationship with others. By such measurement, Thelma Cole Barclift lived and died as a Christian: she had strong faith; she loved the Church; she cared for others. Thanks be to God!

Thelma was born in Wilmington, North Carolina, December 17, 1902. After her formal education, she served for several years in an administrative capacity with the Seaboard Coastline Railroad in Hamlet — one of the first women to hold such a position. On November 27, 1930, Thanksgiving Day, she married Chancie D. Barclift, then serving his second appointment in the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, the Leasburg Circuit. Their team ministry carried them to the North Gates Circuit, to the Durham Circuit, to Fifth Avenue Church in Wilmington, to First Church in Henderson, to the Superintendency of the Wilmington District, to Trinity Church in Durham, to the Superintendency of the Durham District, to Hay Street Church in Fayetteville, and again to the Superintendency of the Durham District. After Dr. Barclift's retirement in June 1974, Chancie and Thelma made their home on Southwood Drive in Durham. He died in December 1975.

Throughout the rich and varied ministry shared by the Barclifts, Thelma registered steadfast support and competent service. She took leadership in the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. She offered nourishing advice to fledgling ministers and their wives. She provided a quality of spirit which strengthened their parsonage home as "a haven of blessing and a place of peace."

And how many miles she must have traveled with the indomitable District Superintendent! What a remarkable record! More than one-third of their forty-four years in the itineracy were spent on the District. Few parsonage families are privileged to touch with effect so many congregations! One might suspect that such extended contact with the pains and struggles of so many congregations might make one a bit uncertain about the work of the church. Not so! Thelma Barclift died as she lived with a commitment to the church at every level of its life: based in a love of the local church (she related to Trinity Church in Durham for 23 years), expressed in a vital tie to the district and conference affairs (her shelves still held the most recent Journal), and with appreciation of the greater connection ("The Methodist Church will come around," she said; "it always does.") In November 1980, the Charge Conference of Trinity Church in Durham acknowledged Mrs. Barclift's witness and elected her an honorary member of the Administrative Board.

Thelma struggled with a series of illnesses and finally God quietly gave her the victory on August 19, 1981, in Durham. She is survived by two daughters, Louise (Mrs. Fred B. Hight, Jr.) of Raleigh and Thelma Cole (Mrs. T. Harold Crowder, Jr.) of South Boston, Virginia. There are six grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at Trinity Church by her pastor, F. Belton Joyner, Jr., and her district superintendent, Charles H. Mercer. As the service concluded, the congregation stood and gave strong affirmation of the faith by which Thelma had lived and which the people of God proclaim: ". . . I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting."

Interment was next to Chancie in the cemetery of New Hope United Methodist Church, Durant's Neck, Perquimans County, North Carolina. This too is a day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it!

CALLA BELL HILL
1891-1981

For those who hold the call to ministry to come from God, it is evident that the youthful Methodist preacher called to ministry from a vocation as mail carrier and appointed to Seven Springs was in the will of the Heavenly Father when he returned to Bogue, North Carolina in Carteret county to claim Calla Lily Bell his parsonage bride. The wedding date was December 21, 1913 and together, their itineracy was to lead to faithful and obedient service in Seven Springs, Cape Hatteras, Roberdel, Roper, Glendon, Roseboro, Atlantic, Stonewall, Dover, Timberlake, Lumberton and Hallsboro.

The young preacher was Ethelbert L. Hill, known as Bert Hill, and the bride was to become the beloved "Mama Hill" as she was known to her family and the host of friends who were blessed by the beauty of her Christian character and the quiet fortitude of her Christian faith.

Discipleship was far from comfortable for a mother and busy homemaker, an active participant in the life of the church and a source of strength for an always busy preacher husband. But Mama Hill accepted her role gladly, and her good judgement and spiritual stability is reflected in the lives of their children: E. Byron Hill of Riverview, Florida; Geraldine H. White of Dover, N.C.; Eric W. Hill of Atlanta, Georgia; Margaret H. Humphrey of Kinston, N.C. and Melba H. Denison of Hoadsport, Washington. Bert and Calla Hill lost their son Lt. Earl L. Hill in World War II and son Thomas L. Hill in infancy, but theirs was a faithful and pastoral ministry marked by a great love for the Methodist Church and for the North Carolina Conference. As retirement from the itinerancy came in 1945, the Hills purchased a home in Mount Olive which they came to love and were loved by the community.

After the passing of Brother Hill in 1956, Mama Hill moved to Dover to be near family and a church and community for which she had a special affection. Later, she was to build an apartment at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Margaret and Thomas Humphrey. It was here that this preacher came to know and love this beautiful godly and graceful Methodist saint.

To enter her home was to share the mementos of parsonage life and to be surrounded by the familiar books and Methodist publications that constitute our heritage. Methodism will remain forever indebted to women like Mama Hill who with graciousness accepted the adversity of living with little material reward but with a joyousness of spirit and an ever overflowing selfless love for the Lord and His church.

We are grateful that the church could express its gratitude in that as she came toward the end of the ninth decade of her life and infirmity prevailed, the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham became her home and provided her much needed care in a loving and fitting environment for the latter years and homegoing of a great servant of God.

We gathered to celebrate her victory grateful for a life that was long in years, from June 1, 1891 until October 1, 1981. But with Pastor Herbert Horne, her family and her friends, we left her tired body by that of her beloved husband in Wayne Memorial Park, Goldsboro, N.C. grateful for her indomitable spirit that made those years beautiful beyond any earthly measure and grateful that Mama Hill had enriched our lives by her great faithfulness.

HELEN MERYL STOKES MINNIS
1898-1981

Helen Meryl Stokes Minnis was born January 23, 1898 in Harford County, Maryland, to J. Harold and Mariam Pyle Stokes. She died at home after a lengthy illness, on October 13, 1981. She had nine brothers and sisters and was raised on a farm. She applied herself well in school and was the Valedictorian of her high school graduating class. After finishing high school she attended The Normal School near Baltimore, and studied to become a school teacher. She then taught school in Harford County Maryland for six years.

In 1922 she married the Rev. Jesse F. Minnis, who had been appointed to go to India as Missionary. From 1922 to 1955 they were Missionaries in India. for the first seventeen years under the Board of Missions of The Methodist Protestant Church. After unification they became Missionaries in the Bombay Conference. Meryl had no trouble adjusting to living in India. After two years of studyng, she was able to read, speak and write the language of Western India. Meryl and Mr. Minnis are the parents of three children all born in India; Jesse Jr., Betty Jean, and James. Each child has been blessed through her love and care.

In 1955 for health reasons Meryl and Mr. Minnis returned to the United States, and for a while lived on the old Minnis place. In 1956 Mr. Minnis was transferred from The Bombay Conference to the North Carolina Annual Conference. The Minnis' then spent two years at First Methodist Church in Pembroke; two years at Trinity Methodist Church in Sanford, and one year at Lucama Methodist in Lucama. In 1961 they retired and moved to their country home near Hillsborough in Orange County. After a year Mr. Minnis was asked to serve The Chestnut Ridge United Methodist Church.

Meryl and Mr. Minnis always enjoyed working in the church. For a while at Chestnut Ridge Meryl taught a Sunday School class and was very active in the United Methodist Women. Meryl was very talented in flower arrangements and for years flowers from her gardens graced the alter at Chestnut Ridge. Meryl was a devout Christian, a charming lady, kind, patient, and to know her was to love her. She was an inspiration to others to persevere and trust in The Lord. Meryl also had interests outside the church and home, as she was a faithful member of The Buckhorn Grange #1167 until her health failed. She was a member of The Hillsborough Garden Club, serving as its president for several years, and The Hillsborough Historical Society.

Meryl is survived by her husband, The Rev. Jesse F. Minnis of the home; two sons Dr. Jesse F. Minnis, Jr. of California, James Morgan Minnis of Hillsborough, N.C.; one daughter Betty Jean Minnis of Maryland; four brothers, Morton Stokes of Philadelphia, Pa.; Milton Stokes of Detroit, Mich.; Leslie Stokes of Louisville, Ky; and Curtis Stokes of Sun City, Nevada; three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Tournier of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Doris Mickey of Florida, and Mrs. Dorothy Kelly of Sun City, Nevada, and three grandchildren. Meryl's funeral was held at the Chestnut Ridge United Methodist Church, and interment was in the church cemetery.

Meryl was always faithful in the stewardship of her time and talents and used them gracefully to further the work of the church. In death as in life still thinking of others, she had requested in lieu of flowers at her funeral that memorials be made to the Chestnut Ridge Church Building Fund. The large number of contributors speaks well of our beloved Meryl. Her memory will always linger to enrich and bless the lives of all who knew her. I feel very fortunate to have known her and have been inspired by the beauty of her life and personality. Now that we have said farewell to our wonderful friend here on earth, we feel sure that she is "up there" using her many talents in helping prepare for our "reunion in the bye and bye."

MAUDE DAWSON SPENCER GRANT

Maude Dawson was born on November 25, 1889 in La Grange, N.C. in Lenoir County. She was the first born child of Andrew Lindsey and Hannah Herring Dawson, prominent land owners in Lenoir County. She grew into young womanhood in this community and attended the public schools there. In her early years she taught school in Lenoir and Jones counties. During this time she drew closer to the Lord and felt a calling for a nursing career. She entered Rex Nursing School at Raleigh in 1916. It was there that she met her first husband Capt. Flavius Fletcher Spencer, Sr. of Fairfield in Hyde County and they were married in 1918 making their home in Hyde County.

Always a devout Christian and Methodist, Maude moved her membership from the Methodist Church of La Grange to the Methodist Church of Fairfield. She was very active in the Women's Society of the church and many community activities such as the Fairfield Book Club. She was also a devoted homemaker for her family.

In 1935, after the death of her first husband, she met and married the Reverend Rufus Rhodes Grant of Williamston and Manteo. Together they continued their service to the Lord and when Reverend Grant retired they moved to Fairfield where they spent the remainder of their days.

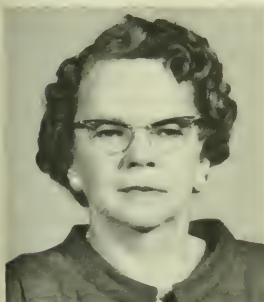

After her husband's death in 1946 Maude continued her activities and lived for serving the Lord. She suffered loss of hearing during her mid life, but still remained active. She was President of the Cemetary Circle for a number of years.

The last few years of Maude's life were burdoned with sickness and she died at Beaufort County Hospital on Christmas Day, December 25th, of 1981. The funeral service was held on December 27th in the Fairfield United Methodist Church and burial was in the Fairfield Cemetary.

She is survived by one son, Flavius Fletcher Spencer, Jr. of Fairfield, three grandchildren; two step-daughters, Beal Grant Vick of Seaboard and Minnie G. Grant of Jackson; and two sisters, Vivian D. Agnew of Wilson and Callie D. Gillikin of Goldston.

The value that Maude Grant held in her community was shown at a party honoring her on her 90th birthday in 1979. The United Methodist Women sponsored this celebration of her long life and dedication to her church and community. "To live in the hearts we leave behind is not to die."

Selma Cain Regan was born December 11, 1905 in the community of Ammon near Elizabethtown, Bladen County, N.C. Her parents, Lorenzo and Ethel Cain, were farmers, and she had five brothers and sisters. At her death, two sisters remain, Minnie Allen of Tar Heel, N.C. and Ruth Ballenger of Jacksonville, N.C. She graduated from White Oak High School and for a time attended Duke University.

On May 19th, 1926, she married James Robert Regan, who was then teaching in the public school at Ammon. Selma became the help-mate to Robert as he was called into the ministry, began and completed his seminary education at Duke Divinity School and served the North Carolina Conference from one end of the Conference to the other. For a while after their marriage, Robert was a teacher and principal in schools in Eastern Carolina. Selma also taught at the Junior Barracks of Edwards Military Institute at Salemburg and in several schools where Robert served. The Regans served the following charges: Stumpy Point; Kennakeet; Hatteras; Mattamuskeet; Mamers; Erwin; Leasburg; Troy Circuit; Pinebluff; Stem; White Memorial-Wesley, Henderson; Pink Hill; South River; Wesley Heights, Fayetteville; Ellerbe; and Glenwood, Rockingham. Retiring in 1967, Selma and Robert moved to their home in Fayetteville, where she lived till her death on December 29, 1981.

Selma was the mother of Herbert, who lives in Raleigh, and Robert, Jr., a pastor in McLean, Virginia. Herbert is married to the former Frances Cameron and Robert, Jr. to the former Jeanette Leonard. Eight grand-children and two great-grandchildren rise up to call her blessed.

Many interests captured the attention of Selma as she moved from parsonage to parsonage. She enjoyed working in the Church School, youth program with the women of the Church on the local, district and conference level. When she was thirty-four, Selma was smitten with arthritis that increasingly plagued her the rest of her life. She was a founder of the Arthritis Foundation in Fayetteville. As therapy for the arthritis, she developed an interest in painting and provided countless paintings for her home, family and friends. At her death, she still had an unfinished painting on her easel. She also enjoyed music and enhanced the music programs of the churches Robert served.

Selma trusted in her Savior with undying faith and when her body finally gave out, her funeral was a celebration of the life of one who had finished her course and kept the faith. On January 1, 1982, her funeral was conducted in Fayetteville by the Reverends Robert Moore, Warren Petteway and Fayetteville District Superintendent Paul Carruth. She was buried at Memorial Gardens in Fayetteville.

This writer was blessed to have her as his teacher in the fourth and fifth grades and can attest to her thoroughness and dedication. As a teacher, wife, mother and artist, she made significant contributions. But more importantly, in the midst of more than 40 years of suffering from arthritis, family and friends observed in Selma a quiet trust in God that was contagious.

Servant of God, well done!

Rest from thy love employ:

The battle fought, the victory won

CORRIE LEE PAGE BROTHERS

Corrie Lee Page Brothers was a loving wife, mother and tireless worker for the Lord. She was born March 13, 1893 to John W. and Margaret Crawford Page in Salisbury, North Carolina.

Following three years of study she was graduated from Watts Hospital (now Duke) school of nursing, May 10, 1918. The new nurse was soon not only caring for but about a Watts patient, namely, the Rev. Lloyd C. Brothers Sr. a 1917 graduate of Trinity College (now Duke University). They were married November 8, 1918. Together they served churches in Columbia, Bath, Erwin, Stonewall, Bailey, Robersonville, Spring Hope, Kenly, Warrenton, Oxford, Conway, Middleburg, Halifax, Rocky Mount, and Wake Forest.

To this union were born two sons; L.C. Brothers, Jr. (deceased 2-8-56) and William N. Brothers.

Following 43 steadfast years of conference service, their early retirement years were spent in Raleigh, N.C. Later they moved to California to be near their remaining son. However, for the last five years of her life, Corrie became blind and progressively bedridden by arthritis. She was cared for and waited on by her husband until an operation removing his left leg forced them to give up their apartment and share new quarters together at the Royalwood Nursing Home in Torrance, California.

It was here that she passed from this life on March 22, 1982. Interment was at Green Hills Memorial Park, San Pedro, California on March 24, 1981 with the Rev. Fred Cantrell officiating.

She is sorely missed by her family and all those who knew and shared her love.

William N. Brothers

BEULAH McNEIL MANESS
1894-1982

Beulah McNeil Maness was born April 19, 1894 in Moore County near Robbins, North Carolina, then known as Hemp, and she died on April 5, 1982 at Chatham County Hospital in Siler City, North Carolina. She was the daughter of Calvin and Sarah Leach McNeil, and she received her early education in the public schools of Moore County and at Why Not Academy and Business Institute.

On May 1, 1913, she married the Rev. William L. Maness who joined the North Carolina Conference in 1915. For Mrs. Beulah, being a minister's wife was a high and noble calling and a joyful privilege. As a dedicated couple, Mrs. Beulah and Mr. Willie served the following charges: Erwin, Parkton, Fayetteville Circuit, Siler City, Roxboro, Snow Hill, Yanceyville, Jackson, Raeford, Gibson, Hillsborough and Elm City. Mr. and Mrs. Maness retired to Siler City in 1956 after a most faithful and fruitful ministry. In Siler City, Mr. and Mrs. Maness lived a most beautiful and exemplary life in retirement; and they maintained a most active and dedicated relationship with the First United Methodist Church where great love was shared. Because of serious health problems, Mrs. Maness was forced to give up her active relationship in 1978, but her love and influence continues to live on in the lives of those who knew and loved her.

Mrs. Maness always maintained a sweet and loving disposition throughout her 88 years, although her memory failed her during the last three years. She always was supportive of her church and her family; she was the ideal wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She assumed her responsibility as a minister's wife with great dignity, humility, loyalty, faithfulness, and unrelenting encouragement and support. Mr. Willie could not have found a more devout and supportive ally in the ministry. Her warm, gentle, humble, Christian spirit captured the hearts of those who knew her over the years. No one could ever question her great love for her Lord, for her husband, for her family, and for her church. She personified the very best one could hope for in a minister's wife.

Mr. Willie and Mrs. Beulah had two daughters and three sons — Mrs. Robert Elmer of Stephenstown, New York; Mrs. Rich Cramer, Jr., of Point Pleasant, New Jersey; Dr. Paul Maness of Burlington, N.C.; William H. Maness of St. Augustine, Florida; and Edwin Maness of Stewart, Virginia. Mrs. Maness is survived by fourteen grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren. Mr. Willie, her husband, is now residing at the Oak Haven Rest Home, Route 1, Snow Camp, N.C. 27349.

Mrs. Beulah's funeral was conducted at the First United Methodist Church in Siler City, North Carolina, where she was a beloved member, by the pastor, the Rev. Travis Owen, on Thursday, April 8, 1982. She was buried in the Tabernacle United Methodist Church's cemetery in Robbins, North Carolina.

Upon the occasion of her homecoming on April 5, 1982, without doubt, the Lord said to Mrs. Maness, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant . . . Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

MARTHA LUMSDEN VICKERS
1888-1982

Martha Lumsden Vickers was born in Raleigh, North Carolina, July 23, 1888, the daughter of Charles L. and Martha Thomason Lumsden, one of twelve children. She graduated from St. Mary's School and taught in the primary grades for several years.

On April 3, 1912, she was married to the Reverend Thurman G. Vickers and they were the parents of five children: Thurman Lumsden (Bee) who died in early childhood in Southport; John Soule; Mary Kilgo; Laurence Hill; and Anne Bembury.

Hers was not an easy life, not only a minister's wife but a chaplain's wife during World Wars I and II. With each overseas' assignment for her husband, she returned with her children to Raleigh. The charges they served in the North Carolina Conference were Burgaw (as a bride), Southport, Ayden, Laurinburg, Rocky Mount, Henderson, Oxford, Lumberton, and Morehead City.

She was the lovely, helpful partner. Sometimes she was choir leader and substitute organist, playing the pump organ by ear; always she was active in the women's organizations, and entertained in her immaculate parsonage often decorated by her own hands.

Some of their charges were poor, the preachers paid in vegetables, seafood, live chickens or turkeys delivered on Christmas Eve, and an occasional blessed country ham. Martha took all this in stride. Marriage ceremonies were especially happy occasions for her because 'Daddy' gave her his honoraria to spend as she wished. Many times her young children found cherished gifts under the Christmas tree and no one knew how she had managed. Her own winter coat was mended again and the trim on her good hat changed.

Her best times as a young preacher's wife were her husband's summer vacations when the whole family rode in the ancient Buick to Lake Junaluska. There she could enjoy the companionship of other ministers' wives and still share the mountain top experiences of the faithful along with her sweetheart.

Martha had her share of heartaches. After Chaplain Vickers' sudden death in California in 1944 and John's in 1947, she moved to Lumberton to be near Mary (Mrs. H.M. Barnes) and Anne (Mrs. T.C. Phelps). She was active in the Chestnut Street United Methodist Church, particularly enjoying her work on the parsonage committee. She continued her summer vacations at Lake Junaluska as long as her health permitted.

She could no longer live alone in Lumberton after Anne and Mary died, so Laurence brought her to Harbor View Nursing Home in Morehead City to be near his family. She enjoyed visits from family and old friends and sometimes played the piano for prayer services at the home. Most of all she cherished her quiet times with Rufus Stark and Robert Nicks after Laurence's death in 1980.

Martha L. Vickers passed away quietly in her sleep May 3. She is buried between her husband and her baby son in Oakwood Cemetery, Raleigh. Mr. Stark gave a beautiful message on the special place of a minister's wife.

She is survived by one brother, Sam Lumsden of Raleigh, 10 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren, 2 sons-in-law, and one daughter-in-law.

What a beautiful homecoming there was for Martha on May 3, 1982.

Violetta Nesbit Lewis, widow of Reverend Louie A. Lewis, died May 1, 1982 in Hickory, North Carolina at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. McCloy. She was born April 12, 1907 in Morehead City, North Carolina, the daughter of William Martin and Etta Willis Lewis.

Mrs. Lewis was educated in the Morehead City public school system. After graduating, she spent some time in the home of her older brother in New York where she worked as a bank teller for several years. When she returned to Morehead City, she was very active in Franklin Memorial Methodist Church where, in 1933, she met and married her minister, Louie A. Lewis. There were four children born to this union; Louette Lewis McCloy, William Arrington Lewis, Robert Foree Lewis and Walter Owen Lewis (deceased). She is survived by her daughter, two sons, eleven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The funeral service was conducted at Franklin Memorial United Methodist Church by the Reverends Lynwood Boyette and Vance Lewis. Reverend V. Lewis and his wife, Pearl, were life-long friends of Louie and Violetta Lewis and shared many ministerial experiences with them. Interment was at Morehead City beside her family.

Violetta Lewis served faithful years with her husband and the Methodist ministry. She sang and played piano beautifully and was responsible for the choir activity of many of the young people in the churches she served. Her outgoing nature touched the lives of all who knew her. She seemed to have a God given gift with children as well as adults.

During World War II, while her husband was in service, she worked as school librarian and substitute teacher. Later, she established a kindergarten in Morehead City. The children who knew "Miss Violetta" remember this of her, "She treated me as if I were very special." She shared her musical talent, gentle words, plants, flowers and green thumb with so many.

My mother loved me! In this world of uncertainty and confused values, I always knew she loved me. She was a kind, generous, affectionate woman with a quiet way of demonstrating strength and firmness. While strongly hopeful in her faith, she was so patiently aware of human limitations and her life exemplified her conviction that God is an ever present force working through human relationships. She understood the total differentness and yet alikeness of being and that having the desire to combine these likes with the joys of solved differences, we grew together in love and understanding.

Mother was a devoted family person with a beautifully independent spirit and respect for the independence of others. She was patiently committed to the task of caring for her husband and four children but remained active in church work and in the world about her.

In spite of all life difficulties, she was possessive without the desire to control, and protective of the family institution. Always offering a caring support to all preaching efforts, she was without harsh judgement for the other's strivings or failures.

It is often so easy to know when we care for others but often difficult to know when others care for us. I still can feel my mother's caring spirit and I know that in the future years of my life I will find a comfort in that feeling. I am grateful that she took the time to share with me her own experiences of the hardships and joys of the work of loving. I thank God for the blessing of her life. She was truly beautiful.

CONFERENCE REPORTS, LEGISLATION AND RESOLUTIONS

STATE OF THE CHURCH ADDRESS, 1982

Some of you think the Conference begins today, because this is the first session in which we will transact business, hear and vote on reports, and entertain resolutions.

But really the Conference began yesterday. Then we transacted the most important business of all. We received into conference membership and ordained a large group of new ministers. They have been called by Almighty God himself to be his prophets and assigned by him to you to be your priests. As bishop and shepherd, as ruler and pastor, I laid my hands on their hands and gave them authority to fulfill their mission, but I did this, not on my own behalf, nor on yours, but as the representative of God and the plenipotentiary of Jesus Christ. My act was outward and official. The inward work was, is, and will always be done by the Holy Spirit. "The Lord pour upon thee the Holy Spirit for the office and work of a minister in the Church of God."

Without the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, a minister is just a "professional", no different from a doctor or a lawyer, a professor or a pharmacist, a scientist or a writer, an actor, entertainer, or an athlete. He or she may work with holy things, but the professional minister will never be able to effect holiness in the lives of God's people. There is a qualitative difference between a minister and a lay person. Ordination effects a change in the soul. The minister is set aside to save sinners and to nurture saints.

All of us, clergy and lay alike, are by baptism adopted by God as his children and become brothers and sisters together in the household of faith. All of us in our own way witness to the saving power of God and offer Christ to others. But the minister alone can proclaim the Word from the pulpit, interpret doctrine, and impart the Sacraments. His work is unique. And without the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, what he does is profane and sacrilegious. Rather than being a sacrament to his people, his work becomes a desecration.

Only God can make a minister. Yet the General Conference has mandated that the several annual conferences devise plans and procedures for evaluating ministers. This is a new phenomenon and its inauguration is bound to raise anxiety and concern among the clergy as well as impose upon the laity a new role, since they are to become the evaluating agency. The Board of the Ordained Ministry and the Cabinet have produced an instrument of evaluation to be used in this conference. I was appointed by the College of Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction to represent the episcopacy at the jurisdictional meeting to establish guidelines for this purpose. At that time I cautioned the group, urging it to avoid the Scylla of regimentation, on the one hand, and the Charybdis of lay tyranny over the clergy, on the other. The clergy become useless when they are stereotyped, and the uniqueness of each person and his or her special contribution are lost in the sameness of one pattern rigidly imposed upon all. The clergy become cowed and immobilized when they are forced to subscribe to the dictates of the congregation and are frightened out of any prophetic role as the spokesman of God. It will be the end of connectionalism and appointive system when churches begin to set up the criteria of ministry and the laity presume to pick and choose their pastors. That will be the death knell of Methodism. We will have lost our distinctiveness as a denomination and given up our unique position in the household of faith and lost our special portion in the wide economy of God's grace.

Therefore, I urge our lay people never to forget that their minister through our appointment is sent to them by God himself and in entertaining him or her and accepting the pastor as spiritual ruler and shepherd, they are really entertaining an angel unawares. Brothers and sisters, love your minister, heed his or her godly admonitions, follow your pastor as the emissary of Jesus Christ.

I must confess that I accept this new system of evaluating clergy with fear and trembling. I am afraid it will deteriorate into an instrument of criticism, negative criticism at that, where it will emphasize weaknesses and overlook strengths, where it will computerize characteristics and miss the character of the person altogether. Therefore, I warn the district superintendents, the Board of Ordained Ministry, and especially the Pastor-Parish Committees of the charges to use it cautiously, conscientiously, and in fear of God, considering yourselves how you would feel if you were the minister and your pastor were evaluating you.

I remember the comment of a pastor whose district superintendent had caused him to be located for ineffectiveness. "I guess I deserved it," he said to me, "and I wouldn't mind it so much but for the fact that I think it was unfair." "How could it have been unfair," I said, "since you admit you were ineffective?" "It is unfair," he replied, "because my district superintendent still has his appointment, and he is more ineffective than I ever was." I am afraid I had to agree with him.

This North Carolina Conference has succeeded admirably well with the new pension program adopted for the whole church by the last General Conference. At the time we were already in the midst of a pension drive under the old plan. We had set out to raise $3,000,000. By the grace of God and the responsiveness of our lay people, we have raised $3,350,000. Besides that, we are supporting the new plan as well, and we are doing it with amazing effectiveness.

The purpose of both plans is to provide our retired clergy with pensions that have been funded in advance of their retirement, so that they are no longer subject to the vicissitudes and changes of conference budgets affected each year by the state of the economy and the donations of our people. The capital funds we have raised and will continue to raise go into investments, the interest from which will pay the pensions of our ministers who are already retired. The yearly allocation based on a percentage of the pastor's present salary will go into investments that will pay the pensions of our present ministers when they retired. The new plan is comparable to the best retirement plans now in operation in industry, national and state governments, and the professions. A minister's retirement will be based on his earning throughout his ministry. But at the same time there will be a floor, a base pension guaranteed to everyone no matter how small his earnings may have been during his active ministry. Every minister in the future will be guaranteed no less than the national average salary for all ministers when he retires.

Up until now our system for funding pensions was little different from the way Social Security is funded. When we paid into Social Security, we thought we were paying for our own future retirement. Now we know that all we were doing was paying the pensions of those already retired. This was all right so long as the working force of the nation was large enough to keep the till full. In the early seventies, social security tax collections ran far ahead of benefit payments, so that the Social Security Trust funds ran large surpluses. Now the fund is almost bankrupt. There are just too many retired people with too many benefits for the working people of the nation to afford.

Our pension plan in contrast to Social Security, is funded in advance of retirement, so that when the minister reaches retirement age the money will already be in hand to pay his pension.

We in the North Carolina Conference placed pensions in the category of deferred salary and made pensions the responsibility of each charge and church. Since pension payments are a percentage of salary, each charge is in a better position to know what it can pay the minister and at the same time provide for his retirement than is the conference as a whole. Had we put pensions in our conference budget for outreach ministries, we as a conference would have been unable to control our budget. That budget would have gone up automatically for pension payments with the increase in salary given the minister by each local charge. Conferences that foolishly did this are suffering drastically as a result. They are having difficulty meeting their benevolent obligations. Vital causes are suffering, and important services are being curtailed.

We in this conference, in contrast, are not experiencing any of these hardships. We did set up a small emergency fund to help struggling churches. But less than a dozen charges so far have needed any help from the conference. And we are maintaining and increasing our benevolent giving, so that we are, fiscally speaking, at the top of the rung in our denomination. I know of no conference that is superior to us and very few that are our equal. By our stewardship we glorify the name of God and cause his work among us to prosper.

The measure of a church or conference is in terms of its growth. No matter what the other indicators may be, we are not really healthy unless we grow. It lies in the very nature of the church to expand. Fortunately this year, in contrast to last, the North Carolina Conference can report a net gain in church membership. All of our pastors and people are emphasizing evangelism. I read the Bishop's message in the paper of a sister conference in this jurisdiction where the bishop was congratulating his people on losing fewer members this year than in any other year since 1974. His conference is still losing, yet he is pleased that it is not losing quite as much as heretofore. That, dear friends, unfortunately is the picture of practically the whole of the United Methodist Church. But, praise God, it is not this year the picture of the North Carolina Conference. The denomination, as a whole, is on the decline, but it is not so with you. You devout lay people and godly ministers are marching upward. You are winning people to Christ, and your bishop is so very proud of you, and grateful to God for you. By your evangelistic efforts you bless God's holy name and you exalt the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior. "We praise thee, O God; we recognize thee to be the Lord."

Our gain, however, is a very modest one. We dare not be satisfied with it. Our goal should be to double the membership of this conference. Each new member we win is an additional citizen in the Kingdom of God. He is another soldier of Christ in the army at war with the devil. He has been enrolled in that school which prepares its pupils for graduation as saints.

This leads me to deplore the general state of moral apathy and spiritual deterioration in our western society and especially in the United States.

Whereas heretofore a person in public life was expected to live according to high standards of morality and decency, this no longer obtains today. What a person is in character and integrity seems to count little when the citizenry considers one for public office. Grover Cleveland, who was less than exemplary in his private morals, cynically exclaimed in his campaign for the presidency against James Blaine, who was a devout and conscientious Christian: "Elect me to public office, the duties of which I am competent to discharge, and return Blaine to private life, which by his good behavior he can adorn."

Crime is rampant in this country, and crimes of violence are on the increase day by day. At the same time, the police are almost shackled, so that they are afraid to enforce the laws for fear of being treated in the courts and by the public worse than the criminals they have apprehended. Our system of justice seems to be falling apart, so that convicted murderers under the parole system are soon on the streets again, repeating their crimes. The church, I am afraid, aids and abets this process by showing undue concern for the welfare of the murderer and little or no concern for the victim. We tend to emphasize compassion and mercy, while we disregard justice and judgment as if they were no longer attributes of Almighty God.

We need to read again St. John Chrysostom's First Letter to the Fallen Theodore, where his picture of divine retribution and punishment is as vivid and convincing as the description of heaven and its glorious rewards.

The home is now in jeopardy in modern society. The divorce rate increases every time a tabulation is made, so that before long American society will have as many divorces as it does stable and enduring marriages. The divorce rate now is almost of the married population in this country.

This moral apathy and spiritual deterioration which we see so glaringly in secular society is now, God pity us, even within the church itself. Divorce and the break-up of the home and the separation of children from a parent now victimizes the clergy. The parsonage is not immune, as it used to be, to marital disorder and family disunity. When I joined the conference, it was unthinkable that a divorced person could remain in the ministry.

Now a minister gets a divorce as readily as a lay person. He or she may separate from the spouse on the grounds of incompatibility alone, remarry, generally to another divorced person, divorce again, marry for the third time, and still expect to receive an appointment and be pastor to a congregation. And, oddly enough, the congregations seem receptive to such ministers. I realize that each case must be considered on its own merits. Sometimes a minister is the innocent victim of an intolerable family relationship, where the spouse puts personal desire and pleasure above the work of the Lord, and divorce is the least dreadful of the alternatives. One must seek to understand and to support and to conserve for Christian service such an abused and misused person. But when minister and spouse are both at fault and find that they just don't enjoy one another's company any more and each is an annoyance to the other and wants to call it quits, no matter what their separation does to the children, such a minister, in my judgment, loses thereby his effectiveness as a servant of the Word, for he preaches to others a gospel that he does not himself exemplify.

The church exists to influence the world. Too often today the world seems to be influencing the church. We are accepting the patterns of living of secular society. Women are told that the embryo in their womb is their own private property to let live or not as they choose, and abortion is being used and condoned to spare women the price of sexual promiscuity. In many, many different ways we excuse this by accepting as a legitimate life style what the Bible labels as sin.

We are substituting a concern for social issues, economic and political problems, the quest for nuclear disarmament, equal rights for women, the abolition of poverty, and the outlawing of war—important and crucial and demanding as all these issues are—for personal righteousness and rectitude, for the quality of saintliness that should adorn the life of every Christian. We can never have a good society unless we, by the grace of God, transform its citizens into good and godly people.

I realize that there are some necessary housekeeping items in any deliberative assembly such as an annual conference. We are constantly trying to improve ourselves in order to improve our people and the society about us. Consequently, there will come before us in this session pertinent and important recommendations from our standing committees and the Conference Council on Ministries. These are important and must be seriously considered. Whatever we can do to improve our conference, we must do.

However, apart from these recommendations which have been under serious study for a year, I hope this conference won't waste its time on entertaining motions brought up from the floor to restructure it, tampering with this and that in the way of its machinery. Its marvelous success this past year testifies to the adequacy of its organization. "If the thing is not broken, don't fix it." Let me urge you to leave well enough alone. Please be sparing in setting up extra-disciplinary committees, appointed to study this and that. They take time, energy, and money away from the performance of the task at hand. Let us move out in unity and strength to win souls to Jesus Christ, to nurture saints, to improve the common lot, to give people better living conditions here, as well as prepare them for the life hereafter, and to love and help and serve one another as Christ loved us and gave himself on the cross for our redemption.

Our conference is setting aside $50,000.00 to meet human suffering and need within our own bounds. The poor now are at hand, indeed, often are next door neighbors. Unemployment and the ravages of inflation are destroying the lives of so many, and they desperately need our help. I am proud to see that the action this conference has taken to meet human need locally is unprecedented, and I hope we will lead the way for all the other annual conferences in the United Methodist Church. Our Lord said, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye did it unto me."

The Spanish Communist leader Dolores Ibarruri said, "Better to die on one's feet than live on one's knees", but unfortunately, he did not know what we know—that one can never discover what life really is unless it is disclosed to him by God as he bows before his Maker on his knees. Our business as United Methodists of the North Carolina Conference is to display the Christian life in its abundance to people in the eastern half of this state and to invite them to join us in living by the power of God's grace.

"Outside the church," said Augustine, "one can find almost everything except salvation. But only in the church can one find salvation."

Bishop William R. Cannon

WELCOME TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Bishop Cannon, members of the Annual Conference and Delegates:

On behalf of the Trustees, Faculty and Staff of Methodist College, I welcome you back home to your college.

We have spent weeks getting ready for you. We've posted signs, checked and double-checked room assignments, borrowed tables, cut and trimmed grass, tuned up air-conditioning, scrubbed the cafeteria, and we've prepared for 22 special meals.

This makes my fourteenth consecutive year at a college that hosted the Annual Conference. I have often wondered what it would be like to go to Conference without having to worry about falling down curtains, air-conditioning, water lines or public address systems. Something always seems to happen. I not only believe in Murphy's Law, but I have become convinced that Murphy was an optimist. I'm sure that you all realize that all these things that have been done, I have done single-handedly. Of course, you know that my special thanks must go to the one person who puts all this coordination together here at the College. He's our Vice President, our students call him "Uncle Bill," but we know him as "Mr. Methodist College." It's Bill Lowdermilk and his crew that have made this possible.

I'm sure that we've forgotten or overlooked some things. Give us a chance—We'll put them right as best we can, if we can.

Now, a few problems. First, the parking. Please make sure that emergency vehicles such as fire trucks and ambulances can progress up and down all roads. Park in the designated areas, please. Park along the roads. If possible, please do not park on our "alleged" grass.

Second, there is a matter of energy conservation - to be specific, electrical power conservation. Our bill in 1981 was $137,267. That's an increase of $17,000 from the prior year. Therefore, I must take a moment to speak about energy. We pay for our electrical energy on the basis of "peak pricing." By this, the power company determines what 15-minute period during the past year we have used the most energy. We must then pay for 80% of that peak use for the next eleven months, regardless of how little electricity we actually use.

Last year, during the Annual Conference, we hit our peak. To be specific, it was 835 kilowatts, and it happened at 5:00 p.m. on June 9, 1981. The next highest peak occurred in September with the College in operation.

Now, the effects of that "peak pricing." During the five months of this past winter, our maximum use of electrical energy was less than 550 kilowatts at any peak time; however, we were required to pay at the rate of 668 kilowatts - that's 80% of the 835 kilowatt peak established at Conference that June 9.

Translated into dollars, it means that we've been paying $800-$1000 per month additionally to Carolina Power and Light as a demand penalty for our peak pricing use. This penalty is approximately 12% of our total monthly electric bill which ranges from under $10,000 in the winter to a high of $17,000 last June.

With your help and technical improvements made to the campus control equipment, we hope to reduce our demand from 835 kilowatt peak to 700 kilowatt peak. Last summer, we entered into a contract with Honeywell Corporation for an automated control system to maintain comfort levels in all major buildings. Temperature and humidity are controlled through a series of sensing devices tied to computers in Atlanta. The computer regulates all building temperatures and it operates a shutdown system. We have set a pre-determined level of use, then it will turn off buildings in the order we have established to see to it that our energy used does not exceed the peak which we pre-determined. Therefore, our monitors will signal as the peak approaches 700 kilowatts. Something will shut down. Help us play "Beat the Peak" or, to put it another way, "Operation 700," as we try to keep our peak demand at 700 kilowatts or less.

Now, here's the game plan. First, we're getting to cool the dormitories to about 72 degrees between one o'clock and five o'clock in the morning. Then they will gradually warm up to 80 degrees while delegates are meeting elsewhere, but they will be cooled in the evening before you retire when our peak electric use drops. Second, the cafeteria will do its cooking during its early morning hours when electric power use is low. Third, all campus buildings not in direct use by the delegates will be allowed to warm up or will have air-conditioning turned off if the consumption demand approaches 700 kilowatts. This will be the Administration Building, Classroom Building, Library and Science Building. Bishop, the coolest place on campus will be this auditorium, so you should have little problem holding this group of delegates right here.

So, let's work together to "beat the peak." Turn off lights, keep doors closed. Pray for rain or an overcast day. Dress in loose, comfortable, warm-weather clothes. Together, we can control electrical demand, and we can save Methodist College approximately $12,000.

Now, about meals: There will be two serving lines. There is no need to hurry from the Auditorium down to stand in line to eat lunch and dinner. There is approximately a two-hour break after the morning session and the beginning of the afternoon session. Visit the Snack Bar area. Talk to friends. Look at the book display. But there is no need to stand in long lines. Incidentally, there will be a serving line in the Snack Bar that will serve cafeteria menus and will accept your meal tickets.

Remember, Methodist College is designed to house and feed a maximum of 620 students. During this Conference, we will serve as many as 1,400 at one meal. Thanks to our cafeteria staff and the St. Andrews United Methodist Church, who furnished us with all the people who are serving you, we are able to do this. Please be patient with us. Remember, too, to eat and run because we can only serve 600 at one time. Furthermore, we don't have 1,400 sets of utensils.

A word of caution. Your meal tickets: Only give up meal tickets for meals that you actually eat in the cafeteria. Don't hand all your remaining meal tickets to the ticket taker on the serving line the last day in a fit of Christian enthusiasm. If you do, we have to pay for them. Please, only give up the meal tickets for meals you eat. We'll place a waste basket or something there so you can get rid of the others.

There will be problems. Let us help you. Contact me, Bill Lowdermilk, Dennis Adams or any of our staff. Ask questions. We'll try to answer you.

Now, you know last year I said, "Ask questions and we'll answer them for you," and as I walked to the back of the Auditorium to the back lobby, I was stopped by a man who said, "Dick, what's the menu for lunch?" I thought he was joking and started to laugh, but, to my shock, he was not. He was deadly serious. This time if he asks me, I'll try to find out what's for lunch. There will be questions I can't answer. Be patient with me - I'll ask Bill Lowdermilk.

Again, welcome, Let us help you to have a good Conference.

Thank you.

Richard W. Pearce, President

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

NEW ARCHIVES ROOM IN METHODIST BUILDING, RALEIGH:

The Conference Archives are now housed in a room near the main reception desk of the Methodist Building. Materials are more accessible to users, but still must not leave the room.

DEED RESEARCH CONTINUES:

Mr. Joseph Watson and the Reverend C. Franklin Grill continue the work of "abstracting deeds" for church properties in all 56 counties within the bounds of the Conference. The work, unique in Methodism, is nearing completion. Completed counties are available in the Conference Archives. Copies of particular church abstracts are available from Mr. Joseph Watson, 408 Piedmont Avenue, Rocky Mount, NC 27801. When the work is completed, the North Carolina Conference Historical Directory will be revised to include more accurate and updated information.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY:

The Society is sponsoring a competition to encourage the writing of historical papers on places, events, or persons within the Conference. An award of $100.00 will be given to the person submitting the winning paper. The procedures and guidelines can be seen at the Historical Society table in the lobby of Reeves Auditorium, or from the Reverend Morris L. Barber, president, Route 3, Box 14-A, Roxboro, NC 27573.

The Historical Society continues to award certificates to churches reaching their 100th, 150th, or 200th anniversaries. A twice-yearly newsletter is being published and mailed to the membership. Memberships are payable and renewable each year at Annual Conference.

BICENTENNIAL OF METHODISM IN AMERICA:

Plans are underway to celebrate the Bicentennial of Methodism in America during 1984. Persons with ideas or seeking information should contact the Reverend Lawrence Lugar, 4102 Neal Road, Durham, NC 27705.

JANUARY WORKSHOPS:

During the last January Workshops, classes were taught to more than 70 local church historians on the subject of local church history.

MEETINGS HELD:

The Commission met in the spring at Elizabeth Church, near Smithfield, and in the fall at Wesley Chapel, Kenansville. The Historical Society met at Salem Church, Fayetteville, and at Louisburg College. The Southeast Jurisdiction Historical Society met at Bellarmine College and St. Paul United Methodist Church, Louisville, KY, and will meet July 7-10, 1982, at Wofford College, Spartanburg, SC.

N.C. STATE COMMISSION ON CAMPUS MINISTRY 1981 ANNUAL REPORT

The calendar year 1981 was a historic one for the N.C. State Commission on Campus Ministry. This, the first full year of operation saw the two-conference commissions work diligently at developing its internal structure. During the year procedures for selecting campus ministers were established. This was fortunate because five vacancies occurred during the year. The new ministers at Appalachian State (John Magnuson), UNCC (Ben Curry), UNCG (Ron Moss), Duke (Ron Robinson), and Winston-Salem (Doug Fox) have brought renewed vigor to campus ministry in North Carolina and have helped the Commission in worship and its new policies.

The major committees of the Commission; Program, Facilities, and Finance; all worked out procedures which will make reporting more uniform, will provide greater accountability, and will enable the Commission to provide more leadership in campus ministries in the state. Contacts have been established with the appropriate district superintendents in the two conferences, and the conference staff persons assigned to the Commission have been working at developing closer ties between the campus ministers and their colleagues in ministry. Regular lines of communication have been established between chaplains on private college campuses and our campus ministers. It is hoped that their sharing will improve both forms of ministry. Contacts have been made with the officials in other denominations with whom we work in ecumenical ministries at UNCC, UNCW, N.C. Central, and Duke in order to develop a closer working relationship for the benefit of these special ministries.

The two conferences have continued to provide for the needs of campus ministry for which we are grateful. Although there is budget-tightening in all fronts, it is extremely important to maintain active ministries on these campuses. In fact, the Commission is considering ways to develop ministries on state campuses not now served as well as mechanisms to try to reach students in the two-year college campus. These plans will not be realized right away, but if we are to "go into all the world," we must be ready when the opportunities occur.

All of this talk about organization, finances, and goals should not obscure the fact that the real business of the Commission goes on. The campus ministers at all thirteen of our ministries report good years. Students are involved in a variety of activities which are related directly to the Christian faith. The vitality of the testimonies of the ministers, the students, and the directors in the annual reports this year give ample evidence that we are about the Lord's work and that we are engaged in areas of great need and great promise.

Respectfully submitted,
Clifford R. Lovin
Chairperson
N.C. Commission on Campus Ministry

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY & INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

This Commission continues to be especially proud and appreciative for the outstanding ecumenical leadership of our own Bishop William R. Cannon at the conference, national, and world levels. We congratulate, also, our own Mrs. D.K. Fry of Raleigh, who has been elected President of the North Carolina Council of Churches and Mrs. Ruth Cade of Fayetteville, who serves as a member of the General Commission of Christian Unity of the Methodist Church. Following are listed some of the activities of this Commission:

N.C. Council of Churches

The major ecumenical commitment and involvement of our conference continues to be our support for the N.C. Council of Churches, composed of the major Protestant denominations, as well as Roman Catholics, of our state. Through the years, since its organization 47 years ago in 1935, our conference has demonstrated its ecumenical loyalty by steadily increasing its financial support. For the current year, we are contributing $10,000, and for the year 1983, we have budgeted $11,000. This year, the Commission has convened the N.C. Methodist Conference delegation to the N.C. Council of Churches House of Delegates for a conversation - dialogue session with Bishop Cannon regarding the advocacy role of the delegation within our conference for the work and program of the Council and how this can be more effectively interpreted and promoted in our conference. There was also a discussion of ways and means to present more effectively, Methodist concerns and positions with the Council's organizations and programs. A decision was made to present a proposal to the 1982 Annual Conference Session to enable members of the N.C. Council House of Delegates from our conference to become ex-officio members of the Conference Commission on Christian Unity.

19th Plenary Session of the Consultation on Church Union and SEJ Workshop

On March 9-12, 1982, our Commission Chairperson attended this session at Louisville, Kentucky as an invited observer. Thirty-five Methodists were present for this 20th anniversary celebration of the Consultation. The official Methodist delegation consisted of lay and clergy delegates, including Bishop James M. Ault and Bishop Jack M. Tuell. Our conference was represented at the Southeastern Jurisdictional Workshop on Christian Unity at Scarritt College in Nashville, Tennessee, August 20-22. The Conference Commission Chairperson presented one of the talks at this annual training session for jurisdictional leaders and officers for Christian Unity.

Promotion of the Methodist Interdenominational Cooperation Fund

The Commission has promoted this special ecumenical fund, which all local churches are encouraged to support voluntarily, through articles in the N.C. Christian Advocate and distribution of the excellent interpretive leaflet: "We're all in the Same Boat—Shouldn't We Pull Together?" -available free from: United Methodist Communications, 1200 Davis Street, Evanston, Illinois 60201. This fund is a significant expression of our Methodist understanding of Christian Unity and it affirms our belief that there is much that Christians can do together that we cannot do separately. This fund channels money contributed by United Methodists into three primary ecumenical agencies which reflect our missional and theological concerns:

- The National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA
- The World Council of Churches
- The Consultation on Church Union.

The 1981-1984 goal for the I.C.F. is $1,150,000. Travel expenses are also allocated from this fund assuring that United Methodist representatives attend the meeting and participate in the decision of the World and National Council of Churches and the Consultation on Church Union.

1982-83 Church Mission Study: "Pilgrimage of Faith: Oneness in Christ"

This Commission is providing special training, in addition to the Conference Summer School at Methodist College to prepare a team of its leadership and members of the House of Delegates of the N.C. Council of Churches to teach this important mission study which deals with the Biblical and theological and practical basis for our Methodist Ecumenical concerns. Available to teach this study in local churches will be:

Rev. Joseph Mann, Raleigh, Chaplain at NCSU

Mrs. Ruth Cade, Fayetteville, General Commission on Christian Unity member

Rev. Ralph L. Fleming, Jr., Durham, Chairperson of the Conference Commission

Mrs. Robert Jerome, Smithfield, N.C. Council of Churches Delegate and former Chairperson of this Commission

Rev. Vernon Tyson, Superintendent of Wilmington District, Cabinet Representative to the Commission

Rev. Rufus Stark, Morehead City, N.C. Council of Churches Delegate

Rev. Robert Mangum, Maxton, N.C. Council of Churches Delegate

Rev. Earl Dulaney, Burlington, Secretary of the Commission

Rev. James L. Jacobs, Fayetteville, Vice-Chairperson of the Commission

Also agreeing to teach this session are:

Rev. Collins Kilburn, Raleigh, Executive Director of N.C. Council of Churches

Dr. Dennis Campbell, Duke Divinity School, Durham

Dr. Creighton Lacy, Duke Divinity School, Durham

Mrs. D.K. Fry, Raleigh, President of N.C. Council of Churches

World Council of Churches Assembly Meets in Vancouver, Canada in 1983

This gathering of Christians, under the theme: "Jesus Christ, The Light of the World", affords American Christians an opportunity to study and observe this world-wide ecumenical organization of 300 churches from over 100 countries. Local churches are encouraged to join other world Christians in Bible studies on the Assembly theme. Study materials will be available from: General Commission on Christian Unity, 475 Riverside Drive, NY, NY 10115. This Conference Commission is currently working through the Methodist General Commission and the National Council of Churches in securing delegates to the Assembly for itineration among churches in our N.C. Conference area to interpret the World Council's activities and programs.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

The date for 1983 is January 18-23. Support and sponsorship of this important ecumenical event in as many ways as possible is urged in our conference, through local church and community celebrations. Order planning and worship materials from: Graymoor Ecumenical Institute, Garrison, NY 10524.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Reports and Resolutions

The Board of Church and Society strives to provide for the connectional relationship between the General Board of Church and Society and the Conference, district and local church in relating the gospel of Jesus Christ to the members of the church and to persons and structures of the communities in which they live. The need is great for our concern and involvement in legislative and "social action." Therefore, the Board of Church and Society has prepared these papers and resolutions for your consideration.

Our Task:

(1) "To provide for church and society functions (related to the objective and scope of work of the General Board of Church and Society." (DISCIPLINE, Par. 719.1); (2) "To provide for the connectional relationship between the general board and conference, district and local church

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO STUDY CABINET REPRESENTATION ON BOARDS AND AGENCIES OF THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The 1981 session of the North Carolina Conference adopted and spread on its minutes a motion by the Reverend William C. Simpson, Jr., the body of which is stated below:

I move that the Annual Conference create a committee, the membership of which shall be appointed by the Bishop, to consider the question of the status of Cabinet representatives appointed to the various Boards and Agencies of the Conference, the relationship of these Boards through the Conference Council on Ministries, and any points of potential conflict between existing policy and practice, as well as the Conference rules, and the Book of Discipline.

In the preamble, Mr. Simpson particularized issues of debate. These centered on "the status of the Cabinet representative appointed by the Bishop to the Board of Ordained Ministry, with respect to membership, voting privileges and other participation. The confusion over this question was occasioned by the participation of Dr. Paul Carruth in the election of officers for the Board of Ordained Ministry in June 1980. Dr. Carruth maintained at that time, and has been consistent in his contention, that as a Cabinet representative appointed by the Bishop, his participation was legitimate under Conference rules and the constitution of the Council on Ministries, originally drafted and presented to the Conference of 1972. Many ancillary issues surround this question, including whether or not a Bishop may appoint voting members to Boards and Agencies who are not elected by the Conference, the advisability of appointing district superintendents who are charged with assisting the Bishop in appointment-making, overseeing the temporal and spiritual affairs of the Conference in this intense way, and thereby immersing them in partisan issues, the structural relationship of the Board of Ordained Ministry vis-a-vis other Conference agencies, and most especially the legality of anyone being appointed to serve on the Board who is not elected under the provisions of Paragraph 721.1b of the 1980 Book of Discipline. The central issue is whether or not our Conference Practice, or our Conference rules, are in conflict with The Discipline."

Findings

The Committee, having studied The Discipline of the United Methodist Church, The Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference, and having surveyed the Annual Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction finds the current practices of the North Carolina Conference are not in conflict with The Discipline of the United Methodist Church, or the rules or order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

The decision of the Committee is based on the following support material:

Paragraph 706.1 of the 1980 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church: "The Annual Conference shall structure itself for effective mission in any mode deemed appropriate. In each Annual Conference there may be conference program boards related to the general program boards organized as the Annual Conference shall determine. The Annual Conference shall provide for the connectional relationship between the general program boards and the conference, district conference and local church's conference, and shall specifically assign the program responsibilities related to the objectives and scope of the general program boards to agencies of the Annual Conference."

The Discipline clearly gives the responsibility of structuring the Program Council to each individual Annual Conference. It is, then, the responsibility of the Annual Conference to structure itself in such a manner that will best meet the needs of that Annual Conference.

The Study Committee then proceeded to a review of The Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference. The rules of the Annual Conference that speak directly to the issue under discussion are found in the 1969 Annual Conference Journal (pages 212-217) and as amended by the special session February 21, 1970 (pages 110-117), the 1971 Annual Conference Journal (pages 308-311), and the 1976 Annual Conference Journal (pages 14, 15 and 146).

In the 1972 Journal, under Section B, "Annual Conference Structure," No. 1-b-3 speaks directly to the issue before us. "One superintendent shall be assigned to each Division of a Board by the presiding Bishop in consultation with the director of the Conference Council on Ministries. The superintendent shall be a member of the Executive Committee of the Division."

The issue is further clarified in the 1972 Journal by listing the Conference Agencies and including under that the Board of Higher Education and Ministry. The current Board of Ordained Ministry, therefore, comes under the jurisdiction of the Conference Council on Ministries and the rules of the Conference Council on Ministries would then apply to the Board of Ordained Ministry.

In the matter of voting, so long as the district superintendent is named by the presiding Bishop to be on a particular Board, then that superintendent is a fully-participating member.

The right of the district superintendent to vote is further verified by a perusal of Robert's Rules of Order which governs the business of the Annual Conference beyond areas covered by the "Rules and Procedures of the Annual Conference." There was a question about a superintendent voting on the election of officers of the Board of Ordained Ministry while at the same time being the presiding officer. In a discussion on voting, Robert's Rules of Order, page 196, paragraph 46, states: "The chairman should always vote in case of a ballot." This would seem to clear up any possible confusion about the right of the presiding officer, if a member of the body, to vote in the election of officers or on all other matters.

The right of the Chair to vote is further substantiated in Robert's Rules of Order, page 258. It states: "If a member of the assembly, he (the Chair) is entitled to vote when the vote is by ballot (but not after the tellers have commenced to count the ballots), and in all other cases where the vote would change the result." It is the assumption under Robert's Rules of Order that the convener, with a specific responsibility to organize the Board, would have the same privilege as the Chair. The vote of the Board of Ordained Ministry under discussion was a vote by ballot.

While the Study Committee found that the present procedures used by the North Carolina Conference are consistent with the Discipline of the United Methodist Church, the Rules and Procedures of the North Carolina Conference, and Robert's Rules of Order, two suggestions are being made to the Annual Conference that, if made a part of the Rules and Procedures, will avoid confusion in the future:

1. That all elections in the Boards and Agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be by Roman Ballot, that is, without nomination and by ballot of those present and eligible to vote.

2. That the presiding Bishop be requested to announce the Cabinet assignments to the various Boards and Agencies at some point during the Annual Conference.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO STUDY PARSONAGE FURNISHINGS June, 1982

I. In the fall of 1980 a conference-wide letter and a series of questions related to our present system were mailed to each Chairperson of each Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, pastor and spouse requesting that they consider our policy of parsonage furnishings, and to address local issues and concerns revolving around the present system. Replies were invited and some were received.

II. With the assistance of the Conference Council on Ministries Director, Jimmy Miller, all United Methodist Annual Conferences were contacted requesting information concerning their present systems.

- A. 75 questionnaires were sent out. 62 replies were received for an 82% response.
- B. 34 Conferences used either unfurnished or partially furnished systems.
- C. 28 Conferences used fully-furnished systems.
- D. The average minimum salary was higher in the unfurnished or partially furnished systems.
- E. The average length of appointments was less than 3 years in the furnished systems.
- F. The average length of appointments was 4 to 6 years in systems that were unfurnished or partially furnished.

III. With the cooperation of each District Superintendent, Listening Sessions were held in each district during the spring of 1981.

- A. Opinions were varied and wide-ranging.
- B. Problem areas were identified.
- C. Constructive ideas and suggestions were offered.
- D. Participation varied from district to district.

IV. In the Fall of 1981, 2214 survey questionnaires were mailed to each Pastor-Parish Relations Chairperson, pastor and spouse. 887 were returned for an overall response of 40%. The questionnaire included concerns gleaned from the first mailing and the Listening Sessions. The survey questionnaire was programmed with the assistance of Herb Stout, tabulated by Computer Management Corporation, and analyzed in consultation with Dr. David Dickey, Associate Professor of Statistics at North Carolina State University. Percentages in a 40% return are valid within a range of plus or minus 3%.

A. The survey indicated the greatest concerns among clergy, spouses and laity to be:

1. Damage to furnishings and parsonages (by pets and parsonage families),
2. Responsibility for care and upkeep of furnishings,
3. Lack of funds for care and upkeep of furnishings, and lack of storage space.

B. The survey indicated that 60% of the clergy families serving in the local pastorate now own at least one room of furniture, 41% own at least two rooms of furniture and 28% own more than two rooms of furniture.

C. More than 80% of those responding indicated that the refrigerator, stove, dishwasher, washer, dryer, TV antenna, lawn mowers, living room furnishings, all window covering and floor covering be furnished by the charge.

D. 80% of the respondents indicated that pastorates longer than the present average 3 years would be more beneficial on a general conference-wide basis.

E. 56% of the respondents indicated a preference for the present system. 44% indicated a desire for alternative systems. A graph including preferences by identity, age, charge size and community size is attached. Percentage preferences by categories are listed below:

Type of System	Alternative	Present
Overall Total	44%	56%
Identity:
Active clergy	42%	58%
Active spouses	48%	52%
Laity (PPR Chairpersons)	46%	54%
Age Range:
20-34 years	59%	41%
35-49 years	48%	52%
50-65 years	32%	68%
66 and over	45%	55%
Charge Size:
300 or less members	48%	52%
300-600 members	32%	68%
600-1000 members	57%	43%
1000 or more	61%	39%
Community Size:
Rural to 500	40%	60%
500-5000	39%	61%
5000-15,000	45%	55%
15,000-50,000	58%	42%
Urban-50,000 or more	57%	43%

V. The Committee also conferred with the pastoral counselors who are referral resources provided by Pastoral Care for stressed families within our Conference, studied materials from the Southeastern Jurisdictional Consultation on Clergy Marriages, the Doctors David and Vera Mace book What's Happening to Clergy Marriages? and numerous other articles concerning parsonage systems, the itinerant system, stress factors in clergy marriages, and information concerning length of pastorates.

VI. The Study Committee has found that the parsonage system has been repeatedly identified as a "stress factor" in many clergy marriages, not only by the professional counseling services offered through our own Pastoral Care Committee, by noted authors Doctors David and Vera Mace, but also by the SEJ Consultation on Clergy Marriages held in 1981 at the Intentional Growth Center at Lake Junaluska, The Interface of Marriage and Ministry, as well as other authors of articles and papers on this topic.

VII. The Committee's information indicated that damage to furnishings is a major contributor to stress and friction between clergy and charge in the present system primarily because user (clergy family) and owner (charge) are two different parties.

VIII. Storage space is increasingly becoming a problem whenever both clergy families and the charge own furnishings for the same area. Storage problems could be greatly simplified if certain areas were designated as the responsibility of the charge and other areas the responsibility of the clergy family.

IX. All categories except two in the survey answering the questions concerning preference of system fell within the 40-60% range (see graph). There are those who wish to assume responsibility for all or some of their own personal furnishings in order to fill their personal, private and individual family needs. The 56% preferring the present system represent approximately 329 families, whereas the 44% desiring alternatives represent approximately 259 families. The larger churches, the larger communities and the younger age categories especially indicated a desire for alternatives. The smaller churches, smaller communities and the older age categories indicated a desire for the present system. The Committee's information indicates that changing needs, changing situations and changing attitudes in these areas need creative and constructive responses.

X. The Discipline states in P266-2, f, 4 "the parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as the private home for the pastor's family." Therefore, the Committee would like to make the following recommendation to address the identified issues and insure their mutual respect:

* It is recommended that the Bishop establish a Task Force of 15-18 persons consisting of clergy, spouse and laity, including a professional counselor from one of the authorized referral services for our Conference, one representative each from the Pastoral Care Committee, the Council of Finance and Administration, the Commission on Equitable Salaries, the Board of Ordained Ministry and other concerned members of the Church to address the issues and problems identified by the Study Committee, and to recommend to the Annual Conference in 1983 or as soon as possible constructive measures to meet the needs of both families and charges that desire alternatives as well as the families and charges that prefer the present system. The Committee's findings indicates that these issues are becoming increasingly pressing and distressing to a significant number of clergy families and charges, and it is our belief that a concerned and dedicated committee should seek out desirable solutions that would be beneficial to the entire Conference.

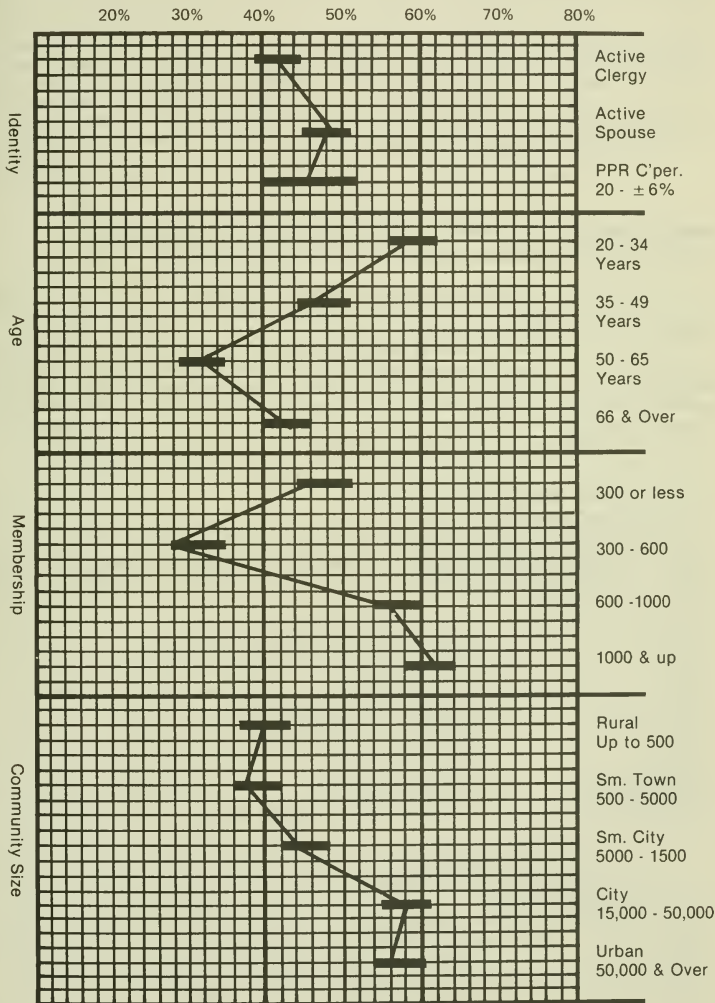

XI. The detailed information gathered by this Committee will be made available to the Task Force for their use and study, and copies will be placed on file at the office of the Executive Director of the Conference Council on Ministries to be available for study and/or use by any interested party.

GENERAL COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Report to the 1982 Annual Conference

As our conference representative on the General Council on Ministries, it is my responsibility to participate in the program planning of the General Church and to relate the North Carolina Conference to the various general programs. Currently, GCOM is monitoring what all conferences are doing in carrying out the program emphases adopted by the 1980 General Conference: the Missional Priority - Developing and Strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church, and the five Special Programs - Peace With Justice, Strengthening the Local Church for Its Evangelistic Mission in the World, World Hunger, Africa, and The Church and Campus - An Essential Evangelism. At the same time, GCOM has begun the process of planning priorities and programs to be recommended to the 1984 General Conference for implementation in the 1984-1988 Quadrennium. I will be pleased to carry to the fall meeting of GCOM any thoughts or suggestions from our Conference boards and agencies or from individuals who have ideas they believe should be shared. Appropriate communication with our Conference Council on Ministries will be most important over the next two years of planning, and there will be more information available to report at the 1983 Annual Conference.

J. Allen Norris, Jr.
GCOM Representative

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

1982 Supplemental Recommendations for Annual Conference

1. That an instrument be designed and distributed throughout the conference to assess needs, as well as existing programs in the area of Family Ministries to be implemented by Task Force on Crisis in Family Life.

2. That two Conference-wide events be held to focus on Family Life in the Ethnic Minority Local Church, one for Black Churches and the other for Native American churches to explore their unique concerns in this vital area. To be held in late spring or early fall of 1982 in the Rockingham District or Fayetteville for Black churches and in Rockingham District for Native American churches, in consultation with the EMLC Committee. To be implemented by the Task Force on Crisis in Family Life.

IV. POLICY

1. That the pastor's report at Charge Conference shall include a report on church-wide mission study provided by Conference Staff as a separate report form. To be implemented by the pastor.

2. That a list of persons (lay and clergy) with handicapping conditions be given by pastors to the Cabinet and the Conference Committee on Nominations for consideration for agency membership.

B. EDUCATION, BOARD OF

1. That the camp directors be encouraged to coordinate the use of camp facilities with other agencies whose programs are not contrary to The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church.

2. That the Board of Education endorse the utilization of the United Methodist children's logo as the official logo for the Children's Ministry in the North Carolina Annual Conference.

3. That the United Methodist Publishing House editors or writers be asked to develop curriculum for use with persons with special education needs. To be implemented by the Board of Education.

4. That the Coordinator of Camping Ministry in cooperation with the Board of Education shall recruit EMLC applicants for Camperships.

5. That the Board of Education shall recruit and train three to four consultants to work in local churches with teachers of children in ministries for/with children.

C. HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES, BOARD OF

1. That the Thanksgiving season be designated as a period of publicizing and promoting the church's ministry to children through the Methodist Home for Children.

2. That the week of May 1, 1983 be designated as a period of publicizing and promoting the church's ministry to senior citizens through the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

3. That the Methodist Home for Children investigate the possibilities of providing in its new ministries some facilities for serving youth with handicapping conditions.

D. MISSIONS, BOARD OF: That the following projects shall be adopted for special emphasis as Advance Specials for 1983:

a. World Division

1. Missionary Salary Support

2. (a) African Church Growth and Development Program. Code No. 00823-O-H-T.

(b) African Church Growth and Development—Leadership Development—008233-O B-T.

(c) African Church Growth and Development—Evangelism—008233-O A-T

(d) African Church Growth and Development—Establishment of new churches and repairs to damaged churches—008233-O A-N.

3. Liberia: Church Growth and Development, Code No. 005712-O R-A.

5. Nigeria: Women's Leadership Training Program. Code No 0077893-1 R-A.

6. Zaire, Southern Conference: Kimbulu Kayeka Theology School Scholarships. Code No. 005773-r R-A.

7. Zaire, Central Conference: River boat for the Congo River. Code No. 008092-3 H-O. Road conditions as well as other forms of transportation have become so broken down that the river offers best and most economical opportunity of getting goods upriver to many of our interior stations.

8. Zimbabwe: Post-War Emergency Aid for Pastors. Code No 007949-1 R-A.

9. Las Pinas United Methodist Church, Manila, Philippines. Code No. 008309-4 A-N. Sixty-nine family units with an average attendance of 85 school-age children are meeting under a carport every Sunday. They need assistance in construction of a multi-purpose unit in a suburban area of Manila.

10. Extension of Mecosabagh High School in Nagpur, India. Code No. 007232-O B-N. The present school building has become inadequate to accommodate the ever-increasing number of students. The needs are for more classrooms, expansion of drinking water and toilet facilities, places for indoor and outdoor sports.

11. Renovation of churches in Barbados. Code No. 007956-O A-N. This is a project in partnership with congregations.

12. Repair of homes, church and school, Dominican Republic. Code No. 982-875. This is for assistance in repair of buildings, which were damaged extensively by Hurricane David.

13. International Nursing Services Association. Code No. 006504-O R-A. Nursing training specifically designed to meet needs in developing nations.

14. UMOVIM, SEJ. Code No 00823208 R-A. United Methodist Volunteers in Mission coordinates, facilitates and provides orientation for short-term volunteer groups for services in the U.S. and overseas.

15. The United Methodist Children's Fund for Christian Mission. Special opportunity for gifts from children. Projects are chosen to alleviate the suffering of children. Funds contributed are divided equally among four projects chosen each year. Funds are remitted through the Conference Treasurer, designated "Children's Fund for Christian Mission."

16. Youth Service Fund: the mission fund sponsored and supported by United Methodist Youth. Funds are remitted through the Conference Treasurer, designated "Youth Service Fund."

b. National Division

1. Hinton Rural Life Center, Program. Code No. 731372-2. This is a leadership training center used by United Methodists of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Many of our North Carolina pastors and laypersons have received training here.

2. Hinton Rural Life Center Renovation. Code No. 731374-4. For the construction of units for small groups and to repair existing buildings.

3. Robeson County Church and Community Center, Code No. 79174-O. This is a unique ministry, involving a tri-racial population of 91,000 in the County of Robeson, here in North Carolina. The Center in Robeson County influences surrounding counties.

4. Red Bird Mission, Kentucky. Code No 773726-2. This is a hunger-related project. A comprehensive mission program in the rural mountain area of Southeast Kentucky helps alleviate poverty.

5. United Methodist Volunteers in Mission, SEJ. Code No 982875-6. This is the National Division channel for directing funds to this ministry. United Methodist Volunteers in Mission coordinates, facilitates and provides orientation for short-term volunteer groups for services in the U.S. and overseas.

6. Cherokee United Methodist Church, Cherokee, N.C. Code No 7311448-8. This congregation is 90% Cherokee and 10% black and white. This church as an active outreach ministry to the native American community.

c. World Hunger: Special Program of the General Church. The focus of program is: (1) assistance in food production; (2) analysis of root causes of hunger; (3) experimentation and research on methods of addressing domestic hunger problems; and (4) heightening awareness of endemic hunger in the U.S. and of root causes of hunger. Projects especially recommended are:

— Martin Cardenas Vocational High School, Bolivia. Code No. 985204-O. This high school is instrumental in the self-development of rural people of Altobeni. It provides trainees who are then able to pass along their knowledge to other villagers.

— North Carolina State University Wesley Foundation Soya Project. Code No. 985788-4. This project is to introduce soy beans to the diet of pre-school children in Bolivia. Target populations have been Methodist Church groups in Bolivia. The Wesley Foundation at N.C. State University sends a team of university staff members and students to act as consultants and resource persons.

d. UMCOR (Emergency Relief). Code No. 982-450-8. For a listing of individual projects to which funds can be directed, contact the Conference Missionary Secretary.

e. UMVIM, SEJ. Code No. 901875-5. This is the UMCOR channel for remitting funds to this ministry. United Methodist Volunteer in Mission coordinates, facilitates and provides orientation for short-term volunteer groups for services in the U.S. and overseas.

f. Conference Advance Specials

1. Beach Ministries. These are now being offered in at least six locations of our Conference and need support from us.

2. Conference Mission Work Team. These funds will help with the expenses of short-term volunteers who go to sites in the United States and overseas to assist with construction or meeting physical or spiritual needs of the people.

3. United Methodist Camps. The North Carolina Conference has an excellent camping program, with camps at Camp Don Lee, near Arapahoe, at Rockfish, near Fayetteville, at Camp Chestnut Ridge, near Efland, and at Kerr Lake. These funds help with scholarships and with meeting other needs of the camping program.

4. District Mission Societies (Para. 718.4, 1980 Discipline). District Mission Societies may be organized within a district to meet needs in the area of church extension and missionary needs within the district.

5. Wesley Foundations: UNC, Chapel Hill; ECU, Greenville, NCSU, Raleigh; Pembroke State, Pembroke. Funds given to this Conference Advance Special assist United Methodist ministry at these institutions of higher education.

6. District Christmas Offering. This fund is supervised by the District Superintendent.

7. Isa Grant Scholarship Fund. To provide volunteer work team scholarships for persons who could not otherwise participate in a work team experience.

(The figures that follow are goals of the North Carolina Conference.)

8. Ethnic Minority Local Churches and projects

(a) Black Churches and projects:

(1) Walnut Terrace Child Care Development Program, Raleigh — $2,000

(2) Hamlet: St. Peter — $3,000. Funds are needed to help congregation pay for new parsonage.

E. PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

1. That professional help for personal, marital, or family problems of ministers under appointment in the North Carolina Conference and their families shall be made available through the following agencies certified by the American Association of Pastoral Counselors: Carolina Counseling Center, Inc., Raleigh

Fayetteville Family Life Center

Life Enrichment Center, Raleigh

Pastoral Care and Counseling Institute of Durham, Chapel Hill, Inc.

Presbyterian Personal and Family Life Center, Wilmington

Tidewater Psychiatric Institute, Norfolk, Va.

This service is also available through the following individual counselors certified by the A.A.P.C. or the American Association of Family and Marriage Therapists:

The Reverend Leo C. Thompson (Triangle Mental Health Associates, Raleigh)

The Reverend James A. Tingle (Coastal Counseling, Inc. New Bern)

The Reverend Julie B. Forringer (Family Counseling Service, Durham)

This professional assistance is available through referral or on a voluntary basis, with a portion of the cost to be assumed by the Committee on Pastoral Care. The Committee will assume a total of $250.00 per family, per calendar year, which will include up to $30.00 for the first visit and up to $25.00 for testing. The remainder of the amount from the $250.00 limit is to be used to pay one-half of the cost of each additional visit the appropriate limit is reached. The names of those receiving this help will be anonymous with the submitted bills stating only that "a minister" (and/or his/her family) has been to the agency or the individual counselor.

That Pastors and their families having financial problems be encouraged to seek professional help (at no cost) through Consumer Credit Counseling Service in Raleigh or Wilmington.

F. STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

1. That the Pastor Parish (Staff) Relations Committee in the local church shall consider offering the following benefits to its non-ordained staff members; (1) Pensions; (2) Insurance (health, life, disability); (3) Leave (vacation, sick, maternity/paternity).

2. That each local ethnic minority local church shall consider electing women to leadership positions which have been traditionally held by men such as Chairperson of Administrative Board, Lay Leader, Trustee, Lay Member to Annual Conference.

3. That local ethnic minority females be made aware of opportunities in Church Related Vocations. To be implemented by the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Board of Diaconal Ministry.

4. That ethnic minority local churches shall consider inviting female ethnic minority ministers to participate in special worship experiences.

5. That the North Carolina Conference shall consider providing child-care services at all Conference events.

6. That local churches and districts consider providing child-care services at all events, including retreats, rallies, leadership events and worship services.

G. HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

1. That the Board of Higher Education maintain liaison with the North Carolina Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, the Western N.C. Conference, other denominations, and other interested organizations for the purpose of maintaining a unified position on aid to students attending private colleges in N.C.

2. That local churches through the Work Area on Higher Education and Campus Ministries, the Council on Ministries, the Administrative Board, and individual members communicate to members of the North Carolina General Assembly, the Board of Governors of the University of North Carolina, the Governor, and the Lt. Governor—the desirability of having annual increases in the level of support for students attending private colleges and universities in North Carolina.

H. ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

1. That each local church shall have a Committee on History, with the chairperson as a member of the Administrative Board, and the committee relating to the local church Council on Ministries. (Archives & History)

2. That each local church shall prepare its history and deposit a copy in the Conference Archives (at the Methodist Building, Raleigh) by Annual Conference, 1984.

(We offer as a minimum guideline for accomplishing this the collection of "raw" data through the tape recording of conversations of the recollections of long-time members of each church, which tapes can be transcribed into print. We are also making available, on request, the very fine handbook on writing local church history, prepared by the General Commission on Archives and History.) (Archives & History)

3. That each local church shall consider submitting its historic documents for microfilming at the North Carolina State Department of Archives and History, at "William S. Price, Jr., Director, Division of Archives and History, NC Department of Cultural Resources, Raleigh, NC 27611." (Rationale: deeds, founding documents, early quarterly conference records, and other memorable items in print are too valuable to keep in only one copy. The State Department of Archives and History is experienced in handling of such items, and there is no cost to the church unless it wants a copy of the microfilm.) (Archives & History)

RATIONALE FOR PROPOSED STAFF STRUCTURE

North Carolina Conference Council on Ministries, The United Methodist Church

History of Proposal

At Annual Conference, June 8, 1981, James H. Coile proposed an amendment to the Charter of the Conference Council on Ministries. His motion called for a staff of four: three Associate Directors and an Executive Director. The Council on Ministries would align staff responsibilities for the new arrangement by June 1982. When the Coile motion was brought off the table on June 9, 1981, R.T. Commander moved a substitute which was approved. It called for a study of the Coile motion, the present structure, and others, by the Executive Committee of the Council on Ministries. The Executive Committee is to report to the Council and with Council approval is to bring a plan for Conference Council on Ministries staff structure to the 1982 Annual Conference.

At the June 29, 1981 meeting of the Council on Ministries, Paul Carruth moved five actions to facilitate the work of the Executive Committee. They were approved: (1) Boards and agencies study and report to the Personnel Committee for evaluation and referral to the Executive Committee their ministries which require the service of program and support staff; (2) program staff engage in self-study; (3) Executive Committee be authorized to employ an appropriate consultant; (4) Executive Committee be authorized to follow avenues opened up by the recommendations of the consultant; (5) Executive Committee bring its final report to the Council on Ministries for action.

Pursuant to these directions and recommendations, the Executive Committee has met on October 29, 1981, January 29, 1982, February 19, 1982, March 19, 1982, and April 22, 1982. On April 23, 1982, it brought its recommendations to the CCOM, which approved them for recommendation to the Annual Conference.

Procedure for Developing the Proposal

The Executive Committee has (1) indicated the appropriate functions of the Conference Council on Ministries staff, (2) identified the expectations that this Annual Conference has of its CCOM staff, (3) reviewed the present staff structure, (4) considered how other annual conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction are organized, (5) explored a variety of staff configurations, and (6) prepared a recommended structure.

A primary assumption of the proposal is that the form of the staff should follow the appropriate staff functions. To this end, the Executive Committee has described staff function in relation to Local Church, District, and Annual Conference.

Each staff member submitted a statement of present duties with estimates of how time was divided among the responsibilities. The staff also offered a possible plan for re-alignment of structure. Each Conference Board or Agency prepared a statement indicating its requirements for program or support staff. The Cabinet suggested a way Conference staff could be organized to meet Conference needs and priorities. Twelve annual conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction provided designs of their organizational structure, often with comments on "how it is working". The Executive Committee also referred to the Book of Discipline, the Charter of the Conference Council on Ministries, the Manual on Conference and District Council on Ministries, the Coile motion, and the Commander substitute. Representatives of the Cabinet, the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Board of Trustees, and the Methodist Foundation appeared before the Executive Committee in response to the Council on Ministries request that membership of non-program agencies be studied.

Biblical and Theological Considerations

The Executive Committee has made the same assumptions that undergird the ministry of the Annual Conference: a responsibility to equip the saints for ministry and to be about the mission of the church as a presence of Jesus Christ in eastern North Carolina and beyond.

Ingredients in the Rationale for the Proposal

1. Evangelism and Church Growth is recognized as the major thrust of the program and is accorded an increase of staff time from 10% to 35%.

2. By suggesting how time is allocated for each staff position, the plan allows flexibility in making staff assignments. This can safeguard against overloading one staff member and underutilizing another, particularly when re-alignments are made as personnel change.

3. Children's ministry has been understaffed for some years; the plan represents a substantial increase in staff time for this work.

4. As suggested by the Coile motion, the staff positions are to be called "Associate Directors" and Executive Director". This undergirds a principle that the Associate Directors are extensions of the Executive Director's office.

5. Again as noted in the Coile motion, the use of the title "Associate Director" for all positions (excluding Executive Director) will help to avoid "second class citizenship" among staff members and will give a description more nearly commensurate with a Conference-wide position.

6. The salary structure affords the Personnel Committee flexibility in choosing the best possible persons for these staff positions. We shall be able to encourage persons at any salary level to accept these opportunities. The positions should be attractive to persons at various stages of ministerial careers and/or lay service.

7. The re-alignment of responsibilities has been done so as to encourage staff members to recognize direct local church contact as part of their job descriptions (10%) and to identify relationships with District Councils on Ministries as standard (5%).

8. Generally the plan gives Associate Directors some undesignated time ("Other"), in order to allow added attention to priority items (which may change from time to time), in order to facilitate taking part in emerging possibilities, and in order to support participation in Jurisdictional and General Church activities.

9. Ministerial Relations is viewed as primarily a service office, not a programming office. It deals with matters of ministerial relations and concerns; therefore, in some measure, it is an extension of the Bishop's office (para. 502.3, 513.4, 514). The Executive Committee sees the Director of Ministerial Relations as working chiefly with items beyond the purview of the Conference Council on Ministries and feels that this position should not be a part of the CCOM staff. More appropriately, the Director of Ministerial Relations should be supervised by the Bishop's office.

10. To effect the Church's mission as an Annual Conference, to offer and extend the quality of program already developed within this conference, to make personnel resources available to local churches at an appropriate level, and to allow manageable "portfolios," the Executive Committee recognizes the need for six Associate Directors and one Executive Director.

PROPOSED STAFF STRUCTURE

A. Council on Ministries Staff

1. The Conference Council on Ministries staff consists of an Executive Director and six Associate Directors with these recommended functions:

(The numbers represent a possible percentage division of staff person's time. The Staff Personnel Committee shall make recommendations to the CCOM concerning the delineation of areas of responsibility of the staff members in consultation with the Executive Director -CCOM Charter).

Executive Director: Administration and other (SEJ COM, Cabinet, Calendaring and Liaison with non-program agencies, especially Ministerial Relations) 48; Higher Education 10; Health and Welfare 10; EMLC 12; Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns 5; CCOM 10; Local Church 5 - (is assigned responsibilities for relationship with non-program agencies, agencies with conference institutions (other than camps), missional priorities and ecumenical relationships representing the North Carolina Annual Conference.)

Associate Director: Evangelism and Church Growth 35; Stewardship 15; Worship 5; Education 10; FUMWMOA 5; Diaconal Ministry 5; CEF 2; COSROW 3; Local Church 10; District 5; Other 5 - (brings together, by and large, the concerns of the Board of Discipleship. Of special importance is combining Evangelism and Education in one office, giving emphasis to the reality that these are not competitors but companions for a common cause.)

Associate Director: Missions 20; Missions, Inc. 30; Ten Dollar Club-Church Extension 8; Hunger 2; Church and Society 15; Religion and Race 10; District 5; Local Church 5; Other 5 - (gives focus to the societal ministries).

Associate Director: Laity (January Workshops) 18; Leader Development (Conference Summer School) 24; Adult and Family 5; Children 25; United Methodist Men 3; United Methodist Women 5; Local Church 10; District 5; Other 5 - (combines the work of the lay organizations and the development of lay leadership).

Associate Director: Communications-Video-Coordinated Mailings-Media Center-Public Relations- Interpretation 65; Archives and History 10; Local Church 10; District 5; Other 10 - (works with both internal and external communications for the Annual Conference).

Associate Director: Camping and Outdoor Ministries 73; Scouting 2; District 5; Local Church 10; Other 10 - (has responsibility for these programs. Vis a vis other conferences, we have such a substantial camping ministry that nearly full-time attention is required).

Associate Director: Youth 70; Young Adult 5; District 5; Local Church 10; Other 10 - (deals with these program areas).

2. Salary of Associate Directors will be set individually at no more than 90% of a District Superintendent's salary.

B. In June 1983, the Associate Director of Ministerial Relations be removed from the Conference Council on Ministries staff, and be combined with title and responsibilities of Administrative Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Ministerial Relations, to be under the direction of the Bishop. (Ordained Ministry 30; Pensions 30; Equitable Salaries 5; Disability 5; Conference Brotherhood 2; Administrative Assistant to Bishop 28)

CCOM EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE:

Bishop William R. Cannon

TASK FORCE ON CRISIS IN FAMILY LIFE

With the assistance of the North Carolina Conference Council on Ministries and the Council on Finance and Administration, the Task Force has moved toward implementing recommendations approved by the 1981 Annual Conference Session.

Need and Program Assessment

In the fall of 1982, the Task Force will design and distribute an instrument which will assess needs as well as determine the existence of programs in the area of Family Life Ministries within the North Carolina Annual Conference.

EMLC and Family Life

The Task Force will also sponsor two Conference-wide events which will focus on family in our ethnic minority local churches. One event will be for black churches and will be held in Fayetteville or some location in the Rockingham District. The other event will involve Native American churches and will be held in the Rockingham District. The Task Force is eager to explore the unique concerns of our ethnic minority local churches and listen to the needs expressed by these church members within our Conference.

Youth, Evangelism and Family

In 1983, the Task Force, through efforts of a study and design team, will develop ministry models for ministry with youth in the area of family life as well as models for utilizing the family as a unit of evangelism within the local church, districts, and the North Carolina Annual Conference. These designs will be presented in a conference-wide event.

Grant Proposals

The Family Life Committee of the United Methodist Church in Nashville, Tennessee, offering seed money grants to support the development of experimental/innovative projects in family ministries. The Task Force has presented two proposals to the committee.

Family Enrichment:

The first proposal designed for ministry to families who have children who are in or near adolescence (fifth, sixth, seventh grades) entitled Family Enrichment: Preparing for Adolescence. This pilot project will be held in at least one of the Districts of the Annual Conference in the spring of 1983. The Task Force recognizes the tremendous pressures placed on families when children are entering adolescence and seek to minister to their needs.

Ministry to Temporarily Single

The second proposal involves a design team preparing for a consultation/forum to be established to explore the needs of those persons who are separated or temporarily single due to military service, business demands, schooling and/or hardship separations including imprisonment, health care, and economic circumstances. Many persons are legally married but must function as singles in these circumstances.

Consultation forums will enable the Task Force to develop a ministry model which will reach out to the separated and temporarily single. Consultation forums will be held in Fayetteville, Goldsboro, Raleigh/Durham and/or New Bern in 1983.

Jurisdictional and Regional

The Task Force encourages wide participation among clergy and laity in two Jurisdictional and Regional events. The Southeastern Jurisdiction Convocation on Family Life, July 15-18, 1982 at Lake Junaluska Assembly, entitled A Family Gathering, Diversity and Unity. This is an event for the entire family.

The Task Force also encourages Adult and Family leaders, especially from the local church to participate in a regional Adult Ministries Conference, October 21-24, 1982 at Lake Junaluska Assembly entitled Take A Dare: Do Adult Resourcing for the 80's. Workshops, Keynotes, Worship, Ministry Fair, Devotionals, Plenary Sessions and Resources will speak to adult and family needs within our churches.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

Diaconal Ministers

Lay persons who work full time, twenty-one hours or more per week, for the church, who have met the educational and personal standards, can become Diaconal Ministers in the United Methodist Church. It is the ultimate commitment of a lay person called into full time service to the church.

At the present time, there are 19 Diaconal Ministers in the North Carolina Conference. We have received into candidacy to be consecrated in 1983 Ann Marie Glisson and Wayne Douglas Powers.

Certified Professionals

The Board of Diaconal Ministry has had a most successful year maintaining the certification of 15 Directors of Music, 10 Directors of Christian Education, 2 Associates in Education and one Minister of Education. We are recommending Ann Marie Glisson as a Director of Christian Education.

This committee has worked closely with each of these persons maintaining high levels of professional work and spiritual growth. We have also given support to persons in the certified area of Business Administration and in United Methodist Home Administration.

Service

Diaconal Ministers in the North Carolina Conference serve in the following areas of work and ministry: Music, Business Administration, Education, Retirement, Home Administration, and Church Programs Director and Diaconesses.

Chairperson

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The ultimate commitment of a lay person called into full time Christian Service in the church is fulfilled when that person is consecrated a Diaconal Minister. These persons are required to fulfill the requirements of theological, academic, and personal work. Following this process, they are recommended by their Charge Conference and approved by the Conference where consecration takes place.

At the writing of this report, there are 19 Diaconal Ministers in our Conference. We have received into candidacy to be consecrated in 1983 Ann Marie Glisson and Wayne Douglas Powers.

We are recommending Ann Marie Glisson as a Director of Christian Education.

The Board of Diaconal Ministry has had a good year maintaining the certification of 15 Directors of Music and 10 Directors of Christian Education. Two Associates in Education and one Minister of Education also have been under our supervision. The Committee works in a supportive way with one Business Administrator and one Methodist Homes Administrator.

JOINT COMMITTEE ON DISABILITY

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate of those ministers in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each minister seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1982 session of the North Carolina Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any minister to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the minister, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference Session.
2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require physiological and psychological examinations when deemed necessary by the committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the committee, and in such a case the committee may share the expense of the examination in an amount not to exceed $100.00.
3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each application for Disability Leave submitted by ministers of the Conference to determine the recommendation of the minister's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the minister's disability. The medical reports will be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pensions for an interpretation of the minister's disabling conditions. The General Board's medical consultant will determine if the minister is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection plan. From July, 1981, to December, 1981, disability benefits were paid through new coverage under the Disability and Survivor Benefit Fund of the General Board of Pensions as adopted by the 1981 Session of the Annual Conference. Beginning on January 1, 1982, disability benefits from the General Board of Pensions were transferred to coverage under the new Comprehensive Protection Plan.
4. We recommend that ministers who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection may be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Emergency Relief Fund. The Joint Committee on Disability in reviewing the minister's application may determine that a short-term leave with benefits equal to (or less than) those provided by the Comprehensive Protection Plan. This could include a monthly benefit based on 40% of the Denominational Average Salary and the cost of the minister's coverage under the Conference insurance program of hospitalization and life insurance.
5. We recommend that an interim monthly grant of $250.00 will be made for the first five months a minister is granted Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan. This grant would be terminated during the five months period if the minister began to receive Social Security benefits.
6. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each minister on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the minister's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the minister to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Emergency Relief Fund will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.
7. We recommend that the expenses of travel, telephone, postage, and other materials for the committee be paid from the Emergency Relief Fund.
8. We recommend the following minister to be placed on Disability Leave for the first time:
Wallace Bradford Lewis (AM) (Kinston) Board of Pensions support
9. We recommend the following ministers to be continued on Disability Leave:
Paul Wesley Evans (AM) (Rocky Mount) Board of Pensions support
Fletcher W. Fraley (AM) (Mamers) Board of Pensions support
Rembert Charles Hamilton, Jr. (Wilmington) Board of Pensions support
Charles Graham Nickens (Goldsboro) Board of Pensions support
Evander Parnell (AM) (Lumberton) Board of Pensions support
George William Ports, Jr. (Mebane) Board of Pensions support
Luther Vernon Wesley (AM) (Creedmoor) Board of Pensions support
John Everette Wood (Aberdeen) Board of Pensions support

10. We recommend that ministers and congregations in the communities in which our disabled ministers reside seek to establish a supportive relationship with those on Disability Leave to maintain good fellowship and provide for pastoral opportunities. It is further recommended that housing needs and other special problems of our disabled ministers be considered by these congregations and communities in the light of the contribution made to our United Methodist Church by those on disability during their years of service. We can all become better stewards of the gift of life and skill as we share in this ministry of caring and concern.

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

Bishop Cannon and members of the Conference: thirteen Superintendents have labored and collaborated, and I am happy to bring this report to you and to all our people on their behalf. My colleagues would have me express to Bishop Cannon and to the Conference our gratitude for the privilege of serving our Lord and his Church through the office we hold. We are our Lord's servants and yours, and we pray that our life and official administration have been worthy of your trust and His. We remember Paul Carruth and other ministerial members of our Conference, and ministers' spouses, who have been promoted since we assembled last. Dr. Carruth was the gifted Superintendent of the Fayetteville District and a most valued member of our Cabinet. We have deep and abiding appreciation for that versatile W. Junius Neese, who assumed leadership of the Fayetteville District and, with the assistance of Mrs. Carruth, served that district and its concerns quite well over the past several weeks.

Ours is a great Annual Conference in many ways. We have a great episcopal leader, and we rejoice that last summer our Bishop Cannon was elected President and Chairperson of the Executive Committee of the World Methodist Council. As the chief executive officer of that body which brings together sixty-three member churches in the Methodist tradition from ninety countries of the world to express our common ideals and objectives, and to promote unity among people of Wesleyan heritage, he is the leader of Methodists all over the world; and he is our Bishop.

We have great clergypersons. Most are pastors in charge who preach the Gospel and feed the church of Christ. A splendid class was ordained Elder and received into Full Membership last evening. We welcome them into one of the greatest professions in the world, the United Methodist ministry. Later today, we will recognize those who have served their time and are retiring. Tomorrow we will remember those who died, some who were still on the battlefield. If we're coming, if we're continuing, or if we're going; its a great profession. It is great because it serves; and we bid all those who are joining our ranks to come and serve.

We have some great laypeople. They are in churches of small membership and churches of large membership and many in between. They are in cities, towns and in the countryside. They love the Lord; they love His church; and they meet together in congregations to share a common life to hear a word from the Lord, and they go out to make that common life and that living Word relevant in their day-by-day existence. They are great because they serve; and when we receive persons into the membership of our church, we bid them come and serve. They serve through United Methodist Women and Youth organizations that are going from strength to strength and a United Methodist Men's organization that has taken on new life in our conference.

A great leader, great clergypersons and great laypersons do great things for God and his kingdom. Last May, Bishop Cannon reminded us that in 1979, the Conference set a goal for net growth in membership of 19,000 by 1984. At the close of 1979, we reported 212,653 full members. At the close of 1980, we reported 212,328 full members, a decrease of 325. We reversed that trend in 1981 and Brother Traynham will report to this session that, at the close of 1981, we reported 212,799 full members, an increase of 471 over 1980. We rejoice at the increase. While we are far, too far, from our goal, we are not discouraged. We will move with vigor to reach and exceed our goal, not for the sake of reaching a goal but for the sake of Jesus Christ whose we are and who sent us to preach the Gospel to every creature in our boundary and in all the world. That's evangelism. We will not overlook the role of the church school in our evangelistic task; we dare not as 2,466 church school members were among the 3,493 persons received in 1981 on Confession of Faith or Restored.

Evangelism and mission are bound up together and, in our effort to proclaim the Good News, we have not neglected to put that Word into action by surveying and responding to the needs of our communities, our regions, our nation, and our world. Mission Saturation Events have been held in our districts with local, national and world interpreters. We have responded with our time, our talents and our resources. Our people have participated in Work Teams in districts, across district and conference lines, and the Raleigh District sent a Work Team to Spanish Town, Jamaica, West Indies. Several churches and clusters of churches have sponsored refugee families during the year. The Goldsboro District established the Duplin Hispanic Ministries Steering Committee to respond to the needs of approximately 10,000 migrant and 2,000 permanent Hispanic people in the area. Raleigh District ministers and their families worked a "sweet potato patch," often referred to as "Ponder's Folly," and netted about $600.00 to be used for mission projects.

The Fayetteville District accepted 100 percent of its Outreach Ministries Apportionments for 1981. The Elizabeth City and Rocky Mount Districts have accepted 100 percent or more of their Outreach Ministries Apportionments for 1982. We have a heritage and legacy of good stewardship under the capable leadership of our Council on Finance and Administration, and our financial program as a conference is highly regarded across the church.

Church buildings or parsonages were dedicated at Bethel Church in Caswell County and Leasburg in the Burlington District; Mt. Zion and Manteo in the Elizabeth City District; Roseboro in the Fayetteville District; New Hope and Providence in the Goldsboro District; Pleasant Grove, Hollands and Gillburg in the Raleigh District; Southern Pines and Wadeville in the Sanford District; and Jordan's Chapel in the Wilmington District.

New and renovated church buildings were opened and consecrated at Glendale Heights, Parkwood, Long Memorial and Zora in the Durham District, Hatteras, Hertford and Moyock in the Elizabeth City District; Salem in the Fayetteville District; Brogden, St. Luke and Turkey in the Goldsboro District; Northwoods and Franklin Memorial in the New Bern District; Providence in the Raleigh District; Sandy Plains in the Rockingham District; St. Paul in the Rocky Mount District; Merritts' Chapel in the Sanford District; and St. Paul, Tabor City in the Wilmington District.

Building projects were planned, or underway at Bethel, Alamance County in Burlington District; Mt. Bethel and Mt. Sylvan in the Durham District; Chowan, Edenton, Pilmoor Memorial, Perkins, Tyrell and Wanchese in the Elizabeth City District; Gardner, St. Andrews, Epworth and Union in the Fayetteville District; Corinth-Antioch, Garris Chapel, St. Paul and LaGrange in the Goldsboro District; Vanceboro, Pink Hill and Farmville in the Greenville District; Pine Valley and Queen's Creek in the New Bern District; Woodland in the Rocky Mount District; Cool Springs, Miller's Chapel, Rockingham: First and St. Paul in the Rockingham District; Glendon and Pittsboro: First in the Sanford District; and Camp, Deems Chapel and Elizabethtown: Trinity in the Wilmington District.

One of the highlights of 1981 in the Raleigh District was the appointment of a pastor to the South Cary Charge in Cary. The highlights in all of our districts was the splendid cooperation of our pastors and laypeople, without which this report could not be made.

Permit us now a few brief projections as we envision the greater effectiveness which we believe God wills for us and can be ours if we will it also. As the church of Jesus Christ in the world we must forever present Jesus Christ to the world so that people shall acknowledge Him as their Savior and Lord, and serve Him in the fellowship of His Church. As the Church of Jesus Christ, we must forever respond in the name of Christ to the needs of people anywhere and everywhere. Evangelism and Mission and Social Concern — these are the perpetual responsibilities of the Church and there is no reprieve from those responsibilities. These are our tasks yesterday, today, and forever.

As the Church of Jesus Christ, we must speak to the world in the name of Christ; and we must speak with a clear voice. We must say no to war and nuclear proliferation; We must say no to injustice and oppression; no to the denial of human rights around the world and no to the denial of civil rights and voter rights in this country. We must say no to any tendency to neglect the poor, the elderly, the young, the sick, the handicapped and the minorities in our society. We must say yes to freedom and justice, yes to human need, yes to civil rights and human rights in the world; and we must say yes to the Equal Rights Amendment in North Carolina.

We cannot presume to proclaim a relevant Gospel and fulfill our mission in meaningful ways; we cannot presume to speak in the name of Christ nor expect our voice to be heard, unless we are willing to set our own house in order.

The 1980 General Conference established a single missional priority for the whole church during the current quadrennium. That priority is Developing and Strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church.

Many of our churches and conferences agencies have made positive responses to the Missional Priority; however, we cannot and should not be satisfied until every church and agency of our Conference understands the priority and makes the best response it can to this critical need. To this end Bishop Cannon will call a Conference-wide Convocation of pastors and conference district and local church leadership to study the needs of ethnic minority local churches and to develop strategies to encourage our support of the quadrennial missional priority. We believe our church can and must be whole, and to neglect any part is to deny our wholeness.

Finally, your servants in the Cabinet wish to express our deep concern for the principle and practice of open itineracy in the North Carolina Conference. Last year we approved open itineracy in principle but we have fallen short of putting that principle into practice. By open itineracy we mean that all options for appointments are equally available to all of our ministerial members and no option for appointment is denied any ministerial member of our conference because of race or sex. The difficulty experienced by your Cabinet in the consultation and appointment process of women and ethnic minorities is not worthy of a great annual conference. Wholeness requires our serious attention to open itineracy and your Cabinet invites the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Commission on Religion and Race, and the Commission on the Status and Role of Women to join us in a common effort to engage local church leaders in serious conversations that will lead to the normal itineracy of ministers throughout this conference without regard to race or sex. We have no reason to be afraid!

We are a great people — laypeople, clergy and Bishop. We are a great people because we are God's people. We are the Church and the Church is of God.. "who by the power at work within us is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think; to God be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen."

Joseph B. Bethea
President of the Cabinet 1981-1982

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

Report to Annual Conference

On December 11, 1924, Mr. James B. Duke established The Duke Endowment. Because of his concern for the Methodist Church, particularly the church in rural settings, in The Endowment Mr. Duke provided for funds to be made available for building, maintaining and operating rural churches, and for providing assistance to retired pastors and to widows and children of deceased pastors. Mr. Duke, a Methodist, was raised in a rural church, as was his father and grandfather before him. Mr. Duke often remarked, "My old daddy always said that if he amounted to anything in life, it was due to the Methodist circuit riders." Feeling his indebtedness to this background, he provided in a marvelous way for the building and strengthening of rural churches.

In the 58 years since Mr. Duke's death, the Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment has been at work to fulfill that commitment in rural United Methodist churches in North Carolina. The purpose of this report is to indicate how funds have been distributed through the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences and to indicate very briefly some of the significant activities that have taken place during the past year.

In an effort to assure that rural pastors and lay people are aware of how The Duke Endowment may participate with them in various programs, the Rural Church Committee of The Duke Endowment requested that representatives from The Endowment and the Divinity School tell the story of The Duke Endowment across the State of North Carolina. In the course of the year, the "Traveling Road Show," as those who made up the team referred to themselves, held sessions in eighteen different locations with over eleven hundred people in attendance. Representatives from every district in the two Annual Conferences attended.

The program in each session was essentially the same: good fellowship, delicious food, and a comprehensive up-date of The Duke Endowment's program of assistance to rural United Methodist churches in North Carolina. Representatives from The Duke Endowment are always available to go and interpret the various programs available to rural churches under the Rural Church Program.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

More Than 100,000 Persons Involved in Local Church Christian Education

1981 was a strong year for local church Christian Education in the North Carolina Conference. The total number of persons in average attendance, in the variety of educational settings was 103,365, an increase of four percent. The largest gain was in short-term classes (up almost thirteen percent). The declining attendance in Sunday Church School fell to 52,665, but this represents a drop of less than one person per church. More than half of local church Christian Education is taking place in the Sunday School.

Use of Our Four Camps Increases Twenty-One Percent

What a good year for camping ministry! The total attendance at our four camps was 12,804, an increase of twenty-one percent. Camp Don Lee had the largest summer program; Camp Rockfish hosted the most persons for retreats, day camps, and picnics; Camp Chestnut Ridge had the highest total usage; Camp Kerr Lake repeated its record high attendance of last year.

Leadership Development Opportunities Touch Over 2,000 Persons

Local church workers in education took part in a variety of leadership development opportunities in 1981. 223 local church chairpersons of education attended the January Workshops. Two courses at Conference Leadership School involved 53 persons in education-related studies. The Christian Workers School continued to recover its central place in leadership development: attendance increased to 1300. The Board of Education helped support seven conference-wide youth events with 765 participants (a four percent increase). In all, 2,341 persons took part in educational events for leadership development.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

I Recommended schedule of Minimum Salaries for 1983:

A. Salary Schedule

Ministers under full-time appointment:

Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)

Salary and Utilities $13,335

(Utilities to be specified by Charge Conference)

Student(Local Pastors or Conference Members):

Salary and Utilities $9,600

(Utilities to be specified by Charge Conference)

B. Travel Allowance

Although travel is considered a portion of the minister's expense that is to be reimbursed by the local church and is not set as part of the minimum salary structure, it is expected that each charge would set at least $1,600 as compensation for its ministers travel. A charge receiving equitable salary support may provide this $1,600 travel allowance, but any larger travel allowance in excess of $1,600 will result in a reduction of equitable salary support.

C. Less Than Full-Time Appointments

Ministers of any status who are serving in an appointment that is less than full-time, except those who are serving as students, will receive support from equitable salary funds, if any, on a basis negotiated with the church, the pastor, the District Superintendent, and the Equitable Salary Commission.

D. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Salary Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's total income for salary and utilities (including funds from the Equitable Salary Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources).

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Salary Funds

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges should so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Salary funds, its minister, and the District Superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward full financial support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the District superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriation from the Equitable Salary Fund.
- B. Charges must be arranged so that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Salary Fund. Charges asking for more than one-third supplement must make an additional application, indicating the reasons for being given special consideration. Newly established congregations will be given special consideration.
- C. When the division of a charge is desired, equitable Salary funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, or the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the Cabinet.
- D. In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station church, it is recommended that such church assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of apportionments and askings.
 1. It is recommended that the remainder of the charge in such a division pay a minimum of two-thirds of pastoral support and its proportionate share of apportionments and asking.
 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay a minimum of two-thirds of the salary established by the division.
- E. The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which has received, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Salary aid, shall reduce this aid by ten (10) per cent each year until the charge has accepted full self-support. The Commission on Equitable Salaries wants to be clear at this point that this recommendation means that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made each year in the minimum salary for the pastor of that charge and receive ten (10) per cent less in aid from Equitable Salary funds than granted the previous year. The District Superintendents are to inform all charges receiving aid or expecting to receive aid in the future of this requirement.
- F. Any Equitable Salary supplement will be terminated immediately upon the pastor's taking full-time secular employment. Such a pastor may be reinstated at any time upon returning to full-time ministerial status. Exceptions to this rule may be permitted by approval of the Executive Committee of the Commission on Equitable Salaries on the recommendation of the District Superintendent of the pastor who is seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

N.C. Conference Experiences Largest Growth in Eight Years

Our Conference membership grew by 502 in 1981 — the largest net membership gain in 8 years! The number of persons joining the Church on Confession of Faith was 3,493 — also the highest in 8 years. 451 charges received at least one person on Confession of Faith; 93 received none. Largest net gains were in the Raleigh District (552) and New Bern District (382). Ten of our twelve districts have developed master plans in our Conference effort to reach 19,000 additional persons by the end of 1984. Lay Witness Missions continue to increase (about 36 on 1982 schedule). Our two Conference Evangelists (Tommy Tyson, John Hobbs) had 112 speaking/teaching engagements in 1981.

"To Involve a Million" Lent, 1983

This crucial phase of "Proclaim the Word: Next Step" calls for intensive involvement of our laity in prayer and visitation. Each UM is asked to pray daily during Lent for five persons who are inactive church members or non-Christians and then visit them during Holy Week with a warm invitation to the Church and to Christ. Our jurisdiction has set a goal of involving one-third of all United Methodists in the SEJ—one million persons praying for and visiting five million persons.

Strengthening the Local Church for its Evangelistic Mission in the World

This Quadrennial emphasis of the UMC has been addressed this Conference year by: (1) District Seminars in September, 1981, on "Proclaim the Word: Next Step" (preparing all churches for this lay-centered jurisdictional thrust), "How To Witness One-To-One", and "Evangelism in the Church School; (2) Establishment of a 12-member Design Team on Evangelism in Black Churches; (3) "Pastor as Evangelist" a 12-member Design Team on Evangelism in Black Churches; (3) "Pastor as Evangelist" as theme of the 1982 Bishop's Seminar on Ministry; (4) District Workshops in the spring of 1982 preparing churches to launch Lay Visitation Teams, including Youth; (5) CSS Course on "Church Growth Principles" to be taught in August for pastors; (6) Confirmation Training Workshops scheduled for the fall.

Significant New Developments

(1) The Wilmington District, Board of Evangelism and Conference Committee on Communications will be producing 30-second radio spots with evangelistic messages as a Summer Beach ministry in the Wilmington area; (2) A quarterly statistical report of Membership Gains/Losses is being sent to all pastors so we may be aware of what is happening in evangelistic efforts, praying, rejoicing, working together; (3) in addition to trained leadership for New Life Missions and Church Growth being available in our Conference (along with financial help in those areas for churches of small membership) a new Evangelism Associates Ministry is now offered by our national Board of Discipleship. These are highly qualified consultant specialists in evangelism, church growth, and discipleship development.

Recommendations Requiring Conference Action:

The Conference Board of Evangelism recommends the re-appointment of Rev. Dr. Tommy Tyson and Rev. John Hobbs as Approved Conference Evangelists.

The Conference Board of Evangelism recommends the appointment of Rev. John E. Williams as Approved Conference Evangelist.

- II. 1. The Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionments for 1983 shall be based on the formula adopted in 1979 which computes the apportionments from the average of the total monies disbursed by each charge in the three years immediately previous to the apportionment year less than appropriate exclusions each year. The current exclusions are: Payments on Outreach Ministries; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $2400 travel paid by local church for each pastor; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Wide Communion; Human Relations; Methodist Student Day; Pension Funding Crusade.
2. Allocations to the charges shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration based on the current formula for the Fair Share apportionments. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from acceptances up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference upon the recommendation of the Council. In the event collections shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata or proportionate excepting prior claim items. (Fixed obligations on conference owned property; salaries paid directly from the Conference Treasurer's Office; Pensions, General World Service; General Administration Fund). In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported to the Annual Conference for purposes of information.
3. The Lake Junaluska Development Fund shall continue based on a minimum goal of 50 cents per member per year ($2.00) over the four-year period 1981-1984 inclusive. This is based upon the membership at the close of the calendar year 1978 as reported in the 1979 JOURNAL.

4. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference Treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Fair Share Apportionments: World Communion Sunday, United Methodist Student Day, One Great Hour of Sharing, Human Relations Day, SeJ. T.V. Ministry.
 5. Fair Share Apportionments will be delivered from the Treasurer's Office to the District Superintendents by July 15. The District Superintendents will then, at their discretion distribute the apportionments, without adjustments, to the charges. Any request from the charges for adjustments must be made to the Council on Finance and Administration on or before Wednesday Prior to Thanksgiving each year. No request for adjustment will be considered after this date.
 6. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the Council on Finance and Administration for all non-program budget items.
 7. Monies paid by the charges on apportionments and all other monies paid out by the local churches shall be reported to the Statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on Table II, Financial Report.
 8. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another without approval of the Council on Finance and Administration.
 9. An appropriation of $50,000, from the contingency reserve funds, shall be granted to the Methodist Foundation for the purpose of establishing the Office of Planned Giving. Annual support as needed will also be provided from the contingency reserve funds up to the time this office becomes self-sustaining. Annual evaluation and reports of progress shall be provided each year to the Annual Conference through the report of the Methodist Foundation, under whose direction the office will function.
 10. In charges of the Conference served by ministers under Episcopal appointment and such charges are paying a housing allowance in lieu of a furnished parsonage, the amount(s) paid as a housing allowance shall become one of the deductible items in computing the annual apportionments to the charges.
 11. That the Council on Finance and Administration, out of its Contingency and Reserve Fund, consider an annual appropriation to meet human need, similar to the appropriation made in 1982, and administered by the Conference Council on Ministries.
- I. Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference.
1. Christmas Offering 1982 for District Superintendents' program and/or projects. These should be clearly defined in plenty of time to have successful promotion.
 2. The Division of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.
 3. The Division of Education to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
 4. The Regional Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefits of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
 5. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children, Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed there to with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken into the local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership list of entire churches which might be provided, and that solicitation not be made through the North Carolina Christian Advocate.
 6. The Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- IV. The Council on Finance and Administration will continue to use A.M. Pullen & Company as auditors unless otherwise advised.

The President, vice-president and secretary of the Council on Finance and Administration and the Conference Treasurer shall serve as the executive committee of the Council of Finance and Administration.

The Conference Treasurer will include in his monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in his office by 8:30 A.M. on the 5th day of the following month except when the 5th day falls on Saturday or Sunday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 A.M. the following Monday.

GOLDEN CROSS REPORT

Golden Cross is part of the Outreach Ministries of our Conference. This program gives financial assistance to United Methodist laypersons who are in need because of medical expenses which are beyond their ability to pay. It is a concrete way we fulfill our Lord's directive to care for the sick and needy in His name. Here is a typical example of the people we assist through Golden Cross.

The applicant has been a member of the United Methodist Church for thirty-three years. The husband has leukemia, the wife unable to work because of lingering illness. Their only income is from Social Security. Golden Cross assisted them with $600.00, the maximum.

The applicant responded: "Words cannot begin to express our gratitude, and may God continue to bless and touch your lives as you have touched our lives in such a beautiful way."

Another responded by saying, "The assistance from golden Cross is a big help from the Church that helps us to see more and more light. Thank you!"

During 1981 twenty-three people in eight Districts received assistance that averaged $482.20 per applicant. In addition we contributed $5,500.00 per year to the Chaplain Program at Duke Medical Center, and $3,000.00 to the Good Shepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw.

You can be proud of the part you have in the Golden Cross Fund.

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

New Filmstrip Available

"He First Loved Me," is a newly produced filmstrip narrated by Fran Tarkenton showing how local churches can become involved in ministry with persons who have handicapping conditions. This informative and inspirational filmstrip can be purchased for $15 from SEMAR, 159 Ralph McGill Blvd., Atlanta, GA 30308. A copy is also available from the Media Center in Raleigh.

Health and Welfare Priority Proposed

The Board of Global Ministries has proposed that Health and Welfare be designated as the Missional Priority for the 1985-88 Quadrennium. Dr. Reginald Ponder, member of the Board of Global Ministries and of the North Carolina Annual Conference, pointed to the need for the church to take "an emphatic look" at the health and wholeness of persons. "Health is a life concern of every human being," he stated. Such a missional priority would not focus so much on fund-raising as on helping coordinate preventive health care, wholistic medicine, delivery of health care services to persons in rural areas, and involving local church in helping and healing ministries.

Children's Home Firsts

The first community — based Youth Home is being established in Goldsboro this summer. The first Youth Home off-campus in Raleigh is to be in operation this fall.

Children's Home Property Update

Over half of the Raleigh campus property has been sold and negotiations are in process on the remaining portions. Seven acres, next to the Methodist Building has been held for future use of the Home or the Conference.

Foster Care Expands

The Foster Care Program of the Methodist Home for Children has expanded to include Wayne and Johnston Counties.

Greenville Retirement Home

The Greenville Retirement Home moved a step nearer to reality this past spring, when final clearance came through on the 91 acre proposed site. The property had been tied up with legal complications because of its being part of an estate.

Retirement Home Census Report

The March, 1981 census report indicates high occupancy rates at the three facilities. The Durham Retirement Home has had a 100% occupancy rate with all 198 beds taken. Wesley Pines in Lumberton has averaged an 87% occupancy rate with its 90 beds and 10 apts. The Health Care Center in Durham has had a 95% occupancy rate with its 123 beds. Overall, 398 persons were in the three facilities as of the March report.

Volunteer Services Department Formed

The Durham facility has formed a new Volunteer Services Department to recruit and coordinate youth and adult volunteers. As of April, over 181 persons had provided in excess of 12,280 hours of volunteer service.

Supplementary Assistance Fund Established

To help defray the rising cost of care, a new Supplementary Assistance Fund has been established. This fund will supplement "Benevolent" funds provided by the Conference, which helps retirement home residents whose income and assets are not adequate for their care. Over $33,000 has already been contributed, and the fund is growing as donations "in memory of" or "in honor of" are added.

Wesley Pines Celebrated Anniversary

On April 18, Wesley Pines Retirement Home in Lumberton celebrated its 5th year since being opened.

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

Nominations Procedure For Methodist Home For Children And Retirement Homes

The nominees for Trustees of the Methodist Retirement Homes and the Methodist Home for Children are selected as follows:

Early in January, nominations forms for both homes are sent to the members of Cabinet, members of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, the Bishop, and Administrators of the Homes and Trustees of the Homes. They are requested to make nominations and return them to the secretary of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries.

A list of the nominees is compiled with biographical information on each person nominated, for the Methodist Retirement Home and for the Methodist Home for Children. These lists are sent to the members of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries two weeks before the February meeting of the Board.

At the February meeting, each individual whose name has been submitted is considered. The Board then votes, and those having the highest number of votes are presented to the Annual Conference as nominees.

THE REPORT OF THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN

Transition, Change, Expansion Highlighted

At the Methodist Home for Children, this past year has been a year of transition and change in our care and services to neglected, dependent, abused and troubled children and their families. In our Residential Services, we have now completed the change from the traditional program of child care to the Teaching-Family Model. This model professionalizes the role of the child care worker. Teaching-Parents, as they are now called, have the maturity, experience and special training to meet the many needs of our boys and girls. This Teaching-Family Program not only emphasizes parenting, Christian love and relationship-building, but it also stresses teaching, counseling, discipline and provides a structure in which the youth can work on their problems and solve them. The beautiful thing about this new program is that it can be easily transferred to our future community-based youth homes.

At the same time during this past year we have expanded our Foster Family Services and our Family Counseling Services. Of course, we still have our higher education program of financial help and vocational and financial counseling to our high school graduates who wish to continue their education in colleges or technical schools.

Now we are ready to take our programs off campus and out into the various areas of the Conference. As you may know, we have already purchased two houses off campus — one in Raleigh and the other in Goldsboro. In each of these community-based youth homes, the Teaching-Parents will provide the parenting, teaching, and counseling that 5 youths will need. They will do this in a family-style living environment filled with love, the Christian influence, and maximizing the use of community resources, such as public schools, churches, recreation facilities, and work opportunities in the community.

Also in Goldsboro, we are recruiting, and soon will be training, foster parents to care for children in their own homes.

Long Range Planning Begins

Now that the Board of Trustees has made a commitment to provide child care services in the Raleigh and Goldsboro Districts, we are ready to make a commitment to other districts of the Conference. Where should we go next? We need your help and advice! You will have the opportunity to participate in this decision-making process.

The Long Range Planning Committee of the Board of Trustees has prepared a Ministers' Survey form. They will be mailed to all the ministers in the Conference. These completed surveys will help the Board determine the next areas in the Conference in which we need to expand our services to children, youth, and their families.

Youth Benefit From Services provided

For me, two recent highlights were our reception for our seniors graduating from high school and a special farewell party for a 16 year old boy who has lived at the Home for several years. Now he is going to a foster home where he can have a permanent placement in a less restrictive environment until he graduates from high school. It is very gratifying to see our young people achieve their goals, solve their problems, develop some maturity, graduate from our program and are able to live more independently with a more permanent plan for their lives.

Yes, we are very excited about the successes that we are having in helping our boys and girls. Let me share with you a couple of typical examples.

A little girl at the age of nine was severely burned over 50% of her body. It is felt that this tragic event was the result of abuse and neglect on the part of her parents. She will have permanent scars on her body for the rest of her life. She was immediately removed from her home and placed in foster care. At the age of 12, one year ago, she came to the Children's Home. In her previous placement it seemed wise for her only to see her parents three times a year.

Our Teaching-Parents and psychologist have been counseling with the parents as well as helping the 12 year old girl work on some of her own problems. Both parents and daughter are very cooperative and are making excellent progress. The parents are learning better how to manage their feelings, emotions, and behaviors. They also have a better understanding of their daughter and how they can help her solve her problems. Their daughter has increased her social skills, such as conversation skills, adult-peer interactions, the ability to accept criticism, and to follow instructions. Her school grades have also improved. Now we feel that it is safe and beneficial for the daughter to visit her parents almost every weekend. Our goal is for the parents and daughter to be reunited permanently in another year.

Then there is the story of the 18 year old girl. As a junior in high school she was making C's and D's. She was skipping school a lot and running away from the Home occasionally. She was on the verge of being a high school dropout.

This past year as a senior, she made A's and B's and was on the Honor Roll all year. She had no unexcused absences and didn't run away from the Home a single time! She graduated from high school last week and will be going to technical school next fall, majoring in early childhood development.

At the time of her graduation this 18 year old girl shared with us the following thoughts about her stay at the Methodist Home for Children: "It has been home for 12 years and it has been a great learning experience for me. I have learned many things about myself during the time I have lived here. The Home has taught me well.

The Teaching-Parent Program is a very good solution, I think. I never thought I would cooperate with it but I did and it really made me change in all good ways. I learned more about myself while I was in the Program than I thought I would. I can do things today that I never could have done without the help from my Teaching-Parents, Alton and Rosemary Watkins. I would really like to thank them very, very much for helping me make it and being there when I thought I was on my last lap. They gave me that little push and saw that I could do it, I will always remember them and love them with all my heart.

If it had not have been for the Methodist Home, I don't know where I would be today. They have done so much for me and taught me so much. There is no way I can express all the thanks to everyone who stood by me and helped me to be the person I am today. God bless everyone at the Home and thank you once again for all that you have taught me."

This is how your money is being used to help boys and girls!

Prevention is the Main Goal

The Bishop in his State of the Church Address yesterday highlighted some of the critical problems that we confront in our society today, such as the increase in the crime rate and the breaking up of family life. When this happens, the children suffer the most. Often we are the ones who are called upon to pick up the pieces and try to put them back together again. We're in the business of prevention. Preventing these problems from increasing. Our programs prevent youth from entering a life of crime. They prevent youth from spending their adult lives either in a prison or in a state mental hospital. They prevent the breaking up of families by making it possible for families to stay together. These are human needs we are meeting right here in the Conference!

Services Provided in 1981

During 1981, the Methodist Home for Children served 89 different youths and 97 of their parents and relatives who were a part of 80 families. These persons were served through the three services of the Home: Family Counseling Services, Foster Family Services, and Residential Services. 12,439 days of care were provided youths in Youth Homes and Foster Homes, and 1,134 counseling and conference sessions were held.

Family Counseling Services provided vocational counseling and financial assistance to 8 former residents who are continuing their education in colleges or technical schools. This financial help is made possible through the Home's scholarship fund to which persons have contributed over the years.

Appreciation Expressed

We appreciate very much your continual prayers, cooperation, financial support and other acts of love and kindness, which make these changed lives possible. Our children often come to us only with the clothing they are wearing. Their parents are either too poor and unable or they are unwilling to provide financial support for their children's care. In 1981, only one third of our financial support came from the counties, the state, Duke Endowment and a little from parents. This means that close to two-thirds of the financial support of these children came from you — the Conference, either directly or indirectly. Directly through the Conference Benevolences, through sponsor gifts, individual or church contributions. Indirectly this support came from you through the earnings from our Endowment Fund. As you can see, we are very dependent on the generosity of your benevolent gifts.

The Board, the staff, our children, Vassar Jones, the President of our Board of Trustees, and Douglas Byrd, our Director of Public Relations and Planned Giving, join me in saying "thank you" for making this Christian ministry possible.

Jesus said, "Feed my lambs," "Tend my sheep." This is what we are doing in your name and in the name of Christ.

THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC. REPORT

The aging continue to be the fastest growing segment of society. This trend will increase for many years to come. While virtually every person considering this report has felt the impact of a period of economic insecurity, no segment has felt it as greatly as the aging. Continued inflation affecting life essentials, health care, the rising cost of utilities, plus the uncertainty regarding Social Security legislation makes our ministry a very special one.

This means that we call the Methodist people of The North Carolina Conference to pledge themselves not only to accept our thanks for your past gifts, your prayers of concern and your interest in the Retirement Homes and particularly the funds that The Homes receive through the Outreach Ministries Fair Share Apportionment of our Conference.

You will be called upon by many outstretched hands to support many causes. We urge you to consider the pressing needs of your Retirement Homes and Nursing Care centers. We must never turn our backs on those that have served us in the past that we might have a future. Our Board of Trustees, staff, members and residents, want you to know that every dollar provides an ongoing program of direct benevolent assistance to Methodist members of our Conference.

Last year we established a Supplementary Assistance Fund to accept direct contributions from individuals interested in the special mission of the Retirement Homes of our Conference. The income from this fund will be used to supplement the increasing amounts of benevolent assistance required to care for many of our residents.

We are grateful for the additional gifts we receive — your tax exempt contributions to the Methodist Retirement Home's Pooled Income Fund, the special annuity funds for The Homes and the Joy of being remembered in wills along with special bequests which allow us to perform a real ministry to a number of our less financially able applicants for Membership. The Medicare and Medicaid programs that provide more than twenty percent of our operating budget are severely threatened. In 1981 the aid of those who had either exhausted their personal resources or did not have resources when they came to us was provided for in your name through Fair Share funds on a case by case basis as follows:

In continuing cooperation with your Board of Health and Welfare Ministries and our own Board of Trustees we will seek ways in which to exercise the best possible stewardship to offer quality care to our Members.

During 1981 we served more than 500 people in the Durham Retirement Home, the Coble Health Care Center and Wesley Pines in Lumberton. The central office is located in Durham and provides cost effective support services for the entire Corporation.

Our concern for providing as many people as possible through a ministry of love and concern has enabled us to maintain an occupancy rate of 95% at the Health Care Center and 97% for our Retirement and Home for the Aging facilities. The new apartments at Wesley Pines are now completed, landscaped and more than half filled.

Your Homes continue to remain financially sound and stable. Upon request we will be glad to send you a copy of our Annual Report. Copies of our Annual Audit will be available in the office of the Conference Treasurer, the Executive Director and the Administrators.

Highlights of the year's work include:

- The Long Range Planning and Buildings and Grounds Committees have brought to a satisfactory conclusion the negotiation with Greenville, the Jarvis Memorial Church and the citizens of the community in completing the securing of a clear deed to extensive property upon which to build a Retirement facility.
- The services of an Architect have been secured and preliminary sketches approved for the Greenville Home. A feasible first unit has been outlined with intermediate drawings completed and tentative bid estimates.
- The establishment of a Conference-wide promotional Auxiliary for the Retirement Homes to be implemented and directed by Mrs. Louise Peterson of the Board of Trustees.
- The continuation of the Special Gifts Committee as they seek direct funding to make the building of the Greenville facility a reality.
- The authorization of the Board of Trustees to employ a full time Director of Public Relations and Development to acquaint the Conference with what it has in the way of retirement

- facilities, the policies and the encouragement of underwriting capital endowments through the Supplemental Assistance Fund and the Pooled Income Fund of the Corporation in order to provide for the extra cost of care anticipated during the next two decades.
- The undertaking of an energy audit in the Durham facilities and the establishment of energy audit task forces to reduce the cost of utilities.
 - Contributions to the Pooled Income Fund has exceeded one million dollars.
 - The Fifth Anniversary celebration on April 18 of Wesley Pines in Lumberton with a special dedication, Open House and a recognition of the works and efforts of Administrator, LaFon Vereen over the last decade.
 - The completion of two additional rooms and bath facilities in the Durham Retirement Home.
 - Special memorial gifts have provided beautification of the waiting area of the Retirement Home and areas in the Health Care Center.
 - Continuation of professional training for patient and resident care assistants held in cooperation with Durham Technical Institute giving us additional classes of Geriatric Technician I and II.
 - Participation of the Retirement Homes in N.C. Association of Non-Profit Homes for the Aging and its political action committee arm as well as National membership in the American Association of Homes for the Aging and the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries of the United Methodist Church.
 - Continue to encourage each Church to set aside Mothers' Day as a special time during which the needs of our work may be explained from every pulpit in our Conference. Bulletin inserts are provided each pastor with the request that the work of the Homes be lifted up and explained from the pulpit.

We earnestly pray for your direct contributions to the several funds of the Homes. If you should feel inspired to make a memorial gift, a bequest, a direct contribution to the Supplemental Assistance Fund, or a living gift which can benefit both you and The Home through our Pooled Income Fund, please write the Executive Director or Administrators for further information.

We are aware of the countless hours of time donated by volunteers, members of local committees, our Board of Trustees and others who have concern for the growing aging segment of our population. The need will continue to grow. We are blessed with our leadership through you.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries

The Board meets twice a year. Normally, the fall meeting is devoted to budget requests and program recommendations; and normally, the spring meeting is devoted to the approval of trustee nominations and consideration of scholarship matters.

Happy Anniversary Methodist College — N.C. Wesleyan College

This year Methodist College and N.C. Wesleyan College are celebrating their 25th anniversary. We thank these young colleges for their faith and perseverance; we are grateful for their fine contribution to Christian Higher Education; and we wish them well as they move out in faith and service toward their 50th anniversary.

Louisburg College

Louisburg College was organized in 1787 and will begin its third century of service this quadrennium. We thank Louisburg for its long history of service and wish it well as it prepares to move into its third century.

Other United Methodist Institutions of Christian Higher Education in N.C.

Because of our historical ties with them, the North Carolina Annual Conference, through the College Sustaining Fund, gives annual support to Bennett College, Greensboro College and High Point College. Pfeiffer College and Brevard College are United Methodist Colleges which receive no direct support from our conference. The Duke Divinity School, with 380 students (70 from our conference), receives funding from our conference and the general church.

United Methodist Student Day Offering

The last Sunday in November is United Methodist Student Day, and receipts from this offering go for United Methodist Scholarships and loans, with 10% being returned to the conference for Merit Scholarships. In 1981, 226 of our charges gave $8,602 to this cause. We hope each church will receive this offering in 1982, for with the projected cut-back in federal aid to students, church scholarship and loan funds are desperately needed.

The Black College Fund

In fiscal 1981, the Black College Fund raised $5,260,088 for our 12 historically black colleges. The goal of 1982 is $6,741,000 or a 5% increase. In 1981, the North Carolina Conference gave $82,316 to the BCF against an apportionment of $123,355. We hope that each local church will accept and pay in full its BCF apportionment. Bennett College is receiving $280,000 in 1982 from the BCF.

Scholarship Aid Available

One Blackburn Scholarship, in the amount of $1,250, is awarded annually by the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry to an outstanding student planning to attend Louisburg College, Methodist College, or North Carolina Wesleyan College. At least one Merit Scholarship will also be awarded annually. Contact the Reverend Sam Brown, 3736 Legion Road, Hope Mills, NC 28348 by April 1. The state of North Carolina gives a $650 grant to all students attending church related schools, and you should contact the financial aid officer at each college about other scholarships and financial aid programs available. We would like for you to attend a United Methodist college, and we believe that funding can be found to make that possible.

Campus Ministries

Through the Minister-in-Residence Program, chaplains at our church related schools and campus ministers at our state supported colleges and universities, we are seeking to offer an opportunity for spiritual growth to all United Methodist students in North Carolina.

You Can Help the Cause of Higher Education and Campus Ministry

1. By encouraging your high school students to attend one of our United Methodist Institutions of higher education.
2. By having an active work area on Higher Education and Campus Ministry in your local church.
3. By sending in one-twelfth of your Outreach Ministries Fund each month to the conference treasurer — for our institutions receive their percentage of these funds monthly.
4. By receiving the United Methodist Student Day Offering the last Sunday of November.
5. By accepting and paying, in full, your Black College Fund apportionment.
6. By giving direct financial support to the general, endowment, or capital fund drive of the college of your choice.
7. By keeping in touch with college students from your local church throughout their college career.

REPORT FROM LOUISBURG COLLEGE

Louisburg College is pleased to join with Methodist College and North Carolina Wesleyan College in celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the two senior colleges. Our Board of Trustees passed a resolution of congratulations which was mailed to the two colleges in early March.

I am pleased to report that Louisburg College has had an excellent year in 1981-82! Our enrollment was the highest it has been in at least ten years, as we opened in the fall with 770 students. The budget was again in balance, and we are most appreciative of the United Methodists in the North Carolina Conference who continue to support the College in so many ways.

Our Third Century Campaign to raise $4.2 million for buildings and endowment is nearing successful completion, as we have raised in gifts and pledges $3.6 million. For the second straight year we can report gifts in excess of $1 million!

Ground was broken in February for the new classroom building, which will be named in honor of a prominent Methodist layman from Greenville, E. Hoover Taft, Jr. Mr. Taft has been Chairman of the Louisburg College Board of Trustees for fourteen years.

Although our progress has been excellent and our educational program strengthened, we must be aware of the real need ahead for gaining additional endowment monies to offset potential losses of federal student aid funds. We encourage our friends within the Conference to help us in enrollment of students and in the addition of scholarship monies.

Louisburg College is proud of its heritage that includes a strong reciprocal relationship with the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

President

REPORT FROM METHODIST COLLEGE

Again, it is my pleasure to welcome all of you to Methodist College and to give this report for Methodist College.

The College, financially, has been in the black although it has been a close year. Our endowment has increased $118,000 to $1,276,194. I suppose many of you wonder what that $118,000 will mean to us. To put it in terms of students, it will produce thirty-three $500 scholarship grants. Our goal is to increase our endowment 10% again next year.

The current economic situation and the proposal to cut student financial aid at the federal level, along with budget indecision in Washington, has created considerable chaos among students interested in going to small, liberal arts colleges. This has resulted in our applications being down at this time. Methodist College expects a lower enrollment in the fall of 1982. You need to know that we have taken all necessary budget steps to accommodate a modest drop in enrollment.

On the other hand, Methodist College has had an excellent summer school. Our enrollment is much higher than we had anticipated. We don't know exactly how to interpret this, but we feel it might presage a growth in applications between now and the commencement of college in September.

Academically, we are working on an accounting major and a complete revision of our basic curriculum in the College. In our extracurricular activities, we have as usual been successful in sports. Our golf team came in third in the nation. The team was actually leading the field with just a few holes to play when they were caught in a sudden rainstorm. However, they came in third with one sophomore and the rest freshmen on the golf team. We're immensely proud of them. In baseball, our team went to the Eastern Regional finals, and there we lost out to North Carolina Wesleyan. During the course of the year, we played North Carolina Wesleyan four times. We defeated them twice, and they defeated us twice; however, they won the last one, and that one put them at the top of the heap in the regionals. They have our blessings and our support as they go on.

This summer we will have a drama program for youth that will feature "The Wizard of Oz." Then we commence our Shakespearean Repertoire Theatre. This year we will present "West Side Story" and the "Merchant of Venice."

For nine consecutive semesters, our publications have had top ratings with the Scholastic Press. The only other school to compare with this is a university. Scholastic Press rates colleges in one group and universities in another. The only university to compare with us is the paper called The Daily Tarheel.

During the past year, we attempted to make a Twenty-Fifth Anniversary gift to our students by replacing the windows in their dorms. The total cost is $210,000. We raised $120,000. All dormitories have been sandblasted, patched, painted and two of the dorms have new windows. We will raise another $90,000 this year for the other two dormitories' windows.

We hope to add to our two small computers this year.

One of the thrusts of Methodist College is to teach students that they must learn to serve. In order to teach this, we, too, must serve. Let me tell you of the use of our campus. In addition to our College program during this past year, there have been four symphony concerts, four community concert music programs, three dance theatres, fourteen Methodist conference-wide meeting conferences and youth rallies. There have been district events, workshops, a Pentacostal Family Camp for one week, Church of Christ Youth Rally, six public school workshops and institutes, a one-week cheerleading camp, fifteen day camps are scheduled for this summer — ranging from computers to golf. There has been a Rescue Squad gospel sing, Amateur Radio Society meetings, two beauty pageants, two talent shows, two fashion shows, a seminar on Gandhi, two economic outlooks — one on the stock market and one just following the President's State of the Union Address. We capped it all off with a Moravian Love Feast last Christmas. There have been these and many more. On the average, two days out of every week the year round, there is some other group using this campus facility. This gives us enrichment for our students and, of course, it helps pay the overhead.

This past year among our students, we numbered 31 ministerial dependents, to whom we awarded nearly $40,000 in tuition grants. There were 14 religious vocation majors, to whom we awarded about $16,500 in tuition grants. We have 12 religion majors, 8 minors and 5 religious education majors.

Among this year's graduates, 20% have already applied to graduate or professional schools; however, we expect this figure to increase to almost 35% in the next few years as our education majors continue their education.

We're in the black. Our program is a little better; the endowment continues to grow; we've continued capital improvements; however, we do have problems. Roofs need replacing, roads need resurfacing and we desperately need the gymnasium. Most of all, the greatest problem we have is inflation. We will have times of distress and times of joy. This year, the distresses were few and the joys increased. We share those joys with you, for you are part of us.

We deeply appreciate your concern, your support, your deep interest in Methodist College — your Methodist College.

Thank you.

REPORT FROM NORTH CAROLINA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

The events of the 25th Anniversary have highlighted the year just ending at North Carolina Wesleyan College. In September I made a State of the College report to an audience gathered by the Rocky Mount Area Chamber of Commerce. In October we had a special Founders Day celebration during which North Carolina Supreme Court Associate Justice Louis B. Meyer addressed a large audience of students, faculty members, trustees, and community persons. During a luncheon later on the same day we honored all of our founders present and we unveiled a color portrait of our first President, Dr. Thomas Asa Collins.

Another 25th Anniversary event was our Spring Symposium during which campus and community joined to consider the problem of Crime in America. Two other events occurred in April: on April 24 we had a Community Appreciation Day featuring three bands and ending with a beautiful display of fireworks; and, on April 25 there was a College-Conference Convocation held at First United Methodist Church in Rocky Mount. During the Convocation, Bishop William R. Cannon delivered the keynote address and he was awarded the honorary degree "Doctor of Canon Law."

Our 1982 Commencement took place on May 8 with Mrs. Mary Duke Biddle Trent Semans making the address and receiving the honorary degree "Doctor of Humane Letters." There were 181 graduates. During the ceremony the new President's Medal of Honor was conferred on 25 famous native born North Carolinians — again, a part of our 25th Anniversary celebration.

The salient events of our first 25 years are captured in an Anniversary brochure entitled "Our Persistent Dream." Each Conference minister was mailed a copy and the College has complimentary copies for Conference United Methodists on request.

This year Wesleyan's enrollment exceeded 1,000 individuals for the first time. We had 930 undergraduate students and 123 students enrolled in our new Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) and Master of Education (M.Ed.) programs. Our enrollment has increased 134% since 1975.

Our religious life program for the 1981-82 academic year was a busy one. It began with a worship service at the fountain during Orientation. It included the Staley Lectures in September provided by Dr. John Scanzoni of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, on the subject, "Men, Women, and Change." The Reverend Charles Morrison, '73, was one of the chapel speakers this year. Dr. Kenneth V. Finney, an Associate Professor of History at Wesleyan, led fall and spring retreats of the Wesleyan Christian Fellowship on "The Christian Life." The Fellowship of Christian Athletes had fall and spring field days. Many church groups attended the production of "Godspell," produced by the Wesleyan Theater Department and supported by the Interfaith Commission.

I am glad to report that fund raising for the new Leon Russell Chapel is nearly complete and that its construction at a prominent location on campus will begin soon.

This year, in addition to well-established extension programs in Raleigh and Goldsboro, we opened a division in Jacksonville. In Raleigh our classes are hosted by the Athens Drive High School; in Goldsboro our classes meet at the Seymour Johnson Air Base; and in Jacksonville our Criminal Justice courses meet in the Conference Room of the Police station.

Without the financial and spiritual support of the North Carolina Conference, North Carolina Wesleyan College would not have begun or sustained its life as an educational institution. As we move into our second 25 years we must, if we are to fulfill our responsibilities, have the continuing support of the Conference and we must have a share of the personal fortunes of Conference United Methodist laypersons who believe in Christian higher education and plan their estates accordingly.

Most of all we cherish your prayers which will add strength and give direction to our educational endeavor.

S. Bruce Petteway, President
North Carolina Wesleyan College

TASK FORCE ON HUNGER

Training

So that we may more adequately address The World and National Hunger/Poverty Issue with advance monies, with commitment to appropriate policies and with creation of local church, and community hunger/poverty ministries, we have established District Hunger Task Forces. Training for these Task Forces was held at Camp Rockfish in October of 1981, under leadership from The Board of Discipleship, The Office of Hunger and Value Formation, Dr. Thomas Van Loon. Each functioning District Task Force is to be comprised of five District persons: Chairpersons, Secretaries or Coordinators for Missions, Church and Society, Education, Religion and Race and The United Methodist Women. A follow-up Evaluation/Training Session was held at Raleigh in April, 1982, to determine the effectiveness of The District Task Forces in promoting The Hunger Advance, in establishing local hunger ministries and in raising the level of awareness to hunger needs and hunger ministry resources.

Interpreters Bank

Further, The Conference Task Force has established a committee to provide a "hunger interpreters bank" of resource persons to be made available to "Missions Saturation Events" and local churches for use in promoting definite commitments to The Hunger Advance, to the establishment of local hunger projects and to supporting state, federal and international hunger policy.

Consultation

The Hunger Task Force has also asked the North Carolina Council of Churches to pursue the development of a consultation, with appropriate follow-up, for the state on the issue of Tobacco and Alternative Land Use. Our Task Force will assist in whatever ways possible in the planning and administration of such a consultation.

Cooperative Endeavors

In April of 1982, The North Carolina Annual Conference Hunger Task Force met with leadership from the Western North Carolina Conference World Hunger Task Force to plan for cooperative endeavors that relate to statewide hunger concerns.

NEWS WANTED

The Hunger Task Force is anxious to spread the word of good things happening in Hunger Ministry throughout our Conference. Let us know what your church and district are doing and planning to do.

INSURANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

Report I

Group Term Life Insurance

The present program of Group Life Insurance is one of the most beneficial programs our Conference has for the ministers. This program began in 1968. Since its inception, the benefits have been increased from $10,000 to $11,500 for the active minister. There have been increased benefits for those ministers retired, but not reached age 72. Also, there are benefits for the spouse and dependent children, as well as Accidental Death and Dismemberment benefits.

Since the time this program began, the Conference Board of Pensions has paid the premiums for those persons who had reached age 72, and two of the quarterly premiums for those who were retired, but not yet age 72. The Board of Pensions and The Insurance Committee have agreed that all premiums for the retired ministers should be assumed by The Board of Pensions. This policy should be approved by the Annual Conference.

During the year 1981, the following claims were paid:

Horace Garris	$ 5,000
Leona Cheek	1,000
Horace Quigley	11,500
Allen C. Lee	1,000
Harry Rogers	5,000
Rufus Smithson, Jr.	11,500
Alonzo Reynolds	1,000
Frank Salmon	11,500
A.B. Falls, Jr.	11,500
Charlotte Brown	1,000
TOTAL	$60,000

The total of these claims and the cost of services exceed the premiums. However, from the funds held in escrow, the difference has been paid, so there is no increase in premium.

The Insurance Committee recommends that our policy with Fidelity and Guaranty Life Insurance Company be continued, for the same amounts:

$11,500 for active ministers

$ 5,750 for retired ministers under 72 who retired after January 1, 1978

$ 5,000 for retired ministers who retired prior to January 1, 1978

$ 1,000 for retired ministers over 72

$ 1,000 for spouse and each dependent child and that the rates for each category of ministers be continued at the same cost per $1,000 as prevailed in 1980.

Report II

Blue Cross-Blue Shield Medical Insurance

The Insurance Committee has made a conscientious effort to gather information that would be helpful in making a recommendation about medical-health insurance.

1. A survey of all persons insured in our program, to determine their response to the program.
2. Comparison of our program with other companies policy with the same benefits.
3. Studied the advisability of going to some form of self insurance.
4. Analyzed the responses as to extending the benefits of our present policy, with an increase in premiums to compensate for the increased benefits; for example dental insurance.

This study revealed following responses:

1. There was not sufficient interest in increasing any benefits to justify pursuing this course further. Most of those who indicated a desire for increased benefits were interested in dental insurance.
2. Almost no interest was shown in going to any kind of self-insurance program at this time.
3. Comparing the same benefits offered by Blue Cross-Blue Shield with those of other companies showed there was no substantial difference in costs. Also, it came out that most of the kinds of difficulties that we have with our insurer, the same kinds of difficulties arise regardless of the insuring company.
4. We are aware that there has been some problems in the services provided, etc.
 - a. The amounts paid on claims seemed too little;
 - b. Too slow in paying claims;
 - c. The ministers had to pay more than was anticipated;

- d. Problems in providing proper and all necessary information when claim was filed;
- e. Communications breakdown — between doctor-patient, patient and Blue Cross and doctor and Blue Cross

Even with these inconveniences and mix-ups 87% indicated they were satisfied with Blue Cross, with only 9% suggesting they were dissatisfied. 4% made no comment. Of the 322 persons responding, 251 rated the total services of Blue Cross very good and good; 39 said services were fair, while 15 rated the services not very good, poor, or very poor.

The information provided by this study indicates that the overwhelming majority of our ministers families favor continuing our medical-health insurance with Blue Cross-Blue Shield. Thus, your insurance committee recommends that the North Carolina Conference continue its medical-health insurance program with Blue Cross-Blue Shield of North Carolina.

A statement of commendation is in order to the ministers and their families for their splendid cooperation in helping to keep the costs from increasing more rapidly.

Respectfully submitted,
Norwood L. Jones, Chairman
Thomas E. Loftis, Secretary

BOARD OF THE LAITY

Lay Rallies

Lay rallies were held in each of the twelve districts. More than 6000 persons were in attendance. A variety of formats was used. Some were preaching services, some rallies with the laity speaking and some were held in conjunction with District Conference. Many of the districts recognized a Lay Person of the Year. Certified lay speakers were recognized and offerings for college scholarships were taken. The District Lay Rallies continue to be a vital force in our Annual Conference.

January Workshops

January workshops were held in each of the twelve districts. 3,683 persons came to be trained for their various areas of responsibility in the local church. This year's workshops emphasized the Church of Small Membership. For the first time, there were courses specifically designed for each area of responsibility in the Small Membership Church. The participants in these courses were generally positive in their evaluations.

Another factor in the record attendance might be the large number of pastors and lay people who attended the course on the Pastor Parish Relations Committee. This year over 75 instructors traveled over 20,000 miles in order to teach courses in the January training event.

Lay Speaker Training

Lay speaker training continues to be a major emphasis of our division. As the role of lay speaker has changed the division has sought to lead in the area of interpretation of the role and of providing training. Several training events have been held in the districts this year as well as at Conference Leadership School. The Lay Speaker Program is designed to increase the knowledge and skill to the lay leadership of our churches and as such it could have a major effect upon the United Methodist Churches in eastern North Carolina.

Conference Leadership School

519 persons attended the 17 courses offered at the 1981 Conference Leadership School. The 1982 school is scheduled for August 6 through August 11 at Methodist College in Fayetteville. Plan on attending our 1982 Conference Summer School — we have a new name — and a new format. See you at Methodist College in August.

LAY LEADER'S REPORT

Bishop Cannon, members of the N.C. Annual Conference and delegates to the Annual Conference:

This past year has been a good year. The Men's Club is moving — they still need all our help. The United Methodist Women and the Youth, as usual, have programs, progress, involvement and good leaders.

I am happy to report that the Board of Laity seems to have developed a much better sense of direction and purpose. There is good cooperation and communication between the various groups. We are blessed with active District Lay Leaders, and these are the key to continued lay involvement and growth.

The Lay Rallies were the best in my nine years in the Conference. The speakers probably were the best we've had in those same nine years. Though often different, our Lay Rallies have become quite successful. The key to this has been the sharing of problems and results by the District Lay Leaders working through the Board of Laity.

The emphasis on lay speaker training continues to produce dividends, though not as much as we would like. The lay speaker concept is growing. It is still misunderstood, still assumed that it is a pathway leading to the pulpit. As yet, we have not all come to see it as a method for self-enrichment and understanding of the Church and its purposes. We still need to offer more advanced courses, particularly on the district levels.

During the past year the laity have emphasized the Ten Dollar Club, subscriptions to The Christian Advocate and have continued our emphasis upon United Methodist Men's Clubs. We have met with some success in these areas.

The program of the laity comprises, in the main, January Workshops, Summer School, Lay Rallies and the emphasis on United Methodist Men. Please stop at our Board of Laity display in the South Lobby and see if you can find yourself in the pictures there of some Lay Rallies and January workshops.

Though the laity in the Board of Laity have had a growing sense of direction and mission, this is not singly a lay success. The laity recognizes the leadership and support they get from our ministers and the Conference Program staff.

To the North Carolina Conference ministers — Your laity, in varying degrees, are becoming more eager to work under your direction in program, evangelism and church growth.

Capture, mold and direct that growing enthusiasm. Lead us to Christian discipleship. Help us understand our faith, our church, our conference program and our growing spirituality.

To the lay delegates — Take home an enthusiasm for Christian discipleship. Work for effective men's clubs, United Methodist Women and youth programs. Help your minister give your church an evangelistic outreach.

Bishop, the Conference Board of Laity made good progress last year with the support of Willie Teague from the Conference staff. Willie now returns to the pastorate. We thank you for Willie Teague. We look forward now to next year for continued growth under new staff leadership. He will have our cooperation — We will look to him for support and leadership. We will continue to grow.

Bishop, I appreciate your support: your Cabinet's support of district lay programs; your ministers' leadership of our laity as the laity grows spiritually and learns to serve.

Bishop, it has been a good year for the laity, but the best is yet to come. With God's help and the continued leadership of our clergy, we shall continue to grow.

Richard W. Pearce
Conference Lay Leader

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

Report of the Editor

At this report "goes to press," it is too early to assess the success of the state-wide campaign just completed in our two conferences for subscriptions to the North Carolina Christian Advocate. Most of the reports received as of March 15 are excellent, but many of our ministers have not yet reported on the results of their campaign.

It has become increasingly clear over the years that the Advocate cannot maintain what might be described as an acceptable level of subscriptions — 25,000-plus — without enthusiastic, local church Advocate Representatives whose sole responsibility is to secure new subscriptions, renew current subscriptions, collect the money for these and send the money to the Advocate office. Both the Advocate Representative and the Coordinator of Communications are distinctive positions, deserving independent leadership. The first step toward maintaining, year-in and year-out, an Advocate subscription list of 25,000-plus is the designation in every local church of a person who will serve enthusiastically as that church's Advocate Representative.

The second step in maintaining a subscription list of 25,000-plus is an enthusiastic District Advocate Representative who holds this office separate and apart from that of the District Coordinator of Communications. The District Advocate Representative has the time-consuming job of assisting each local church Advocate Representatives in the execution of his or her duties. In many instances the District Advocate Representative must contact the ministers in the district to suggest ways of increasing a particular church's subscription list. This is a time-consuming job. Both the District Advocate Representative and the District Coordinator of Communications are distinctive positions deserving independent leadership.

It is also too early to fully assess what the doubling of postal rates for non-profit, second class publications like the Advocate will do to our publication schedule. Our circulation department and our professional mailer in Charlotte have so successfully pre-sorted our mailing list that, at present, we have almost reduced the effect of the postal increase to one-half. In round figures this means we have cut an approximately $40,000 annual increase in our postal costs to $20,000. We had already allowed for a 33% increase in postage for 1982 when this year's budget was adopted by the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. at its annual meeting Dec. 9, 1981. The unexpected move to double postage rates by the Board of Governors of the U.S. Postal Service was not announced until Dec. 23, 1981, to be effective as of Jan. 10, 1982. Thus, publications like the Advocate were caught completely by surprise without any lead time to adjust their budgets.

It is highly possible, depending upon the outcome of the February subscription campaign, that the Advocate will have to return to an every-other-week publication schedule unless the two annual conferences are willing to agree upon some formula for sharing the postal increase thereby maintaining the weekly publication schedule.

We at the Advocate have been extremely pleased that we are receiving very favorable reports on the Advocate; its style, content, photographs, and variety of news, features and devotional material. Many of our readers who have been subscribers for a number of years tell us the newspaper is better than it's ever been before. And, that is as it should be. Each editor in turn should be bringing the Advocate one rung higher on the ladder which leads to perfection.

The Advocate is blessed with a devoted, competent, enthusiastic staff who have put in countless hours of overtime without additional cost to the Board of Publication. The newspaper is also blessed with volunteer writers who do our weekly and every-other-week features for us as a labor of love without any remuneration whatsoever. The publication is also blessed by the support of the bishops, district superintendents, Councils on Ministries, and ministers of both conferences. The success of a publication like the Advocate will always be greatly upon the enthusiastic support of the leaders in the two annual conferences.

Regardless of how the postal increase is handled, I foresee a successful future for the Advocate as the official publication of United Methodism in North Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,
C.A. Simonton, Jr., Editor

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC. Recommendations

We recommend that:

1. A subscription campaign for the North Carolina Christian Advocate will be held in February 1983, for both the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference, including at least one meeting in each of the 26 districts set aside specifically to train local church Advocate Representatives and pastors in renewal procedures, new subscription solicitation, news writing, and photography. February 27, 1983, is suggested as Advocate emphasis Sunday.
2. Each local church accepts as its minimum goal of Advocate subscriptions 10% of its membership. For example, a church with 500 members would be expected to have a minimum of 50 families and/or individuals subscribing to the Advocate.
3. That the Advocate continue to offer special subscription rates for churches in which every resident family subscribes to the Advocate, and for churches in which every family on the Administrative Board subscribes to the Advocate. The former to be known as an All-Family Plan church and the latter as an All-Administrative Board Plan Church. In small membership churches where the functions of the Council on Ministries have been combined with those of the Administrative Board to form an Administrative Council, the rates shall be the same as those for All-Administrative Board Plan churches. In All-Administrative Board Plan churches (including those with Administrative Councils) all other subscriptions may be entered at the special All-Administrative Board Plan rate.
4. Each local church be prepared to report to the 1982 fall Charge Conference its willingness to participate in the February 1983 subscription campaign, reporting progress to date on reaching the minimum 10%-of-its-membership subscription goal.

5. Each local church nominate to the 1982 fall Charge Conference the name of a person to be its Advocate representative and that this person be a member of the Administrative Board or Administrative Council of that Church.

H. Langill Watson, Secretary

THE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE REPORT

The purpose of this special statement about the North Carolina Christian Advocate is to alert our two annual conferences to the fact that at the 1983 session of each conference, the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. is requesting a definitive statement on the future of the Advocate. Until that time the Methodist Board of Publication has voted to use its own resources to maintain the present publication schedule.

In June of 1983 the two conferences will be given several possible publication schedules with a cost breakdown for each one. Each conference will be asked to vote on the publication schedule it prefers. On the basis of this vote the Advocate staff will then be directed to produce a newspaper for each conference, according to the publication schedule it has chosen.

The Advocate has been published continuously since 1855. It has, through the years, provided an invaluable service to the people called Methodist in North Carolina. It is the only publication in which Methodists across the state can share their special events with one another. It is the only publication providing Methodists with news of district and conference actions on a regular basis, as well as news about our General Boards and Agencies and our sister denominations. The Advocate not only keeps us in touch with one another at all levels of our common Church life, but also provides its readers with many special features of both general and theological interest. Many of our writers and poets have "made it into print" for the first time through the pages of the Advocate.

The rising cost of printing and mailing the Advocate will require continued and consistent support of our two annual conferences. The Board of Publication feels the two conferences need to face up squarely to this obligation in 1983, deciding at the time upon the level of support they are willing to provide in accordance with the possible publication schedules which will be presented.

The Advocate trustees come with this urgent, pointed and strong statement that one year hence, in 1983, the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina conferences must decide whether or not we want the Advocate; to realize that we cannot face the future with approximately 20,000 subscriptions from 500,000 United Methodists; to decide to adequately subsidize, or finance this valuable organ of communication. We are alerting you that we have one year in which to study, analyze, plan and decide on a new and adequate method of support. (Circulation is 22,149 with 9,309 in N.C. Conference & 12,840 in Western N.C. Conference Subgoal 10% Membership is 242, 117 in N.C. Conference & 135 in Western N.C. Conference.)

It is the fervent hope of the Board of Publication that the decision made at the two conferences in June of 1983 will bring the Advocate into the place of prominence it deserves. The Board further feels this kind of commitment will go a long toward providing the 10%-of-membership circulation figure which has been a state-wide goal for the past several years.

METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC. REPORT

This past year, our 27th, again reflects a very favorable performance for the Methodist Foundation, Inc. For the year ending December 31, 1981, net dividends paid to unit holders was $1,114,654 compared with $847,484 for the previous year, an increase of $267,170. Total net assets at year end had a market value of $10,367,405.

During 1981 the Board of Pensions elected, according to General Conference guidelines, to join the General Board of Pensions and advised the Foundation that on December 31, 1981, a substantial payment in cash would be required. Accordingly, the earnings level and liquidity of assets were such that only 58,578 units representing $62,443.25 had to be withdrawn to meet the requirement of the General Board of Pensions.

The Foundation is ever mindful of our responsibility for investment of funds, of all agencies of the Conference, but are especially aware of the fact that over 83% of the assets of the oundation, or $8,597,089, continue to represent units held by the Board of Pensions and the Ministers' Retirement Fund.

The Trust Department of Wachovia Bank & Trust Company continues to manage the total investment portfolio (exclusive of mortgage loans) within guidelines set by the Investment Committee.

Since resuming responsibility for the Office of Deferred Giving on January 1, 1979, this office has been without a director, therefore relatively inactive. It is the Foundation's unanimous opinion that this office should be activated. To that end the Foundation has recommended that an Officer of Planned Giving be established with the approval of the Annual Conference. The Foundation is prepared to direct and supervise the office when established.

The annual audit for the year ending December 31, 1981, is on file in the Conference Treasurer's Office for review by any member of the Conference.

There is reason to believe that the current year will reflect continued progress in the overall performance of the Methodist Foundation, Inc.

METHODIST MINISTERS CREDIT UNION REPORT

There is a story about a member of the North Carolina Conference who retired in 1911 that I'd like to share, for it has a moral for our credit union in these uncertain and treacherous economic times.

A merchant in Buie's Creek was taken to court by an unhappy customer. The merchant asked the Reverend W.A. Forbes to appear in court as a character witness. The request was denied by the minister. Subsequently a subpoena was served on him by the sheriff. Under command, the minister appeared and was placed on the witness stand. This is the reported dialogue:

Attorney: Will you state to this court your name.

Witness: William A. Forbes

Attorney: What is your profession?

Witness: Methodist preacher.

Attorney: Do you know the defendant?

Witness: I do.

Attorney: Do you have an opinion as to his character?

Witness: I do.

Attorney: Please state your opinion to this court.

Witness: There is some good and there is some bad. I pray God daily that the good will overcome the bad.

Attorney: Come down.

There is some good and some bad in my report, and it is hard to separate the two, so I'll share the good and bad as they come to mind.

1. Assets are up from last May by $57,300.43 to $1,356,292.48.
2. Shares dropped from $751,555.63 to $714,796.32, showing a loss of $36,759.31.
3. Deposits grew from $490,302.25 to $567,165.00, for a gain of $76,862.75.
4. Dividends on shares held at 5½% compounded quarterly, but the cost was the greatest ever — $39,620.80 in 1981.
5. Interest on regular deposits continued at 5¼% compounded quarterly. The interest on Silver and Golden Depositsgrams.

We invite all eligible persons to use the full services of Methodist Ministers Credit Union.

They include:

1. Savings:

a. Shares ($25.00 each) — Shares currently earn 5.5% per annum compounded quarterly. All eligible shares earn life insurance on the first $3000.00.

b. Deposits —

(1) Silver — Earn 1% less than 6 months Money Market Certificate if the Deposit balance is between $1000.00 and $5000.00. If the balance is between $5000.00 and $10,000.00, the rate is ½% less than 6 months Money Market Certificates.

(2) Golden — Earn ¼% less than 6 months Money Market Certificates when balance is $10,000.00 or above.

The rates for these accounts are set on the first day of each calendar quarter.

These funds are not subject to the substantial penalty of Money Market Certificates. They may be withdrawn on the first day of any calendar quarter without penalty, provided request is in writing thirty days prior to the end of the quarter.

They may be withdrawn on the first day of any month with a ten-day written notice, with a 2% cut in the rate on the portion withdrawn.

Laymen, lay women, and churches are invited to take part in the Golden and Silver Deposit program.

2. LOANS are of three kinds. Loan Protection Insurance is provided without cost to the debtor on all insurable loans up to $10,000.00 for each borrower. The coverage is for death to age 70 and total and permanent disability to age 60.

a. ESTATE LOANS are for the purpose of buying Credit Union shares and are made at 11% APR. Dividends on $3,000.00, when compounded quarterly at 5.5% per annum, total $532.57 at the end of 36 months. The interest paid on the note in 36 months is $535.80. The net cost to the investor is $3.23! For this cost the investor has the following protection in force for his/her family for 36 months:

$3,000.00 in Shares

$3,000.00 Life Insurance

$3,000.00 Double Indemnity, accidental loss of sight or dismemberment of limbs

$1,500.00 Average Loan Protection insurance coverage against death to age 70 and total and permanent disability to age 60

b. PERSONAL LOANS are made for any provident or productive purpose. There are two types of these:

1. SECURED — These range in rate from 16% APR to 18% APR and may be for 36 months generally. New cars (current models) may be financed for up to 48 months. Loans for used cars four or more model years old are limited to 24 months.

2. UNSECURED — These are made without pledge of collateral equal in value to the amount of the note. These are made at 18% APR.

The rate charged on various loans is related to the risk assumed by the Credit Union.

3. FINANCIAL COUNSELING (Money Management) — This may be divided into two types:

a. For those with over-extended credit. (A staff member has completed three sessions at Florida State University in study of Consumer Credit Counseling and is now a graduate of that school.)

b. For those with surplus funds to invest. Your Credit Union will try to give unbiased counsel in either case, making suggestions on what seems to be for your personal good. Referrals are made in both situations when more expertise is needed.

Let us pool our resources to help each other. The dividend paid should rise with a growth of significance. Interest rates could also be lowered. Let us go forward together.

Thanks to all who have had a part in making this report possible.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

New Levels of Energy

New levels of energy are felt in our conference in the growth and response to the Missions of Christ in our conference national and global mission projects. Congregations across our conference have increased interest, giving and personal involvement at every level.

Combined Energies

Combined energies in our districts have resulted in Mission emphasis weekends, pastor's dialogues, festivals with over 650 interpretations events to inform, guide and inspire concerned Christians. This has been reflected in:

"ADVANCE" ENERGY — Last year our report showed our conference with a minus 34% in giving to the Advance and number 16 out of 17 conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. In 1982, in the percentage increase in Advance giving, we are now at plus 64% and number 1 in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. This response is excellent and gives us an even greater challenge for 1983.

INCREASING ENERGIES — have been felt in the Ten Dollar Club with another significant increase in membership. The dynamic new Saint Francis United Methodist Church beginning in Cary, North Carolina and a sister church in Africa are among those who benefited from this outreach of our conference.

The Volunteers-In-Missions Committee

The volunteers-in-missions committee has provided leadership not only in our conference, but at the national level as this phase of involvement continues to expand dramatically. Teams from our conference went to Jamaica and the West Indies in addition to providing guidance to many local teams.

Immediate Energies Are Needed

Immediate energies are needed to meet the increasing human needs in our communities, to give real emphasis to the Missional Priority the Ethnic Minority/Local Church development. The Conference Board will continue to seek ways to give emphasis to this tremendous need.

The Goldsboro District is initiating a vital outreach ministry with the Migrant workers in Duplin County in response to the misery and human needs brought dramatically to our attention in North Carolina this year.

Concerned for the complex global issues reflected in Central America, the Council of Bishops made possible dialogues across our nation by church leaders from Central and South America. The leadership of our conference met with them on April 2nd for an in depth discussion of our role as Christians in meeting the needs of the Global Community.

Generating Energy

Generating energy is the work of the Board of Missions. Projected events for 1983 will be a Conference Missions Rally on March 13, 1983 celebrating the 150th anniversary of a missionary leaving the U.S.A. for a foreign field — Melville Cox from Edenton Street United Methodist Church — our heritage is our challenge and our inspiration.

NOTICE OF APPEAL TO JUDICIAL COUNCIL

TO THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL THROUGH THE SECRETARY OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE AND THE PRESIDING BISHOP OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

NOTICE OF APPEAL FROM A RULING OF THE NEW BERN DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT THE REVEREND J. MALLOY OWEN III MADE NOVEMBER 11, 1981, WHILE PRESIDING AT THE FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH CONFERENCE, NINTH AND BRIDGES STREET, MOREHEAD CITY, NORTH CAROLINA, 28557, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE P 2625, SECTION 5.(b), AND OTHERS.

CERTIFICATION OF CHURCH CONFERENCE SECRETARY CHERIE P. GUTHRIE (MRS. JIMMY GUTHRIE) OF THE PROCEEDINGS (NEITHER VERBATIM NOR IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER), THE RULING, AND EXCEPTIONS TAKEN BY S.A. CHALK, JR. 2406 EVANS STREET (P.O. BOX 1318), MOREHEAD CITY, NORTH CAROLINA, 28557, A MEMBER IN GOOD STANDING HERINAFTER REFERRED TO AS APPELLANT WITH PARAGRAPH CITATIONS FURNISHED BY HIM.

STATEMENT

1. The Reverend J. Malloy Owen III, P.O. Box 2425, New Bern, North Carolina, 28560, hereinafter referred to as the Chair presided at the above referred to Conference.
2. Appellant arose on a point of order to request recognition during a report of the Nominating Committee to obtain a ruling on the validity and legality of restrictions placed on Administrative Board membership by the November 13, 1977, Church Conference involving The Discipline Paragraphs 244 through 249, 253, 2524, Section 2, 2526, Section 5(b), 2612, and others set forth in the minutes as follows:

(A) "Reverend Brown moved that this Church Conference go on record saying only persons that help pay the budget of this church are eligible to be members of the Administrative Board. Tommy Noe moved for an amendment to read that if a person makes a statement that he supports the church budget financially, he may serve on the Administrative Board. The amendment carried 75 to 58. The motion as amended carried 73 to 61."

The Chair requested deferral of action until the close of nominations and agreed to by appellant.

The Chair ruled (A) above was a legal and valid restriction explaining a Bishop had presided when this was adopted, and he would feel personally out of order as a subordinate to the present Bishop to rule that his predecessor was incorrect in his decision.

3. Appellant stated he would appeal the ruling as set forth above as invalid, illegal, and unenforceable on the following grounds;

- 1) The Bishop presiding at the time of approval of (A) above was not acting as Bishop, but on his appointment as an elder (P 248-4) to act in place of the District Superintendent, which placed him in the position as Presiding Bishop of the North Carolina Conference of hearing appeals and executing judgment on his own actions (P 2625-5a).
- 2) The Book of Discipline does not authorize such action (P 201-274).
- 3) It could not be applied to an ex officio member who by law is entitled to full privileges of membership; if in fact it is applicable and enforceable as to any member (P253, 2524-2).
- 4) No definition of support is contained in the resolution, so its application is vague, ambiguous, uncertain, incapable of interpretation with arbitrary results, and conflicting with the oath of membership requiring only gifts in the financial sense rather than "supporting the church budget" in order to meet eligibility requirements (P 216, 217, and others).
- 5) Any restriction of Administrative Board membership must be applicable to the entire church membership; otherwise, there will be two or more classes of membership not authorized (P 216, 217).
- 6) Application of the requirement is inconsistent with church law since members in a local church would not be equal with members in other local churches, producing inequities for which there would be no remedy (P216, 217, and others).
- 7) The proper remedy to prevent any lawful member from holding office is expulsion for cause (P 2620, 2621-2, and others).
- 8) It is arbitrary, unreasonable, and defective to restrict the voting rights of a member of a parliamentary body not provided for in the rules of the body attempting to apply or enforce such restriction without following the requirements (P 2620, 2621-2, and others).
- 9) Any parliamentary body may prescribe and enforce rules of conduct, define operations, and determine eligibility of candidates for membership; however, it cannot impose restrictions on voting rights unless these are set forth in documents authorizing the body (P 253, 2524-2, and others).
- 10) Failure to follow prescribed courses set forth in the Book of Discipline on legal questions can only result in misunderstanding and error contrary to Christian teaching and example (P 2620, 2621-2, and others).
- 11) Any member in good standing is eligible for Administrative Board membership except under general limitations not related to the action of the November 13, 1977, Church Conference, would be in violation of his trust were he to relinquish any of his rights either prior to or after assuming office; conversely, refusal to relinquish and rights of membership would be an affirmation of his trust (P 253, 2542-2, and others).
- 12) Appellant gave written notice in thirty days as required by P 2625, Section 5(b).
- 13) Appellant stated he was informed and believed the Judicial Council had ruled no restriction could be imposed requiring a member to tithe in order to serve on an Administrative Board, and, if true a reasonable inference would be that financial support requirements of any kind as a precondition for Administrative Board membership could not be valid and legal since in conflict with P253, 2524-2, and others.
- 14) Appellant therefore prays for relief through reversal of the above referred to ruling of the Chair and such other relief as may be appropriate.

BISHOP CANNON'S RESEARCH & SUMMARY OF APPEAL

TO THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL THROUGH THE SECRETARY OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE AND THE PRESIDING BISHOP OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

NOTICE OF APPEAL FROM A RULING OF THE NEW BERN DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT, THE REVEREND J. MALLOY OWEN, III, MADE NOVEMBER 11, 1981, WHILE PRESIDING AT THE FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH CONFERENCE, NINTH AND BRIDGES STREET, MOREHEAD CITY, NORTH CAROLINA 28557.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

A member of the church asked the District Superintendent at the Church Conference on November 11, 1981, to rule on the validity of restrictions placed on Administrative Board members by the Church Conference on November 13, 1977, which passed a motion that "only members who state that they will support the budget of First United Methodist Church, Prehead City, are eligible to serve on the Administrative Board." The superintendent ruled that the action taken was a valid restriction.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The action taken was a confirmation of a motion that had been passed by the Church Conference of that charge on November 13, 1977. This had been done to prevent persons from serving on the Administrative Board who openly opposed the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church, grants made to various causes by several of our national boards and agencies, and the work of the World Council of Churches, National Council of Churches, and the Commission on Christian Unity and Ecumenical Concerns.

The reason given for the action was that "persons who state their refusal to support the church through the budget are not competent to expend that Budget." Par. 253 of the Discipline was cited in support of this action:

"Members of the Administrative Board shall be persons of genuine Christian character who love the Church, are morally disciplined, are loyal to the ethical standards of the United Methodist Church set forth in the Social Principles, and are competent to administer its affairs."

The appellant was, at the time the motion was adopted, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the church, and therefore an ex-officio member of the Administrative Board. He was allowed to retain his membership on the board until his term expired.

ANALYSIS:

Any local congregation can adopt whatever procedures and policies it deems necessary to regulate its own affairs and to govern its selection of leaders on its Administrative Board and other agencies and committees, so long as these policies and procedures do not contravene provisions in the Discipline of the United Methodist Church governing the organization and administration of a local church.

Paragraph 253 of the 1980 Discipline reads as follows:

"The membership of the Administrative Board shall consist of the following insofar as the offices and relationships exist within the local church:

"The pastor and the associate pastor or pastors; diaconal ministers, deaconesses, and home missionaries appointed to serve therein; church and community workers under appointment by and certified by the National Division of the Board of Global Ministries, providing their memberships are in said local church, with an advisory relationship in all other churches to which they are assigned; the lay leader(s); the lay member(s) of the Annual Conference; chairperson of the trustees; the church administrator (business manager); the chairperson of the Committee on Finance; the chairperson of the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations; the secretary of the Committee on Nominations and Personnel; the church treasurer(s); the financial secretary; the director or the associate of Christian education or the educational assistant; the director of the associate of evangelism; the director or the associate of music or the music assistant; the chairperson of the Council on Ministries; the work area chairpersons; the age-level and family coordinators; the superintendent of the church school; the health and welfare ministries representative; the coordinator of communications; the membership secretary; the president of the United Methodist Women; the president of the United Methodist Men; the president of the United Methodist Youth Council; members at large (Par. 247.2)."

The Discipline takes precedence over the rules and regulations adopted by any local church or congregation. Therefore, the motion restricting membership on the Administrative Board contravenes the explicit statement in the Discipline that persons holding certain offices in the church are thereby automatically members of the Administrative Board, whether elected by a church or Charge Conference or not. If a person holds one of these offices in the local church, he or she must be given full membership on the Administrative Board whether that person contributes to the budget of the church or not.

It is reasonable to suppose, however, that any loyal and devout member of the United Methodist Church, no matter how meager his resources, would gladly support financially the program of the church. It is likewise understandable why a person who does not believe enough in the work of the United Methodist Church to support it would not be chosen to hold a position of leadership in a local church.

Each local church has its own Committee on Nominations, and that committee has every right to refuse to nominate to any position in the church a person or persons who, out of disagreement over policies, refuse to support financially the program of the United Methodist Church. It is by the Committee on Nominations, and later through it, by the Charge or Church Conference, that this decision should be made.

Though it is unnecessary, I see no reason why any local church could not adopt for the guidance of the Committee on Nominations such a policy that would exclude from positions of leadership persons who refuse to support the budget of the church, but that policy would have to apply to all boards, commissions, committees, and agencies within the local congregation, if it were to be effective. For otherwise a person might acquire a position that under the Discipline would automatically give him membership on the Administrative Board.

What a local congregation does governing its own policies and procedures is its own business, so long as its action does not in any way contravene the Discipline of the United Methodist Church or violate the doctrine, discipline, and polity of the United Methodist Church.

In Decision No. 472 of the Judicial Council, the Council itself states that it "is limited to the making of rulings as to the constitutionality, meaning, application and effect of the Discipline or any portion thereof...." Therefore, if a local church adopts a policy that does not infringe on an explicit statement of the Discipline and does not in any way contradict the Discipline, in order by that policy to achieve the goals set for it by the general church and accomplish its aims as a vital part of the body of Christ, then it is free to do so.

However, the church at Morehead City by its action did infringe upon the Discipline by passing a ruling that did not take into account the ex-officio membership of the Administrative Board.

IV. DECISION:

Therefore, the motion adopted by the Church Conference "that only members who state they support the budget of First United Methodist Church, Morehead City, are eligible to serve on the Administrative Board" is invalid and must be set aside because it violates the provisions of the Discipline of the United Methodist Church, as stated in Paragraph 253.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE DECISION ON APPEAL

The requirement for a Notice of Appeal to be sent to the Judicial Council is that one-fifth of the Conference body must vote to send the Appeal to the Council.

The Annual Conference body did not sustain sending this Appeal to the Judicial Council.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY ANNUAL REPORT — 1982

Ordination Service for Deacons and Elders

The ordination service always provides one of the high moments of any Annual Conference Session, for it reflects the dedication and commitment of its ministers. Again our ordination services will be the initial events of the Conference on Sunday afternoon and evening in Reeves Auditorium on the Methodist College campus. The Board of Ordained Ministry presented a total of seven men and women to be ordained as Deacons and thirty-two to be ordained as Elders. At the Executive Session of the Annual Conference nine persons were presented for Probationary Membership, one for Associate Membership, and thirty-two for Full Connection. Together with a large number being recommended for the Local Pastor relationship, these ministerial status recommendations represent a total of more than eight full days of interview periods and related meetings for the thirty members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. The Board and District Committees on the Ordained Ministry provide guidance and support for persons seeking to become ordained ministers. Approximately one hundred persons, male and female, and representative of all three racial groups within our Conference, are now in the various stages of preparation for Conference membership and ordination in the years to come.

Evaluation of the Effectiveness of Pastoral Ministry

One of the major efforts carried out by the Board of Ordained Ministry during the past year has been the development of a process for the evaluation of pastoral ministry. A joint committee of members of the Board and the Cabinet have spent nearly eighteen months in consultations, training sessions, and work sessions to draft a sample set of questionnaires for use by Pastor Parish Relations Committees, pastors, and District Superintendents. A basic overview of the evaluation process was introduced in the January Workshops, and further meetings have been held in each district with the pastors and members of the Pastor Parish Relations Committees to receive responses to the sample questionnaires. The Joint Committee on Evaluation will use this feedback from both pastors and laity to help frame the questionnaires to be used during the coming Conference Year.

Continuing Education

Our Conference members are participating more extensively each year in continuing education events. In addition to a wide variety of opportunities offered through the Duke Divinity School, conference members have studied this year at the Candler School of Theology, Louisburg College, KirkrIDGE Retreat Center, and Lake Junaluska. While events that are funded by the Duke Endowment must be related to the Duke Divinity School, those funded by the Continuing Education Committee, the applicant's charge, or the applicant are not thus restricted. However, the Continuing Education Committee will not fund events that do not offer at least one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) and otherwise meet the standards adopted by the 1981 Annual Conference.

Conference members may apply for maximum one-week grants of $150.00, or $300.00 for a two-week event. Each charge is requested to provide at least $200.00 annually for their pastor's continuing education, available through voucher for events attended, and allowed to accumulate, if desired by the pastor, over several years toward a possible longer and more expensive continuing education event.

We are pleased with the response of our clergy and laity to this stronger emphasis on continuing education and look with hope to fruit it will bear in the future.

Ministerial Education Fund Assistance

The Ministerial Education Fund remains the major source of support for theological education in The United Methodist Church for the 1981-1984 quadrennium. When the local church remits the Ministerial Education Fund to the Conference Treasurer, it is divided two ways. The larger portion (75%) is sent on to the Division of Higher Education and Ministry in Nashville to be divided among the United Methodist seminaries for their operating expenses and for scholarship help to minority and special students. The remaining 25% portion is retained by the Board of Ordained Ministry in the North Carolina Conference.

The Board of Ordained Ministry may use its funds to provide scholarship assistance for ministerial education, for continuing education, and for recruitment. However, the amount of funds available during the past few years and the number of students seeking to prepare for ordained ministry have made necessary the use of almost all of the funds for scholarship for ministerial candidates.

Ministerial Education Fund raised in 1980 (84% of Apportionment)	$182,687.97
Portion retained by Board of Ordained Ministry (25% of total)	45,671.96
Assistance granted (1981-1982 Academic Year):
Scholarships to ministerial candidates (66 students)	51,723.00
Loan assumptions for persons received by transfer	1,000.00
Funds recovered:
Individuals making repayment after being discontinued	5,583.95
Annual Conference reimbursement for transfer out	3,450.00
Scholarships granted:
Seminaries — 61
Asbury Theological Seminary	3
Boston University School of Theology	1
Candler School of Theology, Emory University	1
The Divinity School, Duke University	47
Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist Univ.	1
Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary	8

Colleges — 5

Atlantic Christian College	2
Elon College	1
North Carolina Wesleyan College	1
UNC — Chapel Hill	1

Grants to students eligible for full scholarship were based on 35% of the actual educational cost (tuition and fees and an annual $200.00 book allowance).

For students at Duke Divinity School this was $1,134.00 for full-time (four courses) students and $868.00 for student pastors (three courses) annually. At Southeastern this was $491.00 for full time students and $368.00 for less than full time students annually.

The need to continue our support of the Ministerial Education Fund at the present level, and to increase where possible, is borne out by these statistics of our present group of students preparing for ministry and the need to move further into continuing education opportunities for the ministers already in the field.

Pastoral Care

A statement about the concern of this committee being to improve the quality of life for persons in ministry (and their families if they have any) by helping to alleviate the needs, problems, and stresses of such persons. To this end the committee:

1. Makes available and helps finance counseling services to ministers (including diaconal ministers) and families on an anonymous basis.
2. Encourages and helps finance workshops on Marriage Enrichment (up to $500.00) for pastors and their spouses.
3. Recommends workshops in each district on "Time Management and Priority Setting" — possibly using the community college system.
4. Recommends spouses of pastors be included in retreats and other growth opportunities.
5. Recommends use of free services of Consumer Credit Counseling Services of Raleigh and Wilmington for financial problems.
6. Distributes a booklet on Parsonage Living to help with stress thereof.
7. Stands ready to help parsonage families with implementation of results of Annual Conference action in response to recommendations of the committee appointed to study the Parsonage System.
8. Distributes periodically a sheet of examples of good growth opportunities for pastors and their families to inspire possibilities for other districts and groups.
9. Encourages clergy families to be supportive of each other especially in times of stress such as moving, divorce, illness, death, change in type of ministry, etc.

Regular meetings of "cluster groups" are also considered important. The Pastoral Care Committee is working on other ways to be of help, and welcomes suggestions.

Psychological Testing and Evaluation

There is substantial evidence of a need for a program/process to assist the candidate for ordained ministry in identifying and exploring the meaning, origin, and implications of the sense of calling, in effectively assessing his/her gifts and graces, and in comparing the capacities needed for ministry with those discovered in one's self. There is equal need to assist the candidate in dealing constructively with those areas that are or could become problem areas which would hinder effective ministry. The Church has the continuing responsibility to take the lead in the process of enabling Her ministers to become the most skilled, capable, and effective servants of God possible.

To this end, the Board of Ordained Ministry has established a Committee on Psychological Testing and Evaluation that began to provide an adequate program of testing and evaluation for those candidates seeking a membership relationship in the North Carolina Conference in 1982.

North Carolina Pastors School

Each year during the Duke Convocation and Pastors School, a number of opportunities are presented for the further growth and development of ministers in the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. Planning for these activities is done by the Board of Managers, composed of an equal number of ministers from each conference. The following nominations are presented for membership on the Board of Manager from the North Carolina Conference:

Class of 1983 — Paul W. Boone, Emerson M. Thompson, Jr.

Class of 1984 — G. Robert McKenzie, Jr., Charles M. Smith

Class of 1985 — Albert F. Fisher, William W. Sherman, Jr.

Class of 1986 — F. Owen Fitzgerald, Judi J. Smith

Pension Funding Crusade

The Pension Funding Crusade has been one of the most encouraging experiences that your Conference Board of Pensions has ever been privileged to share. Our concern has always been to provide the most adequate retirement benefits that we could through funds provided through the Conference budget.

Even as we moved into the funding process to put our retirement plan on a more solid basis (and eventually cost less to operate) the Board of Pensions faced the large share of the Conference budget that was required each year to accomplish our purpose. The overwhelming response of the laity of the Conference, however, in the current Pension Funding Crusade reveals that we have sustained strong support in our work because the people of the congregations have always had a great concern for the welfare of their pastors, both active and retired.

The achievement of the Crusade has been more than just the accumulation of funds, as important as that goal was. A reaffirmation of the principles of the whole pension program has been voiced by people who were presented with a goal that represented sacrifice and devotion, who accepted and then oversubscribed the goal with warmth and appreciation, and who have been meeting that commitment with regularity and integrity.

Your Board of Pensions thanks every participant and every charge for the faithful work of this Crusade and pledges its best efforts in the years to come in the administration of these funds you have so generously provided.

14. We recommend that a necessitous allowance equal to one-third of the Conference Average Salary be paid for one year to Charles Irvin Umstead, Jr. In addition to this monthly allowance, insurance premiums for hospitalization and life insurance would be paid for the same period. The expense for these provisions will come from the Emergency Relief Fund.

15. We recommend several special grants:

- a. For ministers being left without appointment:
 - (1) Robert Francis Randalls (FTLP), a grant $500.00 per month for a period of one year or until full time permanent employment is obtained.
 - (2) William Floyd Cupit (FTLP), a grant equal to $100.00 times 4 years of full time service.
- b. For the family of a minister being terminated:
 - (1) Mrs. Bobby Ray Whitfield, a grant of $500.00.

Report B. Recommendations for the Pension Program

The advent of the new Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan in the North Carolina Conference on January 1, 1982, came at the end of a year-long period of study, deliberation, and education. The Conference Board of Pensions, together with Bishop Cannon, the Cabinet, and the Council on Finance and Administration, spent a number of hours looking at the various options that the new pension plan provided. The end result of those discussions was presented to and adopted by the 1981 Session of the North Carolina Conference.

During the summer and early fall of 1981, a number of meetings were held in each district to better inform members of the Administrative Boards of the financial requirements for the new program as their charges were building their budget for 1982. Charge Conferences held during the fall of 1982 revealed careful planning and a very sympathetic response from the charges to the new plan.

Much anticipation filled the month of January 1982, as the new billings were sent to the charges. A great sense of accomplishment was realized at the end of the month, however, when the report revealed that less than 25 charges failed to remit their full monthly responsibility. The report each month since January has been as good or better, for only 18 charges were overdue at the end of April. This response is a most excellent beginning for our new pension plan, and we commend our churches and their lay and ministerial leadership for this record of accomplishment. We can only ask for your continuing support in this same fashion.

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past Service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan is expected to continue until all persons with past service benefits and their surviving spouses have died.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has always been 1% of the Conference Average Salary.

Take Cash Income (salary plus utilities)	$15,000.00 (for example)
Add Housing Allowance (20% of cash income)	3,000.00
	$18,000.00

Use this set of figures for all full time conference members (Full, Associate, and Probationary) and derive the average. This becomes the Conference Average Salary. The 1982 CAS for the North Carolina Conference is $15,240.00.

- C. The current rate is $142.00 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference continue to increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Salary increases, to at least 0.9% to continue to participate in the new pension programs fully. We propose that the past service rate for 1983 be $152.00 per service year. Further increases will be presented to the Annual Conference in the future as the Conference Average Salary increases.
- D. Prior to 1972 we raised monies for pensions one year and spent it the next. The only reserves that were accumulated came by way of planned benefits not being paid because of the death of the recipient.
- E. To fund the past service rate with the General Board of Pensions will require an annual payment of $1,024,729 for the next thirty years and an annual payment of $975,189 for an additional eight years.

F. 1983 Operating Budget
Annual Cost for Past Service Liability ($152 rate)	$1,024,729
Insurance program for retired families:
Blue Cross/Blue Shield Hospitalization Insurance	145,000
Group Life Insurance	3,000
Pension costs for ministers in Conference appointments	100,000
Pension Support Fund	210,519
Board of Pensions administration	7,500
Total Budget	$1,489,748
Less: Methodist Foundation earnings (estimated 1983)	- 500,000
Amount being raised in 1982 for 1983 Budget	989,748

G. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.

B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary plus utilities)	$15,000.00 and
Add Housing Allowance (20% of cash income)	+ 3,000.00 and
Plan Compensation will be	$18,000.00

1. No travel funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations as this is considered by the General Board of Pensions to be an item of local expense.

2. The utility allowance of a pastor is not considered to be more than 10% of the total Cash Income, regardless of the amount set by the local church at its Charge Conference.

3. For the 1982-1986 quadrennium, the funding formula will not include an amount for utilities. This means that only 90% of the Cash Income will be the base for Plan Compensation.

4. Where housing is provided as a part of the compensation for an appointment, the Housing Allowance will be calculated on the basis of 20% of cash income even if the pastor is provided a cash housing allowance.

C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly to the Conference Treasurer for transmission to the General Board of Pensions.

D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship. The following options are available at that time:

1. A life annuity with 100% to the surviving contingent annuitant.
2. A life annuity with 75% to the surviving contingent annuitant.
3. A life annuity with 50% to the surviving contingent annuitant.
4. A single-life annuity with ten years certain.
5. A single-life annuity with five years certain.
6. A single-life, (no refund) annuity.

E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.

F. We recommend that the cost for the Ministerial Pension Plan for 1983 continue to be a 9% contribution of actual Plan Compensation.

I. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provision of a death benefit for either the spouse or the surviving spouse of the minister, the comprehensive plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers serving full time.

1. Death benefits provide 150% of Denominational Average Salary as the benefit paid on the death of a minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 105% at age 55, 70% at age 62, and 20% upon retirement at any age.

2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Salary.

3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation. This would provide every minister in the North Carolina Conference under appointment to a full time charge (Conference Member and Local Pastor) with an annual Church Account accumulation of 9% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Salary.

B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.1% contribution of actual Plan Compensation. The minister will be required to pay 1% of the 4.1% as provided in the Comprehensive Protection Plan, and the church or charge will pay the additional 3.1%

IV. Minister's Personal Account

A. The pension program provides that a minister who participates in the Ministerial Pension Plan shall contribute 3% of actual Plan Compensation annually to his/her Personal Account.

B. These funds would be available in a lump sum or in a variety of other options when the minister reaches age 60, or may be left to accumulate as an additional amount for monthly pension benefits.

V. Implementation of the Program

The benefit program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in times of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Salary.

A. Costs of the past service pension program would be transmitted to the local church through the Outreach Ministries — Fair Share Apportionment.

B. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local church as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the church.

Full Time (Conference Member or Local Pastor) — 12.1% of Plan Compensation
 Student (Conference Member or Local Pastor) — 9% of Plan Compensation
 Less than Full Time (Conference Member or Local Pastor) — 9% of salary

C. Monthly payments from the local church for the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan MUST be paid to the Conference Treasurer monthly so the Conference Treasurer can make his monthly payment to the General Board of Pensions as required by the Plan. Failure of the local church to make these monthly payments will jeopardize the minister's participation in the Plan and diminish his/her future benefits.

D. The minister will make regular payments to the Conference Treasurer for his/her portion (1%) of the Comprehensive Protection Plan.

E. The minister will make regular payments to the General Board of Pensions for his/her Personal Account (3%).

F. Request from Council on Finance and Administration to be included in 1983 Outreach Ministries — Fair Share Budget:

Annual Cost for Past Service Liability ($162 rate)	$1,075,000
Insurance Program for retired families:
Blue Cross/Blue Shield Hospitalization Insurance	160,000
Group Life Insurance	3,000
Pension costs for ministers in Conference appointments	110,000
Pension Support Fund	49,248
Board of Pensions administration	7,500
	Total budget $1,404,948
Less: Methodist Foundation earnings (estimated 1984)	- 500,000
Amount requested to be raised in 1983 for 1984 budget	$904,948

The budget request for 1983 is $65,000 less than is carried in the 1982 budget.

VI. Summary

It is obvious that there has been a great improvement in the benefits currently being received by our retired families. The per service year rate has increased from $82.00 per service year in 1978 to the present $142.00 yearly rate for 1982. A minister retiring this year with forty years of pension credit will receive monthly benefit of $473.33, compared with $273.33 in 1978.

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C. Ministers' Retirement Fund Constitution

The Constitution of the Ministers' Retirement Fund is herein restated to incorporate all of the modifications and revisions as contained in the reports of the Board of Pensions adopted by the 1975, 1976, and 1979 Sessions of the North Carolina Conference with appropriate editorial revisions.

CONSTITUTION

The Principle of the Fund

The Ministers' Retirement Fund is established to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship to the retired relationship by paying two lump sum benefits at the time of retirement. The Fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries — Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the Annual Conference that all ministers participate in the Fund. We do not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Retirement Fund as an additional benefit for their minister, but a benefit for all ministers of the conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he/she contributed to the Fund. We vigorously emphasize that this Fund is for the minister's retirement, and not any kind of emergency fund to be made available for any other purpose.

The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this fund. He shall promote this work, receive reports from the district superintendents, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of collections and benefits paid. The treasurer shall obtain the names of all ministers retiring at each Annual Conference, who are eligible to receive the lump sum payment, and pay them promptly any benefits to which they are entitled. Retirement benefits are to be paid only to those ministers who are retiring either because they have reached 65 (or 62 on reduced retirement benefits); because they have accrued 40 years of approved service (or 37 on reduced benefits); or because they are placed on Disability Leave.

Eligibility for Membership

Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Conference (Associate, Full or Probationary) or lay supply minister who is serving full time in a charge or other work by episcopal appointment, and such work is contributing to the minister's pension credit shall be eligible to join. In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member or lay supply minister must continue to serve full time in a charge or other work under episcopal appointment that contributes to the minister's pension credit. Membership in this Fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. Members may not be received retroactively. The period of enrollment for all ministers is January 1-31 of each year.

Ministerial members who transfer into the conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total remuneration for the seven months between June 1 and December 31 computed to twelve months.

A lay supply minister may continue as a member of the Ministers' Retirement Fund only during the time he/she is serving under episcopal appointment and earning pension credit.

Each new member to the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his/her membership becomes effective.

Assessments

Funds shall be placed in the conference budget annually equal to an amount of one per cent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other conference budget items.

Each minister in a pastoral appointment shall pay into the Fund one per cent (1%) of all money excluding travel he/she receives each year from the charge or charges he/she is serving and/or conference sources (this includes salary, utility allowances, Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment funds, and missionary sources).

The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to 1% of salary usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers employed by the Council on Ministries. District superintendents and Council on Ministries ministerial employees shall pay 1% of their income designated as salary and utilities.

All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall pay a sum equivalent to 2% of their annual salary and utility allowances, and if such minister has no such annual income he/she will pay 2% of the Average Conference Salary.

Deadline for Receipt of Payments

The fiscal year of the Ministers' Retirement Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. Each member of the Fund shall submit the required payment no later than January 31 of each year. Not later than December 1 of each year, the conference treasurer shall notify all members that this payment is due. Payments made after January 31 will be credited to the minister making the payment. However, if he/she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this delayed payment extends the period prior to dividend payments for one year. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he/she will collect no dividends for the year of delayed payment.

Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Retirement Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00
If retired at the end of two years of membership	300.00
If retired at the end of three years of membership	400.00
If retired at the end of four years of membership	500.00
If retired at the end of five years of membership	600.00
If retired at the end of six years of membership	700.00
If retired at the end of seven years of membership	800.00
If retired at the end of eight years of membership	900.00
If retired at the end of nine years of membership	1,000.00
If retired at the end of ten years of membership	1,100.00
If retired at the end of eleven years of membership	1,200.00
If retired at the end of twelve years of membership	1,300.00
If retired at the end of thirteen years of membership	1,400.00
If retired at the end of fourteen years of membership	1,500.00
If retired at the end of fifteen years of membership	1,600.00

After ten years of membership, a member is eligible to receive dividends credited to his/her account and payable in addition to the base benefit upon retirement. In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's contributions plus passbook interest.

Dividends

Any funds remaining after retirement benefits have been paid to eligible members retiring at the Annual Conference shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears for the previous year(s).

Death Benefits

When a participating member of the Fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his/her named beneficiary or beneficiaries designated, otherwise pay to his/her estate, the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the dividends added to his/her account.

Each member shall provide the conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions a statement, naming the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom these funds are to be paid in the event of death before retirement.

Payment of Retirement Benefits

A minister who retires with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund will be paid immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which time he/she retires, the total amount as prescribed by the formula for retired members. A minister with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund shall be paid immediately following the Annual Conference session at which he/she retires, an amount equal to total which he/she has personally contributed to the Fund. The remainder of the amount accrued to the minister's credit shall be paid to him/her in a lump sum between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister retires. This amount will draw simple interest from June 1 to December 31 computed at the current bank passbook interest rate paid by a bank located in the city of Raleigh (the "passbook rate") in effect on December 15 prior to the January payment. The total January payment should be reported as ordinary income tax purposes.

Membership Transferring

Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of the United Methodist Church will not make any further payment to the Fund. He/she may leave his/her holdings in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, they will earn interest at the "passbook rate". If the funds are held, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he/she may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this conference.

Penalties

Upon retirement or death of any member who has failed any year or years, but not for three consecutive years, to contribute his/her required contribution, there shall be deducted from any benefits an amount equal to twice the amount he/she should have paid during the year or years he/she did not contribute.

If any member of the Fund fails to contribute his/her required contribution for three consecutive years, he/she shall have no claim on this Fund other than for the actual amount he/she has paid into the Fund, and this amount will be refunded to the member as soon after the three consecutive year period as possible.

Withdrawing from the Fund

If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the conference treasurer and the Board of Pensions, he/she shall receive an amount equal to the amount he/she has paid into the Fund, plus the simple interest computed at the "passbook rate" which was in effect each year he/she was participating in the Fund, and terminate his/her membership in the Fund.

If a minister is approved for Disability Leave, he/she may submit an application to the Board of Pensions requesting permission to withdraw funds held in the Ministers' Retirement Fund. If the application is approved, he/she will be paid on the same basis as if he/she were retiring at the current session of the Annual Conference. If a person on Disability Leave makes application to withdraw from the Fund between sessions of the Annual Conference, and if the application is approved, he/she will be paid on the same basis as if he/she had retired at the previous session of the Annual Conference.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the conference treasurer with a statement indicating that he/she has received funds for which he/she is eligible, and that he/she is no longer a member of the Fund.

Reinstatement

A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he/she were a member.

New Rules and Constitutional Provisions

At the time these rules and guidelines are adopted, all previous legislation regulating this Fund shall be null and void.

Report D. Housing Exclusion Allowance

Internal Revenue Service Document No. 5045 (10-67) declares:

"Rental Value of Home furnished a Clergyman, and costs of utilities paid for him, as part of his compensation for carrying out his duties as a Clergyman, are not income to him, if he is duly ordained, licensed, or commissioned.

"A Rental Allowance paid to a Clergyman, paid as part of his compensation, is not income to the extent he used it, in the year received, to provide a home, or pay utilities for a home furnished to him. However, the church, or organization which employs him must have officially designated the payment as a Rental Allowance before the payment is made.

"The above rules are also applicable to retired clergymen where a rent-free home or rental allowance is furnished him in recognition of past services in carrying out his duties as a Clergyman."

A revised ruling, 63, 156, 163-2CB 79 states:

"... the rental value of the home furnished to a retired minister as part of his compensation for services is excludable from his gross income under Section 107 (1) of the Code. Also, the rental allowance paid to him as part of his compensation for past services is excludable under Section 107 (2) of the Code, to the extent used by him for expenses directly related to providing a home."

(See Code Section 107, Reg. 1.107. 1-113.01)

These rulings have provided the opportunity in the past for our retired ministers to exclude a portion of their retirement income from the pension plan of the Annual Conference. Each year a specific amount was set by resolution adopted by the Annual Conference.

Recently, however, a private ruling was granted to the North Carolina Conference by the Internal Revenue Service to allow the Board of Pensions "to designate up to 100% of the pension paid to a retired, ordained minister who is a member of your organization (North Carolina Conference) as 'rental allowance.'" the ruling was given on May 29, 1981, but too late to be included with last year's report.

This new ruling provides the opportunity for each retired minister to deduct from his/her pension the actual amount spent for housing up to the full amount of the pension received. Items deductible include rent, mortgage payments, or a fair rental value of the home (including furnishings and appurtenances) as it would apply to the individual retired minister. Also deductible would be taxes, insurance, utilities, and repairs.

This benefit is only applicable to the income of a retired minister. It does not also belong to a surviving spouse of a minister. This is not a ruling of the North Carolina Conference; it is a matter of the Internal Revenue Code specifying the fact that it applies only to the retired minister.

Therefore, the following resolution is presented to the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina on June 7, 1982:

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has a tradition of providing housing (a parsonage) for its ministers, or in instances where no parsonage is owned by the charge a housing allowance; and

Whereas, Retired Ministers of the North Carolina Conference are entitled to the same privileges as those in the Effective Relationship; and

Whereas, the most practical method of providing housing for the Retired Ministers is by means of a Rental Allowance;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that 100% of the benefits paid to each Retired Minister be set as a fair and reasonable Rental Allowance for each Retired Minister of this Annual Conference for 1982 and succeeding years. The Rental Allowance is specifically designated as compensation to the minister for the cost of renting or providing housing for the minister and his/her family and those costs related thereto, pursuant to the Code as stated in Document 5045 (10-67) and affirmed by a private ruling of the Internal Revenue Service dated May 29, 1981 (Index Nos. 0107.00-00 and 0107.01-00).

The Board of Pensions emphasizes that the Retired Minister who uses this Rental Allowance must be able to furnish proof that he/she made expenditures in the amounts claimed. If the full 100% cannot be substantiated as expenditures, then claim should be made for only those amounts which can be verified.

We also remind the Retired Minister who uses this Rental Allowance that the amount he/she claims as a Rental Allowance exclusion must be reported as Income in reporting for Self-Employment (Social Security) Tax. It is possible that reduced Social Security benefits would offset any claims for the Rental Allowance exclusion. Please consult your Social Security advisor about this matter.

Further, the Board of Pensions absolves itself of any responsibility in the event the Internal Revenue Service disallows any Rental Allowance claimed.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Affirmative Action Workshop

In March, fifteen persons, mostly Coordinators of Religion and Race, met at Cokesbury Church in Raleigh for training in how to get our conference boards and agencies to face the reasons ethnic minorities have such low influence on their divisions. The Reverend Kelly Ingram introduced us to the dynamics of power in committees. The following diagram was used:

We applied what we learned to an analysis of the positive and negative forces operating in a specific proposed affirmative action: the appointing of minority pastors to white churches. This model of analysis is available now for any board or agency that intends to develop a program of minority empowerment during the next two years.

Ethnic Minority Representation

At present the representation of minorities on conference boards and agencies is 42 Blacks and 21 Native Americans out of a total agency membership of 655. According to the 1981 Conference Journal, the membership of our churches totaled 206,206 Whites, 3858 Blacks, and 1819 Native Americans.

Meetings at Convenience of Ethnic Minorities

Pursuant to our policy of meeting on Saturdays and at places near where most of our ethnic minority members live, we met in October at Wesley Pines Retirement Home in Lumberton. In April we met at Coharie Mission (Native American) church near Clinton.

Service to Minorities at our Institutions

Since our duty is to report on the number of minorities in administration, service level, and clientele of our institutions, we selected six teams to visit before Annual Conference. An oral report will be made during this Annual Conference Session.

Money Spent

Your offerings were spent in 1981 in the following manner:

Meetings and institutional visits	$1,016
Native American Youth Program, Pembroke	400
SE Jurisdiction Workshop (The Rev. T. McLean)	304
Junaluska Missional Priorities Conference	100
JN/Washington Youth Study Tour and Adult Study Tour	450
Music Workshop in Wilson	150
Convocation on the Black Church, Bennett College	1000 for each year to be held May 21-22, 1982 — all persons are invited)	1981 and 1982

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Commission on Religion and Race wishes to remind the Annual Conference that the Conference voted in 1980 to require affirmative action programs within the agencies of the Conference and that other efforts be taken to ensure racial inclusiveness.

An affirmative action program is a commitment to racial inclusiveness according to which an agency agrees regularly and systematically to review racial representation at the level of administration, membership, and service.

An affirmative action program will set inclusion objectives and develop plans to reach those objectives.

In the coming months your Commission on Religion and Race will continue to work toward the fulfillment of these requirements as set forth in 1980:

1. That every conference agency be required to adopt an affirmative action program appropriate to its responsibilities and circumstance;
2. That every district be required to have on the DCOM a Coordinator for Relation and Race;
3. That every conference board, agency, and the Cabinet be required to elect along with its other quadrennial officers a Coordinator for Religion and Race whose responsibility it shall be to lead the board, agency, or the Cabinet in the development and implementation of an affirmative action program.

4. That there shall be two programs in which people will have an opportunity to experience communication across racial lines;

5. That the Commission on Religion and Race meet with the Board of Trustees of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., to explore alternative ways of caring for ethnic minority elderly;

6. That the Commission on Religion and Race sponsor a meeting of the Bishop and Cabinet with selected laypersons for the purpose of studying ways in which the conference may move toward open itinerancy.

Charles D. Myers, Chairperson

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Mr. Chairman, Members of Conference, and Guests, the mandate of your Commission on Religion and Race is to report on racial inclusiveness in our institutions. Visitation teams were sent to Louisburg College, the Children's Home, and to the Retirement Homes. Their reports show little change and progress from last year. However, since coming to this Conference, I was informed of the employment of three Black instructors and one Black dormitory counselor.

Methodist College has regularly, as enrollment allows, used the part-time services of Mr. Greg Brown and Mr. David Brown in business courses in its evening school. This last year Ms. Anita McArthur was hired to teach English classes on a part-time basis. Black students praise her for the encouragement and counsel she gives them, but her continued employment is doubtful, totally dependent on an increased enrollment.

No Native Americans or Hispanics are instructors at any of our colleges.

Louisburg College is a different place today because of Mr. Claude Johnson, their new dormitory counselor and director of the Gospel Choir.

I hasten to add further that last year the Children's Home succeeded in placing two older Black youths in a Black foster home.

We commend these institutions for these steps in hiring and meeting the needs of minorities. All of our institutions are trying to do the same.

Now I bring you a report from a minority person in our Conference, giving his impression of how minorities are fareing in our Conference. This report is from the Vice-Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race, Chief J.D. Brewington, who is Chief on the 3,000 member Coharie Indian Tribe.

Charles D. Myers, Chairperson

OBSERVATIONS OF THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Mr. Chairman, Delegates and Friends, as a member of your Commission on Religion and Race I would like to bring to your attention the following observations and suggestions.

In 1980, the Conference voted to require affirmative action programs within all agencies of the Conference. Since 1980, most agencies with the Conference have adopted the affirmative action program. However, the last report shows a slight decline in the number of minorities in Children's Homes, students, and patients using our institutions.

There has been an increase in the number of minorities using the camps and attending church, which shows that minorities are concerned about God's work and the development of the Methodist Church. However, we hope that the affirmative action program that has been adopted but is not working successfully is in no way an effort to evade an issue of racism within the church.

Although numbers indicate a decline and increase in areas of minority involvement, they do not always indicate failure or success, as was the case with Gideon's army when only 300 men were accepted. They must have been watching as the church must watch more closely for the needs of the total membership.

It is only as you have felt the oppression the minorities have experienced that you could realize what the Indian meant when he told the missionary he was looking forward to the day when the white society returned to the true Christian religion. Explaining, the Indian stated the "Big Book" read, "Do unto others as you would have others do to you".

We as minorities are confident that the Methodist Church would like to help to make our society the kind of society that God intended. Thank-you.

J.D. Brewington, Vice-Chairperson

EMLC COMMITTEE REPORT

Bishop Cannon and Conferences, peace and grace to you in the name of our Lord and from the Ethnic Minority Local Church.

The EMLC Committee of this Conference or any conferences has one single task. That task is not to make policies. It is not to implement programs. Our task is to keep before the Conference the missional priority — and the priority is the developing and strengthening of the Ethnic Minority Local Church. I served on that Committee in this Conference at the pleasure of the Bishop and I do so with pride.

I report to this Annual Conference that the EMLC is alive, thank God! The EMLC is not well — but there are new vital signs!

The Ethnic Minority Local Church is a part of the whole church. It is a part of the community of faith. It exists most effectively at the local level. It is at the local level that we seek to develop and strengthen the community of faith for more effective service in the Kingdom of God.

It is at the local level that we acclaim, affirm, and celebrate our multi-ethnic diversity. It is at the local church level that we are organized as a redemptive fellowship to redeem the world of Jesus Christ. It is at the local level that the church confronts the WORLD.

Because we are all God's people, and because we all make up one body, and because the body is only as strong as its weakest member, it is no wonder to me that General Conference agreed that our one priority would be developing and strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church. We must develop what IS NOT, and strengthen what IS for the advancement of the Kingdom of God, and for the body of Christ, and for building up of the United Methodist Church.

In this developing and strengthening there is growth at the local level. Our Bishop will call us together in the early fall to help us to understand where we are and to show us where we need to go. I urge every one of you to please attend this convocation!

Let me thank our illustrious Bishop for his devotion and leadership and for his sensitivity. You may read of our work for this year in our agency report. Thank you.

Jimmy F. Cummings

COMMITTEE ON EMLC

The EMLC Committee of the Conference Council on Ministries Has Attempted to be Faithful

The Committee has tried to be responsive to the CCOM and at the same time the Committee has tried to be responsible for the implementation of the Missional Priority.

The Committee Has Kept Its Definition in Perspective

The EMLC Committee accepts the definition that a Missional Priority is a response to a critical need in God's world with global implications which calls for JMC's massive and sustained effort through primary attention and ordering and reordering program and budget at every level of the church. (Paragraph 803.8, 1980 Book of Discipline)

EMLC Committee of the CCOM Has Functioned as a Support Group

This Committee has assisted, in the main, Black and Native American congregations in their struggles to fulfill their mission and ministry in their places of existence. Some of the tasks that have been planned, supported and/or implemented by the Committee follows:

1. A workshop on ministerial recruitment and enlistment of ethnic ministers and Christian education workers.
2. A workshop on worship in the local church.
3. A workshop on Christian education.
4. Affirmed and supported the goal and process of getting two Christian education workers related to Black and Native American congregations.
5. Affirmed and supported building programs among the ethnic minority congregations.
6. Support ways and means of getting the priority across to all the local church members through cooperative efforts of all the agencies, committees and boards of the conference.
7. Planned for slide promotion at Annual Conference.

Good Stewardship of our Resources is a Constant Concern of the EMLC Committee

To insure good stewardship and proper accountability, the Committee designed an instrument by which local congregations may apply for and evaluate EMLC proposals. The design is now operative in our conference with funding requests being first brought before the EMLC Committee and discussed on the basis of merit. They are then directed to the CCOM for funding. Six such projects have been approved as of February 26, 1982 by CCOM with funds to come from 30% Missional Priority Funds that remain in our Conference.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTION AND REFERENCE

The 157th consecutive annual session of the North Carolina Methodist churches gave evidence of renewed interest in Wesleyan enthusiasm and commitment as we prepared to celebrate 200 years of Methodism in the United States during 1984.

A reporter might write "It was business as usual!" and be more nearly correct than he imagined. As our presiding Bishop, Dr. William R. Cannon, challenged in his "State of The Church", "Our business as the Methodists of the North Carolina Conference is to display the Christian life in its abundance to the people of this state, and to invite them to join us in living by the power of God's grace."

Our business was far from routine for we began with the ordination of seven deacons and thirty-two elders, always a high moment. The ordination service was enriched by the invitation from Bishop James M. Ault, presiding bishop of the Pittsburgh Area, to be "caring, calling, and sending." The elders were urged to call together the people of this broken world to hear the message of God and join the fellowship of the Church."

Many will recall distinguished preaching as a hallmark of the 1982 Conference addition to Bishop Cannon's customary scholarly and evangelical witness in his "State of the Church" and his concluding sermon, we were blessed by the preaching of Bishop William Smith, senior Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, and by Dr. Fred B. Craddock, Professor of Preaching and New Testament at Candler School of Theology, Emory University.

Bishop Smith intrigues the Conference with his dramatic and humorous style of impassioned homiletics, as he confronted the evening session with the question, "Are You Dead or Are You Alive?" "Don't die spiritually," he charged, "become alive intellectually, emotionally, aesthetically, and spiritually."

Dr. Craddock preached dynamically three times and gave us all a lesson in the style and content of Christian preaching. As he renewed our intimate fellowship with the Lamb of God..even Jesus Christ, our Lord, he concluded, "Hope! Be open to God and move into the future. Do not let the pain of change make you resist hope." So effective was his preaching that he received a standing ovation at the conclusion of his final sermon.

Reports of a successful year filled the composite report of the district superintendents, given by Dr. Joseph Bethea, president of the Cabinet. "Ours is a great Annual Conference, served by a great episcopal leader, staffed by a great clergy, and enriched by a great lay people. All are great because they serve in the Master's name and power." His report highlighted giving in Outreach Ministries exceeding $5 million, while 76.83% of all money raised by the local church stays in the local church. Conference membership is growing slightly, with a net growth of 460, but church school attendance is declining."

No conference is complete without ample time for fellowship and sharing. This was accomplished in the halls of conference, the dormitories, and at each intermission. We are grateful for the relaxation and entertainment added again by "Ebenezer", the coffee house provided by the Fellowship of Christian Educators.

Significant changes in the nature of the conference were created by the establishment of a new structure for the Conference Council on Ministries, by a new Camping Commission, the successful completion of our Pension Funding Campaign which raised more than $3.4 million dollars, enabling us to greatly increase pension support for our retired ministry.

10 ministers retired at this session, and their years of effective service were applauded. The Reverend Earl Richardson memorialized the ten clergy who have died and the 13 clergy wives who have died since last annual conference. He reminded us that together, they have served 314 years in ministry.

Conference media coverage was excellent, beginning with "on the spot" coverage by the Committee on Communications through video presentations and the daily "Saddlebag" reports. We are indebted to media representatives who faithfully report our activities to the Methodists back home. We express appreciation to Dr. Al Simonton, editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, and to reporters from the Fayetteville Times, the Fayetteville Reporter, the Raleigh News and Observer, from WRAL-TV in Raleigh, and other representatives who have served among us this week.

A moment which touched the heart of us all was the presentation of the Lay Person of the Year Award" to Samuel T. Brooks. 94 years old and active in every area of Church life at Mt. Olive UMC, Lumberton. Brooks brought a "flood spring of youth to the conference with his enthusiasm", according to Bishop Cannon.

Appropriate recognition was given to Camp UMC, Shallotte as Church of the Year Monday evening. A lay delegation and Pastor Woodrow Wells were commended by an appreciative conference for "showing love and concern at all levels, local to global".

The official delegate count was listed at 1,350; Ms. Sue Henry, Cokesbury manager in Raleigh presented the conference with a check for $10,367.00 from Cokesbury profits; and our three Conference colleges, Louisburg College, Methodist College, and North Carolina Wesleyan College, were commended for 25 great years of growing ministry. This represented the twenty-fifth anniversary of Methodist and Wesleyan Colleges, who alumni now number more than 4,500 with 368 serving as clergy in the North Carolina Annual Conference.

It is always difficult to find words to adequately express appreciation, but sincere expressions of thanks must be given to Dr. Richard Pearce, and the entire staff of Methodist College, our host institution. We are grateful to Dr. Joseph B. Bethea, host District Superintendent, and all ministers and laity of the Rockingham District for excellent preparation and warm welcome. We would omit no one, but time would fail if we were to enumerate each one responsible for the success of so large and so significant a Conference gathering. We want to thank each of you, from presiding officer to custodian. Each one is important, not alone to God, but to each of us. We are one in His Spirit and fellowship.

Following the reading of the appointments let us return to our ministerial and lay assignments blessed by our sharing in these Conference activities and fellowship. Having shared the joys of our Gospel Fellowship, let us return to enjoy all those we meet to "Get on board, little children, Get on board His great Gospel Train."

Respectfully submitted,

SEJ COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES REPORT ASBURY TRAIL AWARD (An Historic Trail of the Boy Scouts of America)

The Asbury Trail Award is an Historic Trail Award available to Scouts under a cooperative program involving the Boy Scouts of America, the Commission on Archives and History of the United Methodist Church. It is not a denominational program, but it is prepared so that today's youth, both boys and girls, may follow in the footsteps of an early circuit rider, the Rev. Mr. Francis Asbury, who crossed the Appalachian Mountains on the old Cataloochee Trail from Tenn. to the present location of U.S. 276, about six miles northwest of Lake Junaluska, N.C. In the process of this hike, it is hoped that the hiker will appreciate the challenges and sacrifices endured by all early frontier persons.

The official hike will cover approximately twenty-seven miles from the Mt. Sterling community near the Tenn. border, through Mt. Sterling Gap and Cove Greek Gap, N.C., ending at Cove Creek at the intersection of old Hwy. 284 and U.S. 276. The mountain scenery will be unmatched, but the Trail at some points will prove quite rugged and should not be undertaken without physical preparations.

Francis Asbury was the first elected bishop of Methodism in the United States. He virtually created the Methodist Episcopal Church, from which has sprung The United Methodist, Christian Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal (Zion), Wesleyan, Free Methodist, Nazarene, Disciples of Christ, and any other denominations that trace its original history from the American Wesleyan tradition of the Christmas Conference of 1784.

Annually, Asbury rode his circuits from New England to Charleston, S.C. and from the Atlantic Ocean to the areas beyond the Appalachian Mountains. In forty-five years, he covered 275,000 miles over the pioneer trails of this country, averaging one sermon each day or more than 16,000 during his lifetime. More than sixty times he crossed the Appalachians, although only once did he follow the Cataloochee Trail.

In his diary for Thursday, November 29, 1810, he tells briefly of this trip. . . "We were in doubt whether we should take the old or the new route: we took Mahon's road¹ and got along pretty well, thirty miles, to the gate;² the woman was sick, but the girls of the house were attentive and polite at Mr. Mahon's. Friday, our troubles began at the foaming, roaring stream, which hid the rocks. At Catahouche,³ I walked over the log, but the mountain . . . height after height, and five miles over! After crossing other streams, and losing ourselves in the woods, we came in, about nine o'clock at night, to Vater Shuck."⁴

The Asbury Trail Award is offered to those persons who will hike the Trail from Mt. Sterling, N.C. to U.S. 276 via Mt. Sterling Gap and Cove Creek Gap, a distance of approximately 27 miles. It is recommended that hikers proceed from the Mt. Sterling Community, southward, and plan to camp at the Cataloochee Campground near the ranger's station, identified on the Trail Map. The camp area is a distance of 2.2 miles from the Trail, but there are no other areas nearby where camping is permitted. The Trail is emblazoned by identification markers along its route. Including the 4.4 miles to and from the campgrounds, the total distance will be about 27 miles.

Any troop interested in further information may order a Unit Packet of materials at a cost of $3.00 from the Commission on Archives and History.

The address is: ASBURY TRAIL AWARD, Commission on Archives and History, The United Methodist Church, Box 488, Lake Junaluska, N.C. 28745

The Packet will provide the following: 1) Instruction Sheet; 2) Application Form; 3) Local B.S.A. Tour Permit; 4) Trail Outline Map; 5) Lake Junaluska Assembly Info Sheet; 6) Francis Asbury (eighty-six page book); 7) Francis Asbury (nineteen page brochure)

The latter two items are recommended reading material for each person scheduled to take the hike. Allow a minimum of three to four weeks in which to place the application form with the Commission prior to the proposed dates of hiking the trail.

An embroidered Asbury Trail Patch, the Asbury Trail Award Certificate, and a medal with ribbon for wearing on the Scout uniform may be purchased at a nominal cost after the hike's completion. Further description of these will be found in the Unit Packet.

About the Asbury Trail

The Asbury Trail is a rugged twenty-seven mile trip over mountain trails and routes. Some portions will follow old road surfaces, but much of it will be difficult mountain terrain. Persons should be prepared with hiking equipment; high shoes, raincoat, camping gear, canteen, food, sleeping gear and clothing for cold night wear, and additional equipment as needed. Water is available at several points along the Trail for refilling canteens. The nights are cool even in mid-summer, so warm equipment will be essential.

It will take the best part of two days to hike the Trail. We suggest that a unit arrive the day before starting the hike so that a good night's rest may be enjoyed. The Packet will contain information on how to make camping or other arrangements at the Assembly Grounds. Following the hike, a unit may wish to rest for the night before returning home. In order to assist units with inexpensive lodging arrangements, and sanitary facilities, the Lake Junaluska Assembly has a camping area available upon reservation. Further information for this will be found in the Unit Packet listed elsewhere in this bulletin.

(1) Mahon's Road was from Pigeon Forge on Highway 71 to the head of Cosby Creek, Cocke Co., Tenn., where it intercepted present Hwy. 32 from Newport to the present Great Smoky Mountain National Park.

(2) The Mahon home was at a toll gate near Cosby, Tenn.

(3) This stream was Cataloochee Creek, which has had various spellings.

(4) Vater Shuck was "Father" Jacob Shook, son of a Dutch immigrant and a Revolutionary War soldier, who settled on the Pigeon River at the present town of Clyde, N.C. in 1786.

COMMISSION ON STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

Our Commitment

Full and equal responsibility and participation of women in the total life and mission of the Church's life.

Prayer

Join us: IN GIVING THANKS: for all people God has used in ministry, especially those women we know through the written word of God . . . and those we know through or carelessly opposed God's will for us as we have tried to restrict people's witness to and their leadership in the work of our Lord Jesus Christ. We confess our fear of the unknown. We confess that we are often bound by what always has been. We confess that we have not wanted to share our power and privilege. IN ASKING: that God will continue to give us vision of who we can be and help us overcome our doubt with a strong faith; our fear with redemptive love and will give us courage to help bring into being that New Creation we have been promised.

Thanks

COSROW is grateful to all persons and agencies who are working to make visible our mission to the whole world, using the gifts and graces of all persons. We note especially the work of Bishop Cannon and the Cabinet, the Board of Ordained Ministry, the United Methodist Women, the Ethnic Minority Task Force, Councils on Ministries, and Commission on Lay Life and Work.

Benefits to Non-Ordained Persons Employed Full-Time By Our Church

We are appreciative of all the churches who are now providing pension, insurance and leave benefits for its non-ordained staff (including music, secretarial, maintenance, etc.). We request that all churches be faithful and just employers.

Child Care

In order to allow full participation of all men and women in our church we encourage our church on the local, district and conference levels to provide child care at times of meetings for planning, study and worship.

Leadership of Ethnic Minority Women In Our Church

We rejoice that the ethnic minority women are moving into leadership positions in the church and conference. To facilitate this commitment we are asking our Annual Conference to consider ways by which we may become more intentional in the work of both lay and ordained women.

Women In Ordained Ministry

We affirm the leadership our conference is giving in its positive reception of women in all dimensions of ministry, particularly the ordained. We call on all churches to give leadership in making real our church's commitment to open itinerancy.

We are pleased to have published a paper on The Journey of Women Toward Ordination In The Methodist Tradition, written by The Reverend Carrie Parrish. The summary of this paper was given by Carrie during last year's Annual Conference when we celebrated the 25th anniversary of the Ordination of Women in the Methodist Church. Copies of this paper are available through our conference office.

As a conference we are fortunate to have a dedicated and enthusiastic group to give leadership to our Commission on Status and Role of Women. Special thanks go to Mrs. Robbie Barrett, our secretary, and to Willie Teague, our conference staff representative and Reggie Ponder, our District Superintendent, and the cabinet.

ROLE AND STATUS OF WOMEN REPORT

Bishop Cannon and members of our Annual Conference, you have given to The Commission on the Status and Role of Women the responsibility for being an advocate, catalyst, and monitor to ensure the full participation of women in the total life and mission of our church, sharing fully in the power and policy making at all levels. We have made some progress in our Conference; but we have a long way to go.

I want you to know that you have given us a tough job.

For few of us human beings respond with openness when we are made aware of our actions which exclude people, deny people, or limit people. And we often become hostile, defensive, angry and sometimes vindictive.

We respond in these ways because we know that our intentions are good. Yet these good intentions are distorted either because of our selfishness or because of uncritical acceptance of what always has been.

In the spirit of 1st John, "If we say we are blameless, we deceive ourselves." It is only through the cleansing and healing power of God's Holy Spirit that we as a Commission and as a Conference are enabled to see ourselves as we are, and to receive the power and courage to do the impossible, moving us toward that New Creation in which every person, every man and every woman is valued and respected and enabled to use their gifts and graces in the work of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Our work is made less difficult and you as individuals, the Cabinet, Board, and all agencies share in this responsibility you have given to us — particularly in as you implement the recommendations we have already passed.

We asked two members of our very capable and responsible Commission to lift up two of the concerns we have focused as one. Hear now, Jean Jerome and Ruth Cade.

Helen Crotwell

COSROW REPORT

Members of COSROW would like to call your attention to a concern of ours. Many of our churches have multiple staffs composed of ordained and non-ordained persons. A number of our non-ordained staff members have worked for our churches for many years. Some of these people face retirement with Social Security as their only source of support.

We hope that all of you will seriously consider making provisions to include pension, insurance and sick-leave for these faithful friends when you work on your budgets for the coming year. "Times are hard," you say. They are especially hard for these friends of ours who are facing this predicament.

Jean Jerome

A ROLE & STATUS OF WOMEN CONCERN

The Role and Status of Women has determined that we have concerns and responsibilities in our Conference. One of our concerns is an open itinerency for women clergy. Because of this concern, it is my responsibility to share on behalf of the Commission with you.

I chose to speak mainly to the lay delegates from the local churches of the North Carolina Conference. In paragraph 266.2 of our Discipline, it reads, "There shall be a Committee on Pastor-Parish . . . including a lay member of the Annual Conference. . . ."

Because you do serve on the Pastor-Parish Committee, you have the opportunity to help with the open itinerency for women clergy in "two ways":

1. If the District Superintendent contacts your Pastor-Parish Committee when you realize that there is to be a change in pastors, and shares that the cabinet feels that a clergywoman is available to come to your church and has the abilities and talents the cabinet feels would strengthen your church . . . PLEASE encourage your Committee to be receptive and open to this experience!

2. Or the Pastor-Parish Committee might even be willing to share with the Bishop and District Superintendent that you would be open to the appointment of a clergywoman if one were available for appointment to meet the needs of the church. This would be helpful in the appointment process and it would also let our Women Clergy feel that they were wanted and accepted.

I just happen to be a member of a church which has its second clergywoman as a pastor. We have found they love us, encourage us, preach and have the same gifts, commitment, strengths and weaknesses as our male clergy. You will have the differences with each individual as you know, but God has much work to be done. Let us in our North Carolina Conference make God's work a little easier with a caring, accepting attitude for our clergywomen!

Ruth Cade

BOARD OF STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is how we live. It involves giving and receiving. The ability to receive God's love is the first requisite to being a steward of the mysteries of God. Then we practice stewardship as we give this love away. Just as you have to love yourself before you can love your neighbor, only as you love yourself as a child of God can you give this kind of love away. Giving and receiving are both great potentials within you. Only as you give away your love do you begin to have the ability to give anything else.

Giving doesn't start with money. Giving starts with loving. As you understand II Corinthians 9, you will learn that as you give, God your source, will provide you with greater gifts. Thus, the mystery is that when you give it is not a loss situation, because in his love God immediately refills.

This is the rationale that your Board of Stewardship seeks to teach. The total effort of our program and projects is designed to produce and develop good stewards of the mysteries of God.

Training In Stewardship

Several training experiences have been provided on each level of programming in order to develop leadership in stewardship.

January Workshop for training local church leadership in the area of stewardship. Conference Summer School was open to the public and had a high level of attendance in the Simple Lifestyle.

SEJ Stewardship Workshop at Lake Junaluska for developing leadership for District Directors of Stewardship.

Planned Giving

Several local church workshops were held on planned giving through wills, trusts, annuities and insurance. This is an important area of stewardship. The Department of Gifts and Wills is housed in the Methodist Foundation and can provide fiduciary service for churches and individuals.

District Director

Every district has a person on the DCOM who is a member of the Board of Stewardship and is trained to consult with churches in the area of stewardship. They are usually active participants in the district interpretation rally held in the late summer or early fall.

New Childrens Materials

The Board of Stewardship has had a task force at work for a year to produce a resource book for teachers of children in the local church. This publication is available on request from the Coordinator of Resources, P.O. Box 10955, Raleigh, North Carolina, 27605. These are supplementary materials for Sunday School, extended sessions, study courses and vacation church school.

Biblical Study In Stewardship

A one night Bible study on stewardship entitled, "Serving Two Masters: God and Mammon," is available from the Coordinator of Resources, P.O. Box 10955, Raleigh, North Carolina, 27605.

It is designed for a small group, one evening, study in the biblical basis for giving financial resources.

Stewardship Focus For 1982

The work of the Board of Stewardship is divided among eight component areas:

Stewardship Education	Planned Giving
Proportionate Giving and Tithing	Funding the Local Church
Time and Abilities	Christian Life Style
Christians/Financial Planning	Economics and Management

Special events for 1982 will include:

Time Management Seminar at Conference Summer School at Methodist College.

Planning on Ethnic Minority Stewardship Workshop.

Consideration for joining the Land Stewardship Council of North Carolina.

Distribution of Children's Stewardship Resources.

Financial/Interpretation Workshops in each District.

Tithing instituted in the local church.

Conducting Bible Study in stewardship in the local church.

Support an effort by Methodist Foundation to reactivate and emphasis on deferred giving.

"He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man (person) according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver." II Corinthians 9:6-7

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES REPORT TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held at 12 noon, June 8, 1982, at Methodist College during the Annual Conference Session.

The financial statements for the calendar year 1981 were presented and reviewed by Charles McAdams, Conference Treasurer. These statements included: The Trustees Fund, Methodist Building Account, Staff Parsonages and Episcopal Residence accounts, all of which will appear in the 1982 Conference Journal.

The Trustees, through the Conference Treasurer-Business Administrator, have endeavored to properly maintain the staff parsonages, Episcopal Residence and the Methodist Building. U.S. Fidelity and Guaranty Insurance Company moved from the rental area of the Methodist Building in June 1981. The College Foundation, Inc., another one of our tenants, has rented the entire area vacated by the U.S. Fidelity and Guaranty Insurance Company with the exception of a 1700-square foot area which was reserved for use by our Conference Council on Ministries. This area was renovated to provide four office areas plus new facilities for the Media Center.

The area of the building occupied by the Bishop and his secretary was renovated to provide larger and better facilities for these offices.

Maintenance work has been done at all seven of the staff parsonages. The kitchen at 2513 Colton Place (residence of The Reverend and Mrs. William H. Sherman) has been completely renovated. At 428 Northbrook Drive (the residence of The Reverend Willie Teague) new carpet has been installed in the living room and dining area and several pieces of new furniture have been provided.

The exterior of the Episcopal Residence was painted and the flat roof of the carport was sealed.

All of the staff parsonages are debt free and the debt on the Episcopal Residence has been reduced to $12,309.81.

A small parcel of land on New Hampshire Avenue in Southern Pines owned by the Conference has been sold to Mr. Clinton Green of Southern Pines. The proceeds from the sale were delivered to us on February 19, 1982.

Respectfully submitted,
Clifton W. Everett, Chairman
Margaret W. Minor, Vice Chairman

UNITED METHODIST MEN

Report to the 1982 Annual Conference

The number of men recorded as members of local church units of United Methodist Men has held essentially the same as in the previous year; however, we continue to strengthen in spiritual growth, fellowship, and service. Our Conference remains within the top seven of all conferences in the number of chartered local church fellowships and in the percentage of churches having a United Methodist Men group. We strongly encourage the pastors of churches not having an organized fellowship to work with laymen to begin a local unit and have it recognized officially by chartering through the General Board of Discipleship.

Annual reports filed with the Conference United Methodist Men president indicate that most local church fellowships have had enriching and challenging programs during the year and have been involved in church and community service projects. Also, District-level organization has strengthened considerably, with most of the twelve districts having United Methodist Men Rallies and other scheduled events. We encourage the District Superintendents and district presidents to emphasize this aspect of our growth.

At the Conference level, we had twenty of our men to attend the Congress of United Methodist Men held at Purdue University in July. It was an outstanding Christian witness, with 5000 men present for the general sessions and small discussion groups. Personal enrichment and challenges to enlarge the influence of United Methodist Men back home created a meaningful experience.

On May 1, our Conference Rally was held in Rocky Mount. With the largest attendance in recent years, we heard two outstanding sermons by Bishop Kenneth Goodson on the topic, "Prayer in Men's Lives." Fellowship singing, a business meeting, good food, and a challenge from our own Bishop Cannon to continue in growth completed the agenda for the day. Officers elected, in addition to myself, include Charles Sauls, from Rockingham, Vice President; Stanley Harrell, from Morehead City, as Secretary; and Bruce Hargrove, from Raleigh, as Treasurer.

The strengthening of United Methodist Men in our Conferences is both a reality and a promise, and it is an important factor in the evangelism outreach of our denomination. We need every man to share in our commitment.

J. Allen Norris, Jr.
Conference President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Report to the 1982 Annual Conference

The United Methodist Women of the North Carolina Conference continued to implement its quadrennial theme "Love Made Visible" by focusing this year on the theme "Love is Caring." Recognizing that this theme involves Concern for others, Awareness of needs, Risk in meeting those needs and Endless energy on the part of local women, programs were designed and implemented to make this theme a reality.

The Annual Meeting held the first week end in October at Methodist College presented a challenge to the 600 women who attended. A Bible Study on Galatians opened the session. Linda Hair from the Henderson Settlement of the Red Bird Missionary Conference, the featured speaker, focused on National Missions. The Love Offering of $8,753.56 for Food, Land and Justice emphasized the needs of the World. Displays and a forum highlighted Women as Consumers in North Carolina and as residents of Family Farms. Guests from our sister units of the World Federation of Methodist Women and from Church Women United called attention to our Ecumenical relationships. At the Annual Candle Burning service memorials totaling $9,184.08 allowed the candle to burn 5 hours, 12 minutes and 45 seconds representing what it costs to carry out the mission program of the church for that length of time. The Conference Study Jewel was presented to the Goldsboro District for having the highest % of units completing the Mission Studies. The Membership Banner, awarded to the district that has the most units with a 10% increase in membership, was shared by the Burlington, Raleigh and Sanford districts, each with 13 units meeting the goal. Five new units have been organized this year. The Elizabeth City District is 100% organized. Total membership for the conference is 27,330. A budget of $334,500 was adopted for 1982.

It is important for the conference and district leadership of UMW to be well informed so they can interpret programs and needs to local units. At Conference Leadership School a course on "Life Styles in the 80's" was presented. All district officers were trained on DO IT Day. Sixty young women attended a "39 and Under" event and helped lead similar events in their district. World Development Workshop led by Dr. Phil Harvey awakened the conference and district leadership to the economic conditions in our world and the need for simpler life styles in the global community. A special emphasis was placed on the Reading Program. Response, the North Carolina Christian Advocate, KEDE, the conference newsletter, and district newsletters keep our lines of communication open. Informed women are caring women, and so we have focused attention on social issues such as Aging, Child Abuse, Hunger, Immigrants and Ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment.

Because we care, we express our concerns with our financial resources. The fiscal year ends in December and in 1981 $318,358 was shared with the mission programs in North Carolina and throughout the world. One annual emphasis in UMW is the Call to Prayer and Self-Denial. An offering is taken in each local unit for a specific purpose and applications are made for those funds. In 1981 the emphasis was for programs for "Children: Advocacy and Ministry." $8,038 of those funds was granted to the "Early Intervention Parent Education" program in Durham.

Who we are as individuals determines the extent to which we care. Over 200 women attended the Christian Personhood Retreat led by Joan Peters and they experienced an intensive look at their Pilgrim Journey as it relates to God, themselves and others.

A highlight of this year was the Assembly held in Philadelphia, Pa. and attended by 165 women from this conference. The theme, "Christ Our Hope-The Journey of our Life" challenged them to become "Crazy United Methodist Women" as they care about nuclear war, health care in the world, nutrition and peace. The conference banner, displayed here in the foyer, symbolizes our roots in the church and our journey as we reach out to the world.

I'd like the United Methodist Women who have proved that Love is Caring and have made his report possible to stand.

Mrs. T. Marvin Vick, President

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

Report to Annual Conference 1982

Good morning. It is good to be here today. With me I bring a favorable report. Many good things have happened since our ACS for Youth last July. In August, Ed Morrison, Conference Coordinator, Mike Safely, CCYM Chairperson, Joy Wilkins past president, Peggy Hunt and myself attended the National Youth Ministries Convocation in Sioux City, Iowa. It was a week of learning and sharing with people from Annual Conferences all over the United States. After learning of youth programs other conferences had to offer, it was evident that the North Carolina Conference is ahead of them all in the development of their youth programs. We were proud to represent such a fine organization. We were also privileged to have a member of our conference, Peggy Hunt, elected to the NYMO Steering Committee for the next two years. It is a great honor and we support her and know she will do an exceptional job.

As president, I have had the opportunity to attend district youth rallies all over our conference. At these rallies I see the youth, the backbone of our organization, in fellowship together. It is these youth who make youth ministries work. They are the ones who create the sense of fellowship and love that is experienced at our conference activities.

The theme for this summer is Fantastic Voyage. Preparations for our week long events such as Jr. and Sr. High Workshop, Youth Music Workshop, and ACS for Youth are almost concluded and they look to be very exciting times for everyone. These events, plus Rally Day and other activities contribute greatly to the development of the youth of our conference. These events are planned in the cooperation of youth and adults. We are grateful to the pastors, MYF leaders, and other adults who show their interest in us in such a special way.

Youth Service Fund, the only mission outreach program for youth, is defined as money raised by youth, spent by youth, and spent for youth. YSF is a serious and important part of our ministry to other youth who need our support. This year's YSF campaign has been one of the best ever. We set a goal of $8,000 and many times it appeared it would be impossible to attain this goal. But through the efforts of our conference treasurer, Barry Blalock, and the enthusiasm and support of the young people all around the conference, we surpassed this goal by $3,200. This was a tremendous achievement. Some of the ways that interest is aroused in YSF is through the showing of the YSF slide show, the selling of YSF T-shirts and caps, and the enthusiasm of people who are already aware of the importance of YSF. This year's goal has been set at $12,000. Thus far we have raised approximately $3,000 and we are anticipating the summer months to be an important time in the fund raising process.

In closing, I would like to thank this Annual Conference for the opportunity for youth to be represented on the boards and agencies of the church, and recognized as an important part in the ministry of our church. We are grateful for the support you have given us.

Bert Armstrong

BOARD OF WORSHIP

Worship at Conference-Wide Events

The Board of Worship played an active role in planning and assisting in the leadership of worship services at many conference-wide programs in the last year. The Reverend John Harwood and the Reverend Nancy Best planned and coordinated the worship services for Conference Leadership School. The Reverend Alan Swartz has already begun working on the worship services for the 1982 Leadership School, now named the Conference Summer Schools. The Reverend Cameron West served on the 1982 Annual Conference Planning Committee and assisted Bishop Cannon in preparing the ordination services and the Monday and Tuesday night worship services at Annual Conference. Special thanks go to the music directors, choirs, and organists of West Rockingham UMC, First UMC of Rockingham, Prospect UMC of Maxton, and Galilee UMC of Laurinburg for their leadership of music at these four worship services. The Reverend Nancy Best and the Reverend Glenda Johnson are responsible for preparing and leading the early morning Services of Holy Communion at the 1982 Annual Conference.

Continued Education for Clergy and Laity

The Board of Worship believes one of its major tasks is to work with other conference agencies in providing continuing education opportunities for both clergy and laity. The Reverend Robert Pullman prepared the guide to Year C of the ecumenical lectionary, Celebrating the Church Year. A guide to Year A is now in preparation under the direction of Robert Pullman and Alan Swartz. The Board provided financial assistance to the Raleigh District for an Advent Spiritual Life Retreat for the laity, held in December, 1981, at the Avila Retreat Center, Durham. Cameron West served on the planning committee for the Bishop's Seminar on the Ministry, assisting in the design and leadership of worship services for the event. The Board of Worship provided two scholarships for a pastor and a music director to attend the nationwide liturgical arts workshop, held in the summer of 1981 in Bloomington, Indiana. The Board also sponsored, in coordination with Cokesbury and the General Board of Discipleship, a Festival of Song workshop in November, 1981, at First UMC, Wilson. The workshop was designed to acquaint pastors and music leaders from local churches with the new Supplement to the Book of Hymns and Songs of Zion. Approximately 125 people attended the day long workshop. Scholarship aid for Black and Native American participants was furnished by the Board of Worship. Finally, a committee chaired by Mrs. Hazel Bryant has been working to plan a conference-wide Liturgical Arts Fair, to be held at Farmville United Methodist Church on September 25, 1982. Also serving on the committee are Mr. William Weisser, the Reverend Hugh Cameron, Nancy Best, and Cameron West.

Bishop's Meetings With Confirmation Classes

Bishop Cannon met with confirmation classes from across the conference on two separate dates: February 27, 1982, at Jarvis Memorial Church, Greenville, and on March 6, 1982, at Edenton Street Church, Raleigh. Ms. Margaret Anne Biddle chaired the planning committee for these two events. Serving on the committee with her were Ms. Ellen Mills, the Reverend David Jenkins, Mrs. Irene Gattis, Mrs. Laura Davenport, William Weisser and Cameron West. Special thanks to the staffs of Edenton Street Church and Jarvis Memorial Church for hosting the two meetings.

J. Cameron West, Chairperson

AMENDMENTS AND MOTIONS

- 82003
By Wallace Kirby — Amendment to CFA Report, Section II, Item 11 - PASSED

- 82004
By James R. Crossett, Epworth Church, Durham — Sought an inclusion in the formula for Outreach Ministries to exclude pre-school expenses to be stated in writing by CFA — VOID
- 82005
By Wallace Kirby — Requested deletion of Section II, Item 9 of CFA Report — FAILED
- 82006
By Wade Goldston — Reconsideration of Item 13 in Pension Report — ACCEPTED
I move that Paragraph 13 in Group III of Board of Pensions Report be reinstated.
- 82007
By Vernon Tyson — Requested Robert Randalls be granted gift — ACCEPTED
I move that Bob Randalls be granted a gift from the Emergency Fund of $500.00 per month until he finds employment or until one year has passed.
- 82008
By Brian Gentle — Requested Pensions Board to develop severance pay — ACCEPTED
I move the Board of Pensions develop a severance pay policy to be presented to the 1983 Session of Annual Conference.
- 82009
By Jimmy Ray Tatum — Requested change of wording in COM Report — ACCEPTED
I move that Item 8 be changed from District Conference to Charge Conference.
- 82010
By Mrs. R.B. Guthrie, St. Luke, Sanford — Requested deletion of word "billboard" in Section I, Item 1 of COM Report — FAILED
- 82011
By Bill Cottingham — To add names and addresses of campus ministers in Journal — ACCEPTED (AND ALREADY BEING DONE)
I move that the Conference Journal list the names, addresses, and phone numbers of the Campus Ministers in North Carolina.
- 82012
By James Coile — Requested substitute staff structure to COM charter — FAILED
- 82013
By Richard W. Pearce — Requested amendment to COM Charter — PASSED
I move to amend the Charter of the North Carolina Conference Council on Ministries, under the heading "Membership", to delete from its membership The Methodist Foundation and The Board of Trustees.
By Jimmy Miller — Requested amendment to COM Charter — PASSED
The portion to be amended is on page 299 in the 1981 Conference Journal. The paragraph begins with "the following agencies shall be represented in the Conference Council by the Chairperson". Delete from this list the Board of Trustees and Methodist Foundation. Add to the list Commission on Outdoor Ministries and Camping. (This request is based on action by the Conference Council on Ministries at its meeting on April 23, 1982.)
- 82014
By Al Fisher — Recommendation from Committee to Study Cabinet Representation — APPROVED
I recommend: 1. That all elections in the Boards and Agencies of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be by Roman Ballot, that is, without nomination and by ballot of those present and eligible to vote. 2. That the presiding Bishop be requested to announce the Cabinet assignments to the various Boards and Agencies at some point during the Annual Conference.
- 82015
By Russell Stott — Substitute motion on parsonage furnishings — PASSED
In view of the fact that the majority of the respondents (56%) have expressed a preference for the present policy on parsonage furnishings, I make the motion that the majority report — that is, the "Results of Parsonage Furnishings Study Committee Questionnaire" — be made the official report to the Conference.

Rationale: The Committee to Study the Policy of Parsonage Furnishings was authorized at the Annual Conference of 1979. I quote from the Journal of that year, Vol. II, page 377: "The 1979 Annual Conference authorize a committee to study the policy of parsonage furnishings, the study to include opportunities for pastors' spouses to express their view both in meetings and in anonymous written form, and the results to be reported to the Conference. To be implemented by the Bishop."

As you will note, only survey results were requested, causing one to presume that recommendations would be left to the discretion of the Conference upon reflections on the outcome of the survey. I feel the Committee greatly over-stepped their authority by ignoring the expressed wishes of a majority of the respondents and concentrating the bulk of the lengthy report on alternative systems.

#82016

By Barney Davidson — Recount vote on Parsonage Study — PASSED

I call for a recount vote and it should be done section by section by Tellers on the floor.

82017

By Bill Cottingham — For the church to be responsible for the storage of parsonage owned furnishings — FAILED

82018

By Vernon Tyson — Requested that the question of contingency committee on parsonage matters be settled by written ballot — FAILED

By Larry Jones, St. James, Raleigh — Requested an amendment to Environmental Position Paper — ACCEPTED

I move to amend the Position Paper on Environmental Protection and Energy by: 1. Deleting the sentence that reads, "But, concerned about the hazards of nuclear power, we also support . . . etc." and 2. Deleting the sentence that reads, "But questions about nuclear safety . . . etc." and replacing it with the following sentence: "But questions about nuclear safety have not been adequately resolved; therefore, we also support continued re-assessment by regulatory bodies of the need for increased monitoring of nuclear plant design, construction and operation."

By Joe Goehring, Glendale Heights Church, Durham — Personal and specific references Environmental Position Paper — PASSED

I move to delete all names and individual firms from the Environmental Protection and Energy Position Paper.

By Gary Chatham, Andrews-Soapstone Charge — Amendment to Nonintervention and Arms Sale Paper — ACCEPTED

I move that the 3rd and 4th paragraph be changed to read: "To this end, we condemn any intervention by any external groups, organizations and governments, etc.;" and "We, as United Methodists, call upon all external groups, organizations and governments, etc.;"

By Alan Swartz — Amendment on Abortion and Prayer Resolution to make two separate issues — ACCEPTED
